Pentecostalism and Cultism in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2021-02-28 Pentecostalism is a growing movement in world Christianity However the growth of Pentecostalism in South Africa has faced some challenges including the abuse of religion by some prophets This book first names these prophets and the churches they lead in South Africa and then makes use of literary and media analysis to analyse the religious practices by the prophets in relation to cultism Additionally the book analyses the celebrity cult and how it helps promote the prophets in South Africa The purpose of this book is threefold First to draw parallels between the abuse of religion and cultism Second to illustrate that it is cultic tendencies including the celebrity cult that has given rise to many prophets in South Africa Last to showcase that the challenge for many of these prophets is that the Pentecostal tradition is actually anti cultism and thus there is a need for them to rethink their cultic tendencies in order for them to be truly relevant in a South African context

Commercialisation of Religion in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, Jonas Sello Thinane, Chammah J. Kaunda, 2023-11-22 Aspects of the 2017 Final Report of the South African Commission on the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of Cultural Religious and Linguistic Communities CRL have drawn strong criticism particularly from South African scholars politicians and the public The criticism is largely regarding the constitutionality of its recommendation which calls for regulation of the Religion to combat its abuse and commercialization Scholars have criticized the CRL Rights Commission for hastening its investigation and releasing the final report without having a substantive understanding of what is meant by the commercialization of religion and consequently the unconstitutional implications of the recommendation to regulate religion A close reading of this critique has pointed to the urgent need to assemble a cumulative body of research that examines and advances understanding of what is meant by the commercialization of religion Accordingly this book gathers scholarly contributions which offer valuable insights into the basics of what is meant by the commercialization of religion Contributors examine this phenomenon from the historical roots to the manifestation in the contemporary world particularly in South Africa

Prophecy and Politics in South African Pentecostalism Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2023-12-28 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the relationship between prophecy and politics in South African Pentecostalism The role and the power of prophecy in enhancing the presence of politicians in the church square are unpacked through historical examples as well as case studies of contemporary prophets Solomon Kgatle argues that the influence of prophecy in politics has the potential to weaken the prophetic voice of the church in general and the Pentecostal movement in particular He proposes a Pentecostal political theology of prophecy This theology is developed by taking into cognizance the theoretical and theological frameworks of prophetic imagination and pneumatological imagination In addition this theology seeks a balance between prophecy and power and prophecy and sovereignty

Christological Paradigm Shifts in Prophetic Pentecostalism in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, Marius Nel, Collum Banda, 2021-09-22 This book explores recent developments in South African Pentecostalism focusing on new prophetic churches The chapters engage with a number of paradigm shifts in Christology identified as complementing Christ competing with Christ removing Christ and replacing Christ What are the implications of these shifts Does it mean that believers no longer believe in Christ but in their leaders Does it shift believers faith towards materiality than the person of Christ This volume will be valuable for scholars of African Christianity and in particular those interested in the neo prophetic movement and Christology in a South African context

Democracy and Its Fragility Monika Sawicka, Artur

Gruszczak,Aleksandra Zdeb,2025-10-20 This book explores democratic fragility an underdeveloped concept in the analyses of contemporary political regimes Diagnoses of fragility commonly occur when states are brought to the brink of the abyss Democracy and Its Fragility Mapping the Unstable Equilibrium builds on the premise that fragility is an inherent trait of democracy that expresses its exposure to disintegration yet does not foretell its death Employing a novel conceptual lens that seeks to scrutinize the stability of contemporary democratic regimes across the world the book offers a twofold contribution that provides new leverage for analysis Theoretically it refines the notion of fragility making it a complementary variable to the latest research on robustness and resilience Empirically the volume engages with an overview of fragility indicators featured in indices mapping the quality of democracy and an assessment of their limitations What follows are in depth qualitative case studies zooming into the struggles for democratic regime maintenance and response to a variety of unfavourable conditions in 13 countries across Asia Africa the Middle East Southern Europe and the Americas Addressing issues that are both conceptually advanced and highly accessible Democracy and Its Fragility Mapping the Unstable Equilibrium will attract academics and students of democracy studies politics and government and comparative politics

Handbook of Christian Prophetism in Africa ,2025-08-14 More than half a century has passed since the first monographs on African Christian prophetism were published The prophetic element was only the most dramatic and prominent part of developments that sought to bring the biblical material alive in ways that had not been experienced in the ecclesiology of Western mission Christianity The ministries of African charismatic figures of the early 20th century were oriented towards the biblical phenomenon of the prophetic and the related issue of divine or faith healing sometimes even to the neglect of the use of bio medical resources The developments have been interrogated in religious studies theology and the sociology and psychology of religion showing how important these churches have been in the African public sphere Politics, Christianity and Society in Malawi R. Ross,O. Mulwafu,2020-02-27 With the death of John McCracken in 2017 Malawi lost a pre eminent historian This book celebrates McCrackens contribution to the study of Malawis history and seeks to build on his legacy Part of his genius was that he identified themes that hold the key to understanding the history of Malawi in its broader perspective The authors contributing to this volume address these themes assessing the progress of historiography and setting an agenda for the further advance of historical studies The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and all who are interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Malawis past and present Jesus, the Best Capernaum

Folk-Healer Zorodzai Dube,2020-11-10 This book takes the established fields of orality performance and first century Christian healthcare studies further by combining analogues of praise performances to Apollo Asclepius and those from the Dondo people of South Eastern Zimbabwe to propose that Jesus s healing stories in Mark s Gospel are praise giving narratives to Jesus as the best folk healer within the region of Capernaum The book argues that the memory of Jesus as the folk healer from Capernaum survived and possibly functioned in similar contexts of praise giving within early Christian households The book goes through each healing story in Mark's Gospel and imaginatively listens to it through the ears of an analogue from praise giving given to Greek healers heroes and similar practices among the Dondo people The power completeness and effectiveness in which Jesus healed each of the mentioned conditions provoke praise giving from the listeners to the best folk healer in the village In each instance while Mark is calling for attention to the new healer more so he is raving praise giving

Kaunda, 2019-01-15 Through its strength in numbers and remarkable presence in politics Pentecostalism has become a force to reckon with in twenty first century Zambian society Yet some fundamental questions in the study of Zambian Pentecostalism and politics remain largely unaddressed by African scholars Situated within an interdisciplinary perspective this unique volume explores the challenge of continuity in the Zambian Pentecostal understanding and practice of spiritual power in relation to political engagement Chammah J Kaunda argues that the challenge of Pentecostal political imagination is found in the inculturation of spiritual power with political praxis The result of this inculturation is that Zambian Pentecostals sacralize the political authority of state power through the charisma of the national president and other major political personalities It has also contributed to the construction of Zambian Pentecostal leadership that is deified rather than leadership that is formed through the struggles and experiences of the marginalized and powerless Kaunda argues that the solution does not lie either in desacralization of powers or the separation between the church and the state but rather in rethinking the Christ event as a paradigm for the recovery of Pentecostalism's sociopolitical prophetic dynamism      To Another Level Sherry Majette, 2021-11-05 During my new beginning and walk with the Lord I have received a second chance for my life to make things right The cover design depicts one of the many visions given to me As you look at the cover of this book you are looking at a stairway leading up to the light at the end of the tunnel When I heard a voice say to me Look to your right See those steps over there I want you to start walking up there to that light before you until you reach the top I agreed As I started on my journey it became the longest walk of my life The steps were long but narrow At one point about midway there were a lot of distractions and people traveling the same path There were moments of gray with limited light to darkness and tunnels of blackness of uncertainty of where I was and being alone becoming fearful but I kept walking Then I came to a crossroad with only a right and left turn and there was a light People began to take those left and right turns but I heard the Lord say No do not turn to your right nor to your left keep walking to the light before you It was a long hard journey to get there but when I arrived at the door the light was even brighter I turned to look behind me and saw that I was alone Everyone else took the shortcut to a different destination Listen and follow that small still voice when you hear it it's the Holy Spirit speaking to you      Radio, Public Life and Citizen Deliberation in South Africa Sarah Chiumbu, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2021-05-24 This book critically analyses the important role of radio in public life in post apartheid South Africa As the most widespread and popular form of communication in the country radio occupies an essential space in the deliberation and the construction of public opinion in South Africa From just a few state controlled stations during the apartheid era there are now more than 100 radio stations reaching vast swathes of the population and providing an important space for citizens to air their views and take part in significant socio economic and political issues of the country The various contributors to this book demonstrate that whilst print and television media often serve elite interests and audiences the low cost and flexibility of radio has helped it to create a common space for national dialogue and deliberation The book also investigates the ways in which digital technologies have enhanced the consumption of radio and produced a sense of imagined community for citizens including those in marginalised communities and rural areas This book will be of interest to researchers with an interest in media politics and culture in South Africa specifically as well as those with an interest in broadcast media more generally Pastoral
