Sacraments Of Life Life Of The Sacraments Story Theology:

Sacraments of Life Leonardo Boff, 1987 This popular resource for Christian initiation examines the underlying meaning of the sacraments Drawn from the personal experience of twentieth century Brazilian theologian Leonardo Boff Sharing Peace Gerald Schlabach, Margaret R. Pfeil, 2013 Sharing Peace brings together leading Mennonite and Catholic theologians and ecclesial leaders to reflect on the recent first ever international dialogue between the Mennonite World Conference and the Vatican The search for a shared reading of history theology of the church and its sacraments or ordinances and understandings of Christ's call to be peacemakers are its most prominent themes Contributors include Scott Appleby Kroc Institute Notre Dame Alan Kreider Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary Helmut Harder Mennonite co chair of the international dialogue Drew Christiansen SJ Georgetown University Catholic delegate to the international dialogue John Roth Goshen College John Cavadini University of Notre Dame C Arnold Snyder University of Waterloo Mary Doak University of San Diego Elizabeth Groppe Xavier University Thomas Finger author of A Contemporary Anabaptist Theology Bishop Gabino Zavala past president of Pax Christi USA Duane Friesen Bethel College Kansas Gerald Schlabach University of St Thomas Mary Schertz Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary Abbot John Klassen OSB Saint John's Abbey Collegeville Minnesota co chair of Bridgefolk Margaret R Pfeil is assistant professor of moral theology at the University of Notre Dame and a Faculty Fellow of the Joan B Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies She specializes in Catholic social thought She is also a cofounder and resident of St Peter Claver Catholic Worker House in South Bend Indiana and is on the board of Bridgefolk a movement of Mennonites and Roman Catholics who come together to celebrate each other's practices and honor each other's contributions to the mission of Christ's church Gerald W Schlabach is professor of theology and director of the Justice and Peace Studies program at the University of St Thomas in St Paul Minnesota He is cofounder and executive director of Bridgefolk His books include Just Policing Not War An Alternative Response to World Violence Liturgical Press 2007 and Unlearning Protestantism Sustaining Christian Community in an Unstable Age Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres, 2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opened by-ness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation The work unfolds in two parts In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God's response to them In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy memory forgiveness and hope Sacraments Marilyn Kielbasa, 2000-09-16 The older teens in your parish want a youth ministry program that exposes them to relevant real world topics in an active engaging way Horizons is an innovative comprehensive approach to religious education Its foundation is teacher led creative learning strategies that give students ample opportunities for discussion reflection and fun Designed for grades 9-12 Horizons utilizes a module system so that you can combine courses and topics to meet the specific needs of your parish Seven core courses set the stage for discussing central and foundational themes Then choose from a wide selection of age appropriate minicourses to round out your curriculum and craft summer courses retreats and youth group activities The Youth Ministry Strategies component features more than 65 creative youth activities to complement the Horizons curriculum And on top of all that Horizons includes outstanding training resources You'll be able to create the most engaging and relevant youth ministry program for senior high that is available anywhere Gift and Economy Eric R. Severson, 2011-09-22 Is it possible to really give a gift This may at first glance seem like a peripheral question for philosophy which normally directs its attention to seemingly bigger questions The dynamics of the gift move into philosophy from anthropology and sociology but Jacques Derrida insists that this question belongs at the heart of philosophy This volume takes up Derrida's challenge to invest in the question of a gift and the relationship between gift and economy The powerful and corruptive forces of economy can wreak havoc on every effort to give or receive a pure gift Each of the essays investigates some aspect of the gift and the way economics relate to the sheer hospitality and generosity implied in the idea of giving Is there a blessed economy Must economics always operate in a sinister and exploitive fashion What can be learned by the philosophical investigations related to this concept There is something about the event or idea of the gift that cannot be entirely explained by the machinations of economy In the giving of a gift something happens if only unpredictably and rarely that cannot be explained by the calculus that tracks the exchange of money property goods debt and power This excess that confounds the reduction of the gift to the dynamics of power and exchange is a source of creative fascination for a wide range of philosophers including the collection of scholars who have contributed to this book The World as Sacrament Mathai Kadavil, 2005 Sacramentology is one of the few theological disciplines that have undergone tremendous changes in the past In the background of all these developments this study aims to look for a paradigm the world as sacrament that encompasses various trends and is relevant to the multi religious context of contemporary society The aim of this study is to rediscover this paradigm that existed from the beginning of Christianity Its main concern is to see the different possibilities it offers for today as well as observing the different concerns that are present in it It is done from the perspectives of Latin Greek and Syrian Christian traditions Empowerment of the Catholic Laity in the Nigerian

Political Situation Peter Chidi Okuma,2009 In light of this research work the Vatican II Council remains a landmark and its document Apostolicam Actuositatem what we decided to call a Text of witness of actions for the Catholic Laity the Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity inter alia Lumen gentium and Gaudium et spes that border on the mission of the Catholic Laity in the human society is a great achievement After the Vatican II Council the Church saw the need to enhance and harness the witnessing message of the Council for the Catholic Laity mission in the Church and in the world In the light of the foregoing this work is part of these efforts We developed a hermeneutical model via the political theology of Johann Baptist Metz in the light of the Vatican II Council message that becomes a challenge for concrete action of the Nigerian Catholic Laity in the existential socio political situation of Nigeria Exploring Indigenous Spirituality: The Kutchi Kohli Christians of Overcoming Women's Subordination in the Igbo African Culture and in the Catholic Church Rose N. Uchem,2001 When African scholars lament over the near destruction of African cultures they do not reflect the reality of African women s historical traditions of empowerment and inclusion in pre colonial pre Christian African societies which were also lost in the same process of Western Christian cultural imperialism Similarly most male Church theologians writing or speaking about inculturation do not address the deeper cultural issues which impact heavily on African women from back cover

Introduction to Sacramental Theology Jose Granados,2021-06-18 Introduction to Sacramental Theology presents a complete overview of sacramental theology from the viewpoint of the body This viewpoint is supported in the first place by Revelation for which the sacraments are the place where we enter into contact with the body of the risen Jesus It is a viewpoint secondly which is firmly rooted in our concrete human bodily experience thus allowing for a strong connection between faith and life creation and redemption From this point of view the treatise on the sacraments occupies a strategic role For the sacraments appear not as the last of a series of topics after dealing with Creation Christ the Church but as the original place in which to stand in order to contemplate the entire Christian mystery This point of view of the body which resonates with contemporary philosophy sheds fruitful light on classical themes such as the relationship of the sacraments with creation the composition of the sacramental sign the efficacy of the sacraments the sacramental character the role of the minister or the relationship of the sacrament with the Church as a sacrament As a result of this approach the Eucharist takes on a central role since this is the sacrament where the body of Jesus is made present The rest of the sacraments are seen as prolongations of the eucharistic body so as to fill all the time and space of the faithful This foundation of the theology of the sacraments in eucharistic theology is supported by an analysis of the patristic and medieval tradition In order to support its conclusions Introduction to Sacramental Theology examines the doctrine of Scripture especially St John and St Paul the main patristic and medieval authors St Augustine Hugh of St Victor St Bonaventure St Thomas Aquinas the response of Trent to the protestant challenges up to modern authors such as Scheeben Rahner Ratzinger or Chauvet including the teaching of Vatican II about the Church as a kind of sacrament

Christian Theologies of the Sacraments Justin S. Holcomb,David A. Johnson,2017-07-25 Delves into the ancient debate regarding the nature and purpose of the seven sacraments What are the sacraments For centuries this question has elicited a lively discussion and among theologians and a variety of answers that do anything but outline a unified belief concerning these fundamental ritual structures In this extremely cohesive and well crafted volume a group of renowned scholars map the theologies of sacraments offered by key Christian figures from the Early Church through the twenty first century Together they provide a guide to the variety of views about sacraments found throughout Christianity showcasing the variety of approaches to understanding the sacraments across the Catholic Protestant and Orthodox faith traditions Chapters explore the theologies of thinkers from Basil to Aquinas Martin Luther to Gustavo Guti rrez Rather than attempting to distill their voices into a single view the book addresses many of the questions that theologians have tackled over the two thousand year history of Christianity In doing so it paves the way for developing theologies of sacraments for present and future contexts The text places each theology of the sacraments into its proper sociohistorical context illuminating how the church has used the sacraments to define itself and its congregations over time The definitive resource on theologies of the sacraments this volume is a must read for students theologians and spiritually interested readers alike Unknowning God Nicholas Peter Harvey,Linda Woodhead,2022-05-11 This is a book about God and gods Spirit and spirits prayer and sacraments ghosts and resurrection Jesus and the church It grows out of immersion in Catholic and Anglican traditions and acute awareness of abuses in their name It is an honest and personal exploration of what still holds up and what has had to be discarded

Sola Scriptura Sacramentaque Charles Meeks,2021-03-29 The practice of the sacraments of baptism and the Eucharist allow Christians to read Scripture in the context of the church and in unity with the Trinity Charles Meeks argues here however that over the centuries since the Reformation Protestant expressions of the church have often allowed the sacraments to assume a minor role that has led to a weakening of Protestant ecclesiology and a disconnection of these ancient rituals from the gospel To unpack this reality Meeks relies on the work of fourth century bishop Hilary of Poitiers and modern theologian Robert W Jenson to examine the relationship between the sacraments and Scripture the Trinity and the church With Hilary he retrieves a hermeneutic that starts from the interdependence of the sacraments with all aspects of Christian life especially the way one reads Scripture formulates theology and understands what the church is and is not With Jenson Meeks applies this hermeneutic to the modern church in an appeal to recover a premodern sense of God s relationship to time and thus how the church relates to God through Word and Sacrament Word, Sacrament, Charism Marc Ouellet,2025-05-05 Cardinal Ouellet offers an ecclesiological key for a better understanding and practice of a Synodal Church He asks what does the future hold for a synodal Church Missionary conversion or confusion Spirits are stirred by the many questions raised by the vast consultation of the people of God gathered under the uncomfortable tent of synodality In our desire for reforms the Cardinal says that we are losing sight of the one perfect model the archetype Mary and that we should keep our gaze constantly fixed on Our Lady in order to know ourselves what the Church the ecclesial spirit ecclesial behaviour really are He states that the main weakness in the synodal process has been the lack of theological reflection which risks leaving the Church at the level of charitable NGOs This book proposes to fill this gap in the hope that the synodal operation will go further than the sociology of changing structures and the distribution of power Hence the elements proposed by Ouellet for a more Trinitarian pneumatological Marian and nuptial ecclesiology to prevent the Church from being divided into ideological struggles that extinguish the flame of mission The boldness of this book is to highlight the charismatic dimension of the Church too long neglected for lack of pneumatology Its revolutionary originality lies in placing the charism on the same footing as the Word and the Sacrament

The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike

Graves,2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman s preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn t always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expository nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching

Nature's Sacrament David C. McDuffie,2021-09-24 In a sacramental ecology divine grace is to be found in the evolutionary emergence of life The Epic of Evolution is the scientific story that reveals that we live in an approximately 14 billion year old universe on a planet that is approximately 4.6 billion years old and that we are a part of the ongoing process of life that has existed on Earth for roughly 4 billion years Nature s Sacrament focuses on the religious and ecological significance of the evolutionary epic in an effort to seamlessly connect the ecological value attributed as a part of an understanding of the evolutionary connectedness of life on Earth with the Divine grace understood to be present in Christian sacramental worship David C McDuffie is a faculty member in the Religious Studies Department at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro where his primary teaching schedule includes courses in World Religions Religion in America Christian History Religion and Environment and Religion and Politics Broadly his research and teaching interests involve the subject area of Religion and Culture which includes but is not limited to the relationships between religion and politics science and health care This is his first book
