2 Read what a headmaster says to the new students at his school. Then write two sentences each about the things they must do, the two things they mustn't do, and the things they don't have to do.

Welcome to our school. I'm glad to see you are all here early because I don't allow pupils to come late. I just want to say a few words about how we do things here. The school hasn't got a uniform, so you can come in normal clothes, but I don't want to see any dirty jeans with holes in them. Your teachers will give you homework every night. Don't forget to do it! We have a school canteen but we allow pupils to go home for lunch if they want. Finally, sport! All students in this school do at least one sport. We teach ten different sports here, and you can choose the one you like best. We expect you try hard at your sport, and never miss any training.
