The Feminization of Fame 1750-1830 C. Brock, 2006-07-11 This book addresses the literary cultural and historical questions surrounding the reconceptualization of fame between 1750 1830 It examines genres from history writing to literature public and private memoirs to political treatises in English and in French in order to explore The age of personality s obsession with instantaneous publicity Inspiration in the Age of Enlightenment Sarah Eron, 2014-03-20 Inspiration in the Age of Enlightenment reconsiders theories of apostrophe and poetic authority to argue that the Augustan age created a new form of inspiration one that not only changed the relationship of literary production to authority in the modern period but also crucially contributes to defining the movement of secularization in literature from the Renaissance to Romanticism Seeking to redefine what we mean by secularization in the early stages of modernity Eron argues that secularization s link to enthusiasm or inspiration often associated with Romanticism begins in the imaginative literature of the early eighteenth century If Romantic enthusiasm has been described through the rhetoric of transport or unworlding then Augustan invocation appears more akin to a process of worlding in its central aim to appeal to the social other as a function of the eighteenth century belief in a literary public sphere By reformulating the passive structure of ancient invocation and subjecting it to the more dialogical methods of modern apostrophe and address authors such as the Third Earl of Shaftesbury Alexander Pope Henry Fielding and Anna Laetitia Barbauld formally revise inspiration in a way that generates a new and distinctive representation of the author In this context inspiration becomes a social gesture an apostrophe to a friend or judging spectator or an allusion to the mental or aesthetic faculties of the author himself his genius Articulating this struggle toward modernity at its inception this book examines modern authority at the moment of its extraordinariness when it was still tied to the creative energies of inspiration to the revelatory powers that marked the awakening of a new age an era and an ethos of Enlightenment Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 News Notes of California Libraries California State Library, 1931 Vols for 1971 include annual reports and statistical summaries Arts & Humanities Citation Index , 1979
