Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment

Infrastructures of Apocalypse Jessica Hurley, 2020-10-13 A new approach to the vast nuclear infrastructure and the apocalypses it produces focusing on Black queer Indigenous and Asian American literatures Since 1945 America has spent more resources on nuclear technology than any other national project Although it requires a massive infrastructure that touches society on myriad levels nuclear technology has typically been discussed in a limited top down fashion that clusters around powerful men In Infrastructures of Apocalypse Jessica Hurley turns this conventional wisdom on its head offering a new approach that focuses on neglected authors and Black queer Indigenous and Asian American perspectives Exchanging the usual white male nuclear canon for authors that include James Baldwin Leslie Marmon Silko and Ruth Ozeki Infrastructures of Apocalypse delivers a fresh literary history of post 1945 America that focuses on apocalypse from below Here Hurley critiques the racialized urban spaces of civil defense and reads nuclear waste as a colonial weapon Uniting these diverse lines of inquiry is Hurley's belief that apocalyptic thinking is not the opposite of engagement but rather a productive way of imagining radically new forms of engagement Infrastructures of Apocalypse offers futurelessness as a place from which we can construct a livable world It fills a blind spot in scholarship on American literature of the nuclear age while also offering provocative surprising new readings of such well known works as Atlas Shrugged Infinite Jest and Angels in America Infrastructures of Apocalypse is a revelation for readers interested in nuclear issues decolonial literature speculative fiction and American studies

Fights of Fancy George Edgar Slusser, Eric S. Rabkin, 1993 This collection of fifteen original essays offers new perspectives on armed conflict as a central aspect of science fiction and fantasy writing Looking past the superficial conventions associated with ray guns and aliens swords and sorcerers the contributors show how writers in the genre today are not so much imagining war more fully as they are completely reimagining it Science fiction and fantasy writing is no longer mired in epic or chivalric models but is responding to new and more complex real world motivations for armed aggression advances in weaponry shifts in the theaters of war and changes in battlefield conditions Most of the papers were presented at the annual J Lloyd Eaton Conference on Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature the field's most prestigious international gathering The trend throughout the book is away from critical interest in stories of spatial or territorial conquest and toward works that deal with topics related to wars of temporal logistics and the internationalization of the combat zone including urban street violence gender conflicts and resistance to runaway technology The essays range from studies of the semantics and linguistics of warfare in science fiction to a critique of Osip Senkovsky's Fantastic Journeys of Baron Brambeus from writer Joe Haldeman's assessment of the impact of his Vietnam experiences on his fiction to inquiries into a shared author reader agenda in novels concerning potential mass destruction including Stephen King's Dead Zone and M J Engh's Arslan The collection also charts new directions in writing such as the anti apocalyptic science fiction of Samuel R Delany and embraces new modes of presentation particularly computer animation and the bande dessinée or illustrated narrative as exemplified by French novelist Phillippe Druillet's La Nuit Musician Bob Marley film actor directors Sylvester Stallone and Bruce Lee and the cyberpunk film classics Terminator and the Road Warrior series are among other topics discussed Together the essays reinforce the editors contention that the true function of these fantasies and science fictions is neither nostalgia nor fancy but analysis The contributors treat the texts they examine as a means not of playing war games but of understanding the role of war in the present and the future

The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan, 2012 Novels began to incorporate literary theory in unexpected ways in the late twentieth century Through allusion parody or implicit critique theory formed an additional strand in fiction raising questions about the nature of authorship and the practice of writing Investigating theories of textuality psychology and society in the work of Don DeLillo Thomas Pynchon J M Coetzee Margaret Atwood W G Sebald and Umberto Eco as well as Monika Maron Alain Robbe Grillet Marguerite Duras Marilynne Robinson David Foster Wallace and Christa Wolf Judith Ryan identifies subtle negotiations between author and theory and the richness this dynamic adds to texts Resetting the way we think and learn about literature her book reads current literary theory while uniquely tracing its shaping of a genre

Speculative Orientalism: Asian Religions in New Wave Science Fiction Sang-Keun Yoo, 2025-08-21 Examining the works of prominent New Wave science fiction authors from the 1950 1960s Sang Keun Yoo highlights the underexplored connection between American science fiction and Asian religions such as Taoism Buddhism and Hinduism The book considers how the major world wars of the 20th century Second World War the Cold War and the Vietnam War repositioned Asian culture in relation to the science fiction genre in the period Underpinning this study Sang Keun Yoo argues that Speculative Orientalism emerged in American science fiction during the 1950s and 60s This concept adopted various aspects of Asian religions to envision alternative worlds unburdened by the constraints of colonialism totalitarianism racism and sexism present in contemporary American society Bringing fresh perspectives to the works of William S Burroughs Philip K Dick Ursula K Le Guin and Samuel R Delany this book offers an insightful examination of the role of Asian religions in American science fiction and their impact on the genre's history
