Dimensions Of The Learning Organization:

The Dimensions of the Learning Organization Questionnaire: Toward New Conceptual, Organizational and Contextual Boundaries

Karen Watkins, Victoria Marsick, Anders Ortenblad, 2021 The Oxford Handbook of the Learning Organization Anders Örtenblad, 2019-12-12 The concept of the learning organization is one of the most popular management ideas of the last few decades Since it was conceived as an idea in its own right it has been given various definitions and meanings such that we are still faced with the question as to whether any unified understanding of what the learning organization really is can be established This Handbook offers extensive reviews of both new and traditional perspectives on the concept and provides suggestions for how the learning organization can best be defined practiced studied and developed in future research With contributions from long standing scholars in the field as well as those new to the area this book aims to bridge the gap between traditional and more critical perspectives and in doing so find alternative features and angles to take the idea forward In addition to elaborating on and developing older definitions of the learning organization and suggesting updated and even new definitions the chapters also provide focused explorations on pertinent aspects of the learning organization such as ambidexterity gender inclusivity and systems thinking They also survey organizations that have made efforts towards becoming learning organizations how the learning organization can best be measured and studied and the universality of the idea itself Some of the questions raised in this book are answered or at least given tentative answers while other questions are left open In this way the book has the ambition to take the learning organization an important step further whilst having no intentions to take any final step instead the intention is that others will endeavour to continue where this book stops Organizational Learning and the Learning Organization Mark Easterby-Smith, Luis Araujo, John

Collectif,2018-10-23 Wales United Kingdom considers the development of schools as learning organisations as vital for supporting schools to put its new 21st century curriculum into practice A growing body of research evidence shows that schools that operate as learning organisations can react more quickly to changing external environments and embrace changes and innovations This report aims to support Wales in this effort gauging the extent to which schools have put into practice the characteristics of learning organisations and identifying areas for further development It also examines the system level conditions that can enable or hinder schools in Wales in developing as learning organisations It offers a number of concrete recommendations for consideration by the Welsh Government and other stakeholders at various levels of the system The report will be valuable not only for Wales but also to the many countries that are looking to establish collaborative learning cultures across their school systems ICICKM2010-Proceedings of the 7th International Conference
