Support Work Relationships Deborah Luise Lutz,2020-03-03 Deborah Luise Lutz explores support work relationships the relationships between people with intellectual disabilities in receipt of a personal budget and their support workers Through the methodology of Institutional Ethnography she specifically investigates how personal budget policies that organize support work in Germany and Australia influence support work relationships She found that the policies of personal budgets are connected to people s views and expectations about the support work relationship and the support work context that influence the relationship The author argues that disability research policy and practice need to be cognisant of this interconnection to improve the quality of support work relationships

Disability, Happiness and the Welfare State Hisayo Katsui,Matti T. Laitinen,2024-03-26 This book looks at disability as an evolving social phenomenon Disability is created through the interaction between persons with impairments and their environment Exploring these experiences of persons with disabilities and discussing universality and particularity in our understanding of assumed development and normalcy it takes Finland which has been chosen repeatedly as the happiest country in the world as its case study Using disability as a critical lens helps to demystify Finland that has the positive reputation of a Welfare State By identifying different kinds of discrimination against persons with disabilities as well as successful examples of disability inclusion it shows that when looking Finland from the perspective of persons with disabilities inequality and poverty have been collective experiences of too many of them It will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies sociology social policy social work political science health and well being studies and Nordic studies more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
