International Commercial Arbitration Seyoum Yohannes Tesfay, 2021-02-18 This book is the first ever to explore commercial arbitration in the Ethiopian context Alternative conflict resolution mechanisms are nothing new to the country arbitration as a dispute settlement mechanism by which a third party issues a binding decision on a dispute between two or more parties by exercising the jurisdictional mandate conferred on it by the parties themselves was established with the adoption of the Civil Code in 1960 This pioneering book evaluates the extent to which Ethiopia's laws and institutions allow disputing parties to effectively reap the benefits of international commercial arbitration It interprets the relevant legislation and attempts to bridge the gaps in it in order to help lawyers arbitrators arbitral institutions academics and judges to understand and apply it It also helps parties seeking to complete international transactions pertaining to Ethiopia make the right choice regarding conflict resolution African Thoughts on Colonial and Neo-Colonial Worlds Anaïs Angelo, Paulina Aroch-Fugellie, Lena Dallywater, Lutz Diegner, Myra Ann Houser, Janine Kläge, Sara Marzagora, Felix Müller, Arno Sonderegger, Ninja Steinbach-Hüther, Joanna Tegnerowicz, 2015-10-16 This book shows the many facets of African engagements with the world It starts from the premise that current global asymmetries ascribing Africa to a marginalized position are the effects of colonial and imperial pasts still lingering on The decolonization process of the post war structure which privileges the West in both political and economic terms While new dependencies emerged several old bonds were maintained and continue to influence African affairs quite strikingly It is appropriate then to call these continued unequal relations between Africa and the West frankly neo colonial This designation applies all the more as the post colonial states of Africa inherited a complex legacy of foreign rule colonial frontiers colonial languages colonial infrastructure and authoritarian institutions as well as the social intricacies and imbalances so characteristic of the colonial situation The contributions to this volume look at various aspects of these complex processes from intellectual history perspectives The topics dealt with are manifold Contributions deliberately attack key themes ideas and discourses of an intellectual history of Africa state modernity development dependency art etc and introduce important engaged public intellectuals from Africa and the African diaspora What is Africa and how is she related to the rest of the world How can she overcome her internal problems and her external dependencies These are perennial questions critically tackled by Africans throughout the 20th century Dealing with various cases looked at from a variety of perspectives the contributions to this book offer original insights into the intellectual history of Africa Unity in Diversity Christophe van der Beken, 2012 This book argues that the development of federalism in Ethiopia fits in with a global trend towards increased attention to ethnic minority rights and to federalism as a mechanism for ethnic conflict prevention and management The Ethiopian federation is designed as a framework within which the Ethiopian ethnic groups can protect their rights and within which they are stimulated to develop a cooperative relationship To put it differently the constitutional objective of the federal structure is the creation of unity in diversity The book evaluates the capacity of Ethiopian federalism to achieve this objective by investigating the relevant historical political and legal aspects Series Recht und Politik in Afrika Law and Politics in Africa Vol 10 Business, Politics, and the State in Africa Doctor Tim Kelsall, 2013-01-10 In recent years Africa appears to have turned a corner economically It is posting increased growth rates and is no longer the world's slowest growing region Commentators are beginning to ask whether emerging from Africa is a new generation of lion economies to challenge the East Asian tigers This book goes behind the headlines to examine the conditions necessary not just for growth in Africa but for a wider business and economic transformation Contrary to neoliberal economics it argues that governments can play an important role in this through selective interventions to correct market failures and controversially that neo-patrimonial governance need not be an obstacle to improved business and economic conditions Drawing on a variety of timely case studies including Rwanda Ethiopia Tanzania and Ghana this provocative book provides a radical new theory of the political and institutional conditions required for pro-poor growth in Africa Alliance of the Colored Peoples Joseph Calvitt Clarke, 2011 A detailed examination of Ethiopian Japanese relations from their beginnings in the interwar period through the Italo-Ethiopian War of 1935-6 drawing on Japanese Russian Italian French and English sources With the Japanese posing as the leader of the world's colored peoples before World War II many Ethiopians turned to Japan for inspiration By offering them commercial opportunities by seeking their military support and by reaching out to popular Japanese opinion Ethiopians tried to soften the stark reality of a stronger Italy encroaching on their country Europeans feared Japan's growing economic and political influence in the colonial world Jealously guarding its claimed rights in Ethiopia against all comers among Italy's reasons for going to war was the perceived need to blunt Japan's commercial and military advances into Northeast Africa Meanwhile throughout 1934 and the summer of 1935 Moscow worked hard and in ways contrary to its claimed ideological imperatives to make Collective Security work Ethiopia was a small price to pay Italy for cooperation against Nazi Germany in Austria and Imperial Japan in China Yellow Japanese and black Ethiopian collaboration before the war illuminates the pernicious and flexible use of race in international diplomacy In odious terms Italians used race to justify their actions as defending western and white civilization The Japanese used race to explain their tilt toward Ethiopia The Soviets used race to justify their support for Italy until late 1935 Ethiopia used race to attract help and colored peoples worldwide rallied to Ethiopia's call J Calvitt Clarke III is Professor Emeritus of History at Jacksonville University Florida Multi-party Elections in Africa Michael Cowen, Liisa Laakso, 2002 Most of the studies in this book are about national elections in Anglophone Africa There are also less well-known examples from Sudan Ethiopia and Guinea-Bissau The collection also features studies of the local elections in Namibia and of a significant by-election in Malawi The multiparty period has been put wherever possible within the historical context of earlier elections in Africa Questions addressed include how did incumbent governing regimes learn to live with multiparty politics Why have some elections been so closely fought and others have suffered from apathy Why has there been relatively open political expression and activity when the elections have increased the political and economic manipulation by incumbent governments Why have the elections of the 1990s been so marked by local and ethnic variations To what extent did this wave of democracy result from pressure from donor countries North America Palgrave Good Governance and Civil Society Participation in Africa Organization for Social Science Research in Eastern and Southern Africa, Ossrea, 2008-12-31 governments and the public at large Book Jacket
