

EVOLUTIONARY DYNAMICS

The background of the cover is a complex, abstract pattern. It features a dense network of thin, green, filamentous structures that resemble neural connections or biological pathways. Interspersed among these are several larger, more distinct shapes in shades of blue and orange. A prominent, bright red, star-like or cluster-like shape is located in the center of the image, drawing the eye. The overall color palette is dominated by green, blue, and red, set against a dark, almost black, background.
