clearly explains how Chinese shamanism can be seamlessly woven into modern lifestyle and contemporary medical practices. He explores effective methods to address physical pathologies and emotional imbalances by applying shamanic influenced techniques including visualizations, verbal healing and shamanic drumming among others for self care and medical treatment. The primary resource for the material presented originates from the author's intensive decade long study under shamanic teacher Master Zhongxian Wu. Several color illustrations and before and after patient photos are included that beautifully depict the spirit based diagnostics and treatments. Incorporating numerous clinical examples and thoroughly researched procedures, this book teaches practitioners how to combine treatments concentrating on the spirit and soul with modern medicine to treat the whole person and enrich their practice. This enlightening book is a must read for Chinese medicine practitioners, other medical professionals and non professionals interested in the subject. Chinese Medicine and Healing TJ Hinrichs, Linda L. Barnes, 2013-01-07. What if you could tell just by looking at people how they tend to think, feel and behave? What if your partner's face revealed the best way to resolve any conflicts you might have? And what if you could discover in your own face the wisdom that you need to be your true self? Based on the same ancient foundation as acupuncture and Chinese medicine, face reading has a depth of over 3 000 years of research and development. When translated for our Western lives, it's a powerful source of wisdom that we can all access. Jean Haner will show you how to live in alignment with your own natural flow, find the path that gives you joy, attract relationships that nurture you and most of all, feel compassion for yourself and others. This book will forever change how you see yourself as well as everyone else in your life. Faces around the World Margo DeMello, 2012-02-14. This book provides a comprehensive examination of the human face, providing fascinating information from biological, cultural and social perspectives. Our faces identify who we are, not only what we look like and what ethnicities we belong to, but they can also identify what religions we practice and what personal ideologies we have. This one of a kind A-Z reference explores the ways we change, beautify and adorn our faces to create our personalities and identities. In addition to covering the basics such as the anatomical structure and function of parts of the human face, the entries examine how the face is viewed around the world, allowing students to easily draw connections and differences between various cultures around the world. Readers will learn about a wide variety of topics including identity in different cultures, religious beliefs, folklore, extreme beautification, the evil eye, scarification, facial piercing and facial tattooing, masks, social views about beauty including cosmetic surgery and makeup, how gender, class and sexuality play a role in our understanding of the face and skin, eye, mouth, nose and ear diseases and disorders. This encyclopedia is ideal for high school and undergraduate students studying anthropology, anatomy, gender, religion and world cultures. The Acupuncture
