The Rhetoric of Racist Humour

Simon Weaver, 2016-02-24 In today's multicultural and multireligious societies humour and comedy often become the focus of controversy over alleged racist or offensive content as shown for instance by the intense debate of Sacha Baron Cohen's characters Ali G and Borat and the

Prophet Muhammad cartoons published in the Danish newspaper Jyllands Posten Despite these intense debates commentary on humour in the academy lacks a clear way of connecting the serious and the humorous and a clear way of accounting for the serious impact of comic language The absence of a developed serious vocabulary with which to judge the humorous tends to encourage polarized debates which fail to account for the paradoxes of humour This book draws on the social theory of Zygmunt Baumann to examine the linguistic structure of humour arguing that as a form of language similar to metaphor it is both unstable and unpredictable and structurally prone to act rhetorically that is to be convincing Deconstructing the dominant form of racism aimed at black people in the US and that aimed at Asians in the UK The Rhetoric of Racist Humour shows how racist humour expresses and supports racial stereotypes in the US and UK while also exploring the forms of resistance presented by the humour of Black and Asian comedians to such stereotypes An engaging exploration of modern late modern and fluid or postmodern forms of humour this book will be of interest to sociologists and scholars of cultural and media studies as well as those working in the fields of race and ethnicity humour and cultural theory

Participatory Critical Rhetoric Michael Middleton, Aaron Hess, Danielle Endres, Samantha Senda-Cook, 2015-12-16 Increasingly rhetorical scholars are using fieldwork and other ethnographic performance and qualitative methods to access document and analyze forms of everyday in situ rhetoric rather than using already documented texts In this book the authors argue that participatory critical rhetoric as an approach to in situ rhetoric is a theoretically methodologically and praxiologically robust approach to critical rhetorical studies This book addresses how participatory critical rhetoric furthers understanding of the significant role that rhetoric plays in everyday life through expanding the archive of rhetorical practices and texts emplacing rhetorical critics in direct conversation with rhetors and audiences at the moment of rhetorical invention and highlighting marginalized voices that might otherwise go unnoticed This book organizes the theoretical and methodological foundations of participatory critical rhetoric through four vectors that enhance conventional rhetorical approaches 1 the political commitments of the critic 2 rhetorical reflexivity and the role of the embodied critic 3 emplaced rhetoric and the interplay between the field text and context and 4 multiperspectival judgment that is informed by direct participation with rhetors and audiences In addition to laying the groundwork and advocating for the approach Participatory Critical Rhetoric also offers significant contributions to rhetorical theory and criticism more broadly by revisiting the field's understanding of core topics such as role of the critic text context audience rhetorical effect and the purpose of criticism Further it enhances theoretical conversations about material rhetoric place space affect intersectional rhetoric embodiment and rhetorical reflexivity
