Sample Constitution Self Help Group Kenya:

Constitutional Identity and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2024-01-23 In its modern history Africa has experienced different waves of constitutional ordering The latest democratisation wave which began in the 1990s has set the stage over the past decade for what is now a hotly debated issue do recent new or fundamentally revised constitutions truly reflect an African constitutional identity Thoughtfully navigating a contested field this volume brings to the fore a number of foundational questions about African constitutionalism Constitutional Identity and Constitutionalism in Africa asks whether the concept of constitutional identity clarifies our understanding of constitutional change in Africa including an exploration of the relationship between constitutional identity and a country's unique culture's and histories Building on this contributions examine the persistent role of colonial heritages in shaping constitutional identity in post Independence African nations and the question of path dependency Given the enduring influence of the colonial experience the volume asks how why and to what end African constitutions must be decolonised to form an authentic constitutional identity This theoretical insight is supplemented and further deepened by detailed case studies of South Africa Ethiopia Cape Verde Cameroon and Egypt and their diverse experience of constitutional continuity and change This volume in the Stellenbosch Handbooks in African Constitutional Law series brings together contributions from established scholars and emerging voices on the study of constitutional processes They provide an urgent critical analysis of existing paradigms concepts and normative ideologies of modern African constitutionalism in the context of constitutional identity

Culture, Institutions, and Development Jean-Philippe Platteau, Robert Peccoud, 2010-10-04 This book brings together economists sociologists and anthropologists to discuss the role of culture in economic development addressing such issues as religion family ethnic ties entrepreneurship and poverty

Markets, Civil Society and Democracy in Kenya Peter Gibbon, 1995 Focuses on three of the most important dimensions of grassroots development and change in the country over the last decade and a half continuity and transformation in the cereals marketing chain the centrepiece of World Bank European Community and USAID efforts during the 1980s and early 1990s to liberalize Kenyan economic institutions on the basis of aid conditionality the nature and political role of local level development institutions before and after the re emergence of multi party politics in 1991 92 and the complex relation between recent political developments and religious organizations

The New African Diaspora in the United States

Toyin Falola, Adebayo Oyebadé, 2016-07-01 Fast growing in population African immigrants in the United States have become a significant force to the point that the idea of a new African diaspora is now a reality This thriving community has opened new arenas of scholarly discourse on Black Atlantic history beyond the trans Atlantic slave trade and its legacies This book investigates the complex dynamic forces that have shaped and continue to shape this new diaspora In eleven original essays the volume examines pertinent themes such as immigration integration dilemmas identity construction brain drain remittances expanding African religious space and how these dynamics impact and intersect with the African homeland With contributors from both sides of the Atlantic that represent a diverse range of academic disciplines this book offers a broad perspective on emerging themes in contemporary African diasporan experiences The book will be of interest to scholars and students of African and African American Studies Sociology and History Kenya After 50 Mickie Mwanzia Koster, Michael Mwenda Kithinji, Jerono P. Rotich, 2016-04-08 This book explores the key milestones in education gender and policy that Kenya has achieved since independence the challenges of this experience and the future prospects This edited collection of chapters also aims to illuminate the lessons learned from the experiences of the postcolonial period as well as postulate on the way forward Through this exploration of the Kenyan experience since independence the authors present an optimistic view that despite the many obstacles and challenges the country still has promising prospects as a nation Readings in African Politics Tom Young, 2003 Table of contents Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 1998 Rethinking Biomedicine and Governance in Africa P. Wenzel Geißler, Richard Rottenburg, Julia Zenker, 2014-03-15 In the domain of health the relation between bodies citizenship nations and governments has changed beyond recognition over the past four decades especially in Africa In many regions populations are now faced with a total lack of medical care and the disciplinary regimes of modernity are faint memories In this situation new critical insights beyond the critique of old modernization and the disciplinary regimes of imperial times are needed How can we keep up our sophisticated criticism of knowledge regimes and our doubts with regard to narratives of development when so many people in Africa are dreaming about modernity and are envisioning their own renaissance NEMAnews, 2005 Constitution-making from the Middle Willy Mutunga, 1999 Conference on Housing in Africa, 1982 Ecoforum, 2001 Practical Considerations for Public Participation in Constitution-Building What, When, How and Why? Erin C. Houlihan and Sumit Bisarya, 2021-07-26 Public participation has become a core element of modern constitution building Robust participation is credited with a range of benefits from improving individual behaviours and attitudes to democracy to shaping elite bargaining dynamics improving constitutional content and strengthening outcomes for democracy and peace Yet it is not well understood whether and how public participation can achieve these ends Much of what we think we know about participatory constitution building remains theoretical No two processes are alike and there is no agreed definition of what constitutes a participatory process Yet national decision makers must contend with the key question What does a robust participation process look like for a particular country at a particular time in a particular context What considerations and principles can be derived from comparative experience to guide decisions This Policy Paper unpacks the forms and functions of public participation across different stages of the constitution building process and considers the ways in which public engagement can influence the dynamics of the process including political negotiations The Nairobi Law Monthly ,1996 Finger Millet Blast Management in East Africa ,2007 Fundamental Rights and Freedoms in Kenya Kivutha Kibwana,1990 Examines the rights guaranteed under Chapter 5 of the Constitution of Kenya Includes a chapter on international human rights standards

The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray,2016-10-26 All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies This book focuses solely on the unique African context engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge Unlike most academic works this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers As an edited book it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible Looking at case studies from Lesotho Botswana Kenya Zimbabwe Ethiopia Namibia Uganda Nigeria Kenya South Africa Rwanda Zambia and Tanzania and covering established areas of practice such as child protection working with older people working with people with disabilities mental health and mainstream services targeting women as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post conflict situations work with immigrants and refugees and the training of community based workers this book takes a future oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa from a critical perspective
