Ford, 2012-04-17 Edward Ford's forty years of practicing and teaching architecture have focused on one area the architectural detail Yet despite two hugely influential books The Details of Modern Architecture volumes 1 and 2 numerous articles and lectures given from Vancouver to Vienna there are two questions Ford has remarkably never answered What is a detail and more importantly What is a good detail Ford is an architect as well as a writer so it is not surprising that rather than answering these questions in a third book he spent six years on the design and construction of a house Building it was not an exercise in the application of ideas about detail it was rather a mechanism for answering those two simple questions Designing a Place Called Home James Wentling, 2016-12-28 This insightful volume shares design ideas to help builders planners and architects create mass produced affordable housing that pushes suburban development in more sustainable liveable directions The author argues that improving the quality of design in our new homes and communities for greater resiliency sustainability and equality we can build neighborhoods and communities where residents feel more connected to their homes and to one another Through text photographs and illustrations the book reviews prototypical American housing design then suggest ways to both learn from the past as well as adapt for new environmental imperatives demographic changes and lifestyle needs Written by a practicing architect with 25 years of experience optimizing residential design this pioneering approach to suburban building will inspire readers to view mass produced housing through a new modern lens Modern Studies in Property Law, Volume 11 Sue Farran, Russell Hewitson, Adam Ramshaw, 2021-07-29 What are the contemporary challenges faced by property law as we enter the 2nd decade of the 21st century This collection brings together the research and perspectives of an international body of academics and practitioners to consider these challenges and how even familiar topics must develop to meet new demands and developments As with previous books in the Modern Studies in Property Law series this volume adopts a broad approach to topics encompassed by property law in the firm belief that the boundaries that divide are shadowy at best and constantly moving in the endeavour to keep up with what is modern This collection looks at 5 themes Comparative perspectives including a chapter on grazing and cropping rights in Northern Ireland and analysis of the anomalies of the

English trust law as seen from a civil law perspective Taking and alienating property including a chapter on bankruptcy and the family home Modern dilemmas including chapters on trusts in virtual currency and on smart homes Old chestnuts new challenges including analysis of the mortgage law reform in Scotland and a chapter on the ouster principle in common law jurisdictions and Wills death and other morbid topics with chapters on English succession law and the role of knowledge and approval in retrospective assessments of capacity Unfortunately the COVID 19 pandemic prevented the 13th biennial conference being held in 2020 as planned but despite this the authors and co editors persevered to produce this interesting and diverse collection
