Dew in the Morning Shimmer Chinodya, 2019-02-11 Dew in the Morning was written when the author Shimmer Chinodya was eighteen The intensity of childhood memory is sharp and immediate Godi the young boy whose life we experience as he grows up perceives more than he understands The ambivalence or instability of the text lies at the juncture between the felt experience of the child and the rational interpretative analysis of the adult A Bildungsroman Chinodya captures the centrality of land in the national consciousness its beauty its rhythms its seasons and its fertility But he does not romanticise the hardships the droughts poor harvests over crowding particularly as a result of the inflow of resettled people and the tensions over land and between peoples as they struggle to survive Good humour strict morality hard work and mutual support can be undermined by corrupt practice or tainted by traditional ceremonies that are as frightening as they are powerful and raise essential questions of belief and validity Dew in the Morning is a tender evocative novel of growing up but in it we see the seeds of many issues which Chinodya will dwell on in his later novels familial tensions the taut interplay of tradition and modernity ancestral beliefs and Christianity Dew in the Morning Shimmer Chinodya, 2001 A sharply perceived evocation of changing life in rural Zimbabwe during the 1960s and 1970s Narrated from the point of view of a young boy Godi it follows the fortunes of a city dwelling family who extablish a small farm in the country As Godi grows himself he observes the growth of the village as the people strive to resolve tensions between conflicting values and ambitions The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe, 2008 Columbia s guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent's rich and diverse literary traditions. This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of Reading for Water Isabel Hofmeyr, Charne Lavery, Sarah Nuttall, 2023-09-12 An experiment in reading for development water this book offers students and teachers a toolkit of methods that follow the sensory political and agentive power of water across literary texts The chapters in this book follow rivers rain streams tunnels and sewers connect atmospheric surface and ground water describe competing hydrological traditions and hydro epistemologies. They propose new literary regions defined less by nation and area than by coastlines river basins monsoons currents and hydro cosmologies Whether thinking along water courses below the water line or through the fall of precipitation Reading for Water moves laterally vertically and contrapuntally between different water worlds and hydro imaginaries Addressing southern African and Caribbean texts the collection draws on a range of elementally inclined literary approaches critical oceanic studies new materialisms coastal and hydrocritical approaches hydrocolonialism black hydropoetics and atmospheric methods The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Interventions The Place of Tears Ranka Primorac, 2006-06-30 THIS IS AN NJR NOT JACKET BLURB DO NOT USE IT THIS RAW FORM This new and original work is the only recent monographic treatment of the Zimbabwean novel and its political implications An earlier one by Veit Wild 1992 has not been updated and other such as that by Zhuwarara 2001 are not easily available outside Zimbabwe The author resided in Zimbabwe for almost a decade and has visited the country regularly in the last five years She has published extensively on Zimbabwean literature and brings to her work a deep contextual richness as well as theoretical sophistication Thoroughly up to date the book examines all the published novels of the recently deceased Yvonne Vera d April 2005 as well as major novels of five other internationally acclaimed Zimbabwean writers including Tsitsi Dangarembga and Chenjerai Hove It does so against a political backdrop which goes right up to the March 2005 parliamentary elections The book provides a modern and original historical account of post independence Zimbabwean writing and its relationship to history and politics The critical investigation focuses on fictional representations of space time which links the book the tragically topical Zimbabwean issue of land Dr Primorac employs a form of literary and cultural theory reminiscent of Bakhtinian analysis but drawn at length from East European theoretical sources She investigates what the novels have to say about the Zimbabwean condition and makes a sophisticated link between ideas about space time and novelistic ideologies More than that drawing a parallel with the experience of Eastern Europe she shows how the novel itself breaks out of the confines of the quasi Marxist analysis which still holds sway in Zimbabwe As such the Zimbabwean novel is itself a source of hope in that troubled land Ranka Primorac has degrees from the universities of Zagreb Zimbabwe and Nottingham Trent She has taught Africa related courses at several institutions of higher learning in Britain including the University of Cambridge and New York University in London She is interested in non-western writing and cultures theoretical approaches to the novel and the narrative production of space time Her co edited volume Versions of Zimbabwe New Approaches to Literature and Culture was published in 2005 by Weaver Press in Harare Reanimating Regions James Riding, Martin Jones, 2017-05-12 Writing regions undertaking a regional study was once a standard form of geographic communication and critique This was until the quantitative revolution in the middle of the previous century and more definitively the critical turn in human geography towards the end of the twentieth century From then on writing regions as they were experienced phenomenologically or arguing culturally historically and politically with regions was deemed to be old fashioned Yet the region is and always will be a central geographical concept and thinking about regions can tell us a lot about the history of the discipline called geography Despite taking up an identifiable place within the geographical imagination in scholarship and beyond region remains a relatively forgotten under used and in part under theorised term Reanimating Regions marks the continued reinvigoration of a set of disciplinary debates surrounding regions the regional and regional geography Across 18 chapters from international interdisciplinary scholars this book writes and performs region as a temporary permanence something held stable not fixed and absolute at different points in time for different purposes. There is as this expansive volume outlines no single reading of a region Reanimating Regions collectively rebalances the region within geography and geographical thought In renewing the geography of regions as not only a site of investigation but also as an analytical framework through which to write the world what emerges is a powerful reworking of the geographic imagination Read against one another the chapters weave together timely commentaries on region and regions across the globe with a particular emphasis upon the regional as played out in the United Kingdom and regional worlds both within and beyond Europe offering chapters from Africa and South America Addressing both the political and the cultural this volume responds to the need for a consolidated and considered reflection on region the regional and regional geography speaking directly to broader intellectual concerns with performance aesthetics identity mobilities the environment and the body Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe s anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and Africa Writes Back James Currey, 2022-10-31 June 17 2008 is the fiftieth anniversary of the postcolonial studies publication of Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart by Heinemann This publication provided the impetus for the foundation of the African Writers Series in 1962 with Chinua Achebe as the editorial adviser Africa Writers Back The African Writers Series and the Launch of African Literature captures the energy of literary publishing in a new and undefined field Portraits of the leading characters and the many consultants and readers providing reports and advice to new and established writers make Africa Writes Back a stand out book James Currey's voice and insights are an added bonus CONTENTS Publishing and selling the African Writers Series The African Writers Series Portfolio George Hallett's covers Main dates for the African Writers Series INTRODUCTION The establishment of African Literature Publishing Chinua Achebe 1 WRITERS FROM WEST AFRICA Nigeria The country where so much started Negritude from Senegal to Cameroun Magic realism from Ghana The Gambia Sierra Leone 2 WRITERS FROM EASTERN AFRICA Towards the oral the popular in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Publishing Ngugi 3 WRITERS FROM THE HORN NORTH EASTERN AFRICA Emperors in Ethiopia Publishing Nuruddin Farah Arab authors in Egypt Sudan 4 WRITERS FROM SOUTH AFRICA Resistance in South Africa Publishing Alex la Guma Publishing Dennis Brutus Publishing Bessie Head Publishing Masizi Kunene 5 WRITERS FROM SOUTHERN AFRICAN Guns Guerrillas in Mozambique Angola Zambia Shall be Free Death detention in Malawi The struggle to become Zimbabwe Publishing Dambudzo Marechera CONCLUSION Is there still a role for the African Writers Series Strife Chinodya. Shimmer, 2018-04-12 A rich densely written novel Strife examines one family s responses to destiny Tracing the Gwanagara s roots back over a century Chinodya interweaves past and the present juxtaposing incidents never forgotten or resolved revealing how memory becomes an actor in lived time A large family grows up in Gweru Their father aspires to be an enlightened Christian man he sees his children through school and college where they do well But as adults they are struck by illness Who is to blame Who is to cure these ailments What wrongs have they committed to offend the ancestors How can atonement be made Can education science and medicine provide any solution Their mother the moon huntress seeks out the answers and the cures in traditional beliefs and customs Chinodya provides a dark expos of the tension between modernity and tradition He explores the powerful draw that these sometimes conflicting ideologies exercise over an emerging middle class that at once yearns for autonomy and unconsciously desires the irresponsibility of an all pervading destiny Strife is a novel that has to be read by anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Zimbabwean culture in the twenty first century

Eco-critical Literature Ogaga Okuyade,2013 Eco Critical Literature Regreening African Landscapescritically examines the representations constructions and imaginings of the relationship between the human and non human worlds in contemporary African literature and culture It offers innovative incisive and critical perspectives on the importance of sustaining a symbiotic relationship between humans and their environment The book thus carries African scholarship beyond the mere analysis of themes and style to ethical and activist roles of literature having an impact on readers and the public It is a scholarship geared towards rectifying ecological imbalance that is prevalent in many parts of the continent that forms the setting context and thematic discourse of the works or authors studied in this book Besides sensitizing the African readership to the need for the restoration of harmony between man and the environment this book equally aims to further familiarize scholars and students working on African literature and culture with the theoretical concerns of eco criticism

Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book contains over 600 entries that cover criticism and theory its development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers Culture and Customs of Zimbabwe Oyekan Owomoyela, 2002-11-30 Zimbabwe formerly known as Rhodesia won its independence from Great Britain in 1980 yet continues to feel the impact of Western lifestyles and prejudices This rich accessible overview freshly examines Zimbabwe evoking the contemporary ways of life in a largely homogenous and agricultural country Students and general readers will discover an engaging narrative that ranges from an explanation of the beer culture to a powerful discussion of marriage family and gender roles from the Zimbabwean perspective Owomoyela also authoritatively conveys the coexistence of traditional and Western forces today in such areas as religion and music A chronology and glossary accompany the text From Enslavement to Environmentalism David McDermott Hughes, 2011-10-01 From Enslavement to Environmentalism takes a challenging ethnographic and historical look at the politics of eco development in the Zimbabwe Mozambique border zone David Hughes argues that European colonization in southern Africa essentially an unsuccessful effort to turn the region into another North America or Australia has profoundly reshaped rural politics and culture and continues to do so as neoliberal developers commoditize the lands of African peasants in the name of conservation and economic progress Hughes builds his engaging analysis around a sort of natural experiment in the past whites colonized British Zimbabwe but avoided Portuguese

Mozambique almost entirely In Zimbabwe chiefdoms that had historically focused on controlling people began to follow the English example of consolidating political power by dividing and controlling land Meanwhile in Mozambique Portugal perpetuated traditional practices of recruiting and distributing forced labor as the primary means of securing power The territory remained unmapped For almost the entire twentieth century a sharp disjuncture in the politics of land leadership labor and resource use marked the border zone In the late 1990s as white South Africans began to establish timber plantations in Mozambique that difference began to be effaced Under the banner of environmentalism and economic progress tourism firms were allowed to claim peasant farmland The objectives of liberal conservationists and developers though high minded led them to commoditize ancestral lands Southern African policymakers supported this new form of colonization as a form of racial integration between white investors and black peasants paying the way for an ironic and contentious situation in which ethnic tolerance gentrification and land grabbing have gone hand in hand From Enslavement to Environmentalism engages topics central to current debates in anthropology resource politics and development policy and will be of interest to both regional specialists and generalists Literature of Africa Douglas Killam, 2004-11-30 As more works of African Literature are being incorporated into the Language Arts and Cultural Studies curriculum it becomes increasingly important to offer students and educators a meaningful context in which to explore these works As part of Greenwood's Literature as Windows to World Culture series this volume introduces readers to the cultural concerns of 10 of Africa s most reknowned writers Written in clear accessible language close analysis is given for 14 novels including Achebe s Things Fall Apart and Paton's Cry the Beloved Country chosen because of their literary importance and the frequency with which they are assigned The ten analysis chapters each begin with a brief account of the authors lives and their writing careers noting especially the experiences and influences which have shaped their writing Following this section is a major essay on their most prominent and best known work Discussion of the historical and cultural issues in the novels is integrated into the literary commentary Students will gain not a deeper appreciation for the fiction but a more solid understanding of the core historical issues and cultural concerns that influence and shape the writing The Introduction outlines the general history and development of Sub Saharan African Literature The colonial experiences and postcolonial struggles the principal subject matter of African writers differs from region to region The geographic organization of this guide into West East and South Africa reflects these different perspectives Each section ends with a list of critical works that will assist readers and researchers further their understanding of the authors and their works Short biographical sketches on 80 authors are also provided to expand readers contact with African literature The index assists users in identifying not only title and authors but also major themes and topics that the writings reveal The Companion to African Literatures G.
