

A stylized illustration of a woman's face and hair. The woman has dark skin, large expressive eyes, and full lips. Her hair is dark and voluminous, with a section of it styled in a long, flowing braid that extends towards the top right. The background is a deep maroon color with a subtle, wavy pattern. Below the main title, there is a section of the background with a pattern of overlapping circles in shades of pink and purple. At the bottom, there is a silhouette of a city skyline with various buildings and a tall tower.

The Witch Ronald Hutton, 2017-08-01 This magisterial account explores the fear of witchcraft across the globe from the ancient world to the notorious witch trials of early modern Europe The Guardian UK The witch came to prominence and often a painful death in early modern Europe yet her origins are much more geographically diverse and historically deep In The Witch historian Ronald Hutton sets the European witch trials in the widest and deepest possible perspective and traces the major historiographical developments of witchcraft Hutton a renowned expert on ancient medieval and modern paganism and witchcraft beliefs combines Anglo American and continental scholarly approaches to examine attitudes on witchcraft and the treatment of suspected witches across the world including in Africa the Middle East South Asia Australia and the Americas and from ancient pagan times to current interpretations His fresh anthropological and ethnographical approach focuses on cultural inheritance and change while considering shamanism folk religion the range of witch trials and how the fear of witchcraft might be eradicated A panoptic penetrating book Malcolm Gaskill London Review of Books

Internal Frontiers Jon Soske, 2017-12-01 In this ambitious new history of the antiapartheid struggle Jon Soske places India and the Indian diaspora at the center of the African National Congress s development of an inclusive philosophy of nationalism In so doing Soske combines intellectual political religious urban and gender history to tell a story that is global in reach while remaining grounded in the everyday materiality of life under apartheid Even as Indian independence provided black South African intellectuals with new models of conceptualizing sovereignty debates over the place of the Indian diaspora in Africa the also colonized other forced a reconsideration of the nation s internal and external boundaries In response to the traumas of Partition and the 1949 Durban Riots a group of thinkers in the ANC centered in the Indian Ocean city of Durban and led by ANC president and Nobel Peace Prize winner Albert Luthuli developed a new philosophy of nationhood that affirmed South Africa s simultaneously heterogeneous and fundamentally African character Internal Frontiers is a major contribution to postcolonial and Indian Ocean studies and charts new ways of writing about African nationalism Bible Society Record ,1882

Africa in the American Imagination Carol Magee,2012-04-26 In the American world the presence of African culture is sometimes fully embodied and sometimes leaves only a trace Africa in the American Imagination Popular Culture Racialized Identities and African Visual Culture explores this presence examining Mattel s world of Barbie the 1996 Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue and Disney World each of which repackages African visual culture for consumers Because these cultural icons permeate American life they represent the broader U S culture and its relationship to African culture This study integrates approaches from art history and visual culture studies with those from culture race and popular culture studies to analyze this interchange Two major threads weave throughout One analyzes how the presentation of African visual culture in these popular culture forms conceptualizes Africa for the American public The other investigates the way the uses of African visual culture focuses America s own self awareness particularly around black and white racialized identities In exploring the multiple meanings that Africa has in American popular culture Africa in the American Imagination argues that these cultural products embody multiple perspectives and speak to various sociopolitical contexts the Cold War civil rights and contemporary eras of the United States the apartheid and post apartheid eras of South Africa the colonial and postcolonial eras of Ghana and the European era of African colonization

Food Between the Country and the City Nuno Domingos,José Manuel Sobral,Harry G. West,2014-03-27 At a time when the relationship between the country and the city is in flux worldwide the value and meanings of food associated with both places continue to be debated Building upon the foundation of Raymond Williams classic work The Country and the City this volume examines how conceptions of the country and the city invoked in relation to food not only reflect their changing relationship but have also been used to alter the very dynamics through which countryside and cities and the food grown and eaten within them are produced and sustained Leading scholars in the study of food offer ethnographic studies of peasant homesteads family farms community gardens state food industries transnational supermarkets planning offices tourist boards and government ministries in locales across the globe This fascinating collection provides vital new insight into the contested dynamics of food and will be key reading for upper level students and scholars of food studies anthropology history and geography

The Cambridge Historical Encyclopedia of Great Britain and Ireland Christopher Haigh,1990-08-31 The history of Britain and Ireland is traditionally presented as a succession of dramatic changes but in this reference work the 60 contributors under the editorship of Christopher Haigh have emphasized patterns of continuity instead including cultural social political and economic themes 300 illustrations Many Faces Of Homosexuality: Anthropological Approaches To Homosexual Evelyn Blackwood, 2019-08-22 This groundbreaking book examines the diverse manifestations of homosexuality in various historical periods and non Western cultures The distinguished authors examine Kimam male ritualized homosexual behavior Mexican homosexual interaction in public contexts male homosexuality and spirit possession in Brazil and much more Christianity Without the Cross Thomas A. Fudge, 2003 Grounded in primary source research this boldly revisionist book examines the doctrine of salvation in Oneness Pentecostalism United Pentecostal Church from its origins through its several developmental stages The gradual rise of a literal interpretation of Acts 2:38 eliminated a tradition of doctrinal diversity within Oneness thought which regarded salvation as occurring at repentance prior to water and Spirit baptism With this development a main link to the wider stream of evangelical Christianity was severed The water and Spirit theology resulted in a form of Christianity which does not necessarily require the cross in any meaningful sense for salvation This study recovers the lost theological tradition associated with important figures such as Howard A Goss A D Gurley W M Greer C H Tadon Wynn T Stairs Earl Jacques E P Wickens John Paterson and the Pentecostal Church Incorporated Combining traditional historical methodology and theological research with the principles of a broadly based oral history this study argues for a theological diversity within the history of Oneness Pentecostalism and in so doing bridges an important gap in the history and theology of the United Pentecostal Church
