Divine Discourse Nicholas Wolterstorff,1995-10-05 Prominent in the canonical texts and traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam is the claim that God speaks Nicholas Wolterstorff argues that contemporary speech action theory when appropriately expanded offers us a fascinating way of interpreting this claim and showing its intelligibility He develops an innovative theory of double hermeneutics along the way opposing the current near consensus led by Ricoeur and Derrida that there is something wrong headed about interpreting a text to find out what its author said Wolterstorff argues that at least some of us are entitled to believe that God has spoken Philosophers have never before in any sustained fashion reflected on these matters mainly because they have mistakenly treated speech as revelation
