Civilization and Barbarism Graeme R. Newman, 2020-03-01 The practice of mass incarceration has come under increasing criticism by criminologists and corrections experts who nevertheless find themselves at a loss when it comes to offering credible practical and humane alternatives In Civilization and Barbarism Graeme R Newman argues this impasse has arisen from a refusal to confront the original essence of punishment namely that in some sense it must be painful He begins with an exposition of the traditional philosophical justifications for punishment and then provides a history of criminal punishment He shows how over time the West abandoned short term corporal punishment in favor of longer term incarceration justifying a massive bureaucratic prison complex as scientific and civilized Newman compels the reader to confront the biases embedded in this model and the impossibility of defending prisons as a civilized form of punishment A groundbreaking work that challenges the received wisdom of corrections Civilization and Barbarism asks readers to reconsider moderate corporal punishment as an alternative to prison and for the most serious offenders forms of incapacitation without prison The book also features two helpful appendixes a list of debating points with common criticisms and their rebuttals and a chronology of civilized punishments

Faith and Learning David S. Dockery, 2012-05-01 Faith and learning scholarship and piety Christian tradition and intellectual inquiry head and hearts How do these things come together in an informative enriching and interdependent way The calling of Christian higher education is to reflect the life of Christ and to shine the light of truth That distinctive mission cannot be forced into an either/or framework but rather a both/and calling It is a commitment to Jesus Christ himself who is both fully God and fully human and who for Christian educators is both light and life This multi-authored volume with dynamic contributions from entry level faculty members to seasoned scholars explores the question of the Christian faith's place on the university campus whether in administrative matters the broader academic world or in student life Philosophy Sociology Science Arts Business Media Faith and Learning explores how significant Christian thinkers have addressed such topics and their related issues throughout the history of the church The historical theological and biblical framework will help students interact with and engage contemporary challenges to the Christian faith in the various fields of study and inquiry Contributors include Harry L Poe Gene C Fant Jr Ken Magnuson Klaus Issler Gregory A Thornbury Taylor Worley John T Netland Scott Huelin James A Patterson Hunter Baker Roman R Williams Steve Halla Christopher W Mathews Kevin Trowbridge Mark Bolyard Jeannette Russ E Blake Watkins Mary Anne Poe Emily Lean Thomas Rosebrough Ralph Leverett Kimberly C Thornbury and C Ben Mitchell

McDevitt, Jeanne Ellis Ormrod, Glenn Cupit, Margaret Chandler, Valarie Aloa, 2012-08-21 Child Development and Education is a comprehensive child development text written especially for educators It helps students to translate developmental theories into practical implications for teaching and caring for youngsters with diverse backgrounds characteristics and needs The text draws from innumerable theoretical concepts research studies conducted around the world and the authors own experiences as parents teachers psychologists and researchers to identify strategies for promoting young people s physical cognitive and social emotional growth In this Australian edition contemporary Australian and New Zealand research has been highlighted and local educational structures philosophies and controversies have been reflected Pseudo-retranslation Mehmet Yildiz, 2024-08-16 This book presents pseudo retranslations as a new phenomenon of translational intertextuality revealing how pseudo retranslations establish large networks of intertextuality across academic works how academic authors have recourse to this procedure as they create their academic texts and how pseudo retranslations contribute to the dissemination of translation distorted scholarly knowledge and lead to epistemically polluted academic ecosystems Pseudo retranslation can be defined as an academic author s partial or complete exploitation of another academic author s translation and presenting it as a retranslation of the source text This phenomenon first documented in Yildiz 2021 arises from academic authors failure to refer to or translate primary sources particularly in English Since there occurs no actual retranslation process this procedure is called pseudo retranslation Using a range of academic texts from the Turkish context as case studies the author presents the integral constituents of this phenomenon and the behavioural patterns of its renderers This book will be of particular interest to academics and postgraduates in the field of translation studies and corpus linguistics Handbook of AI-based

Metaheuristics Anand J. Kulkarni, Patrick Siarry, 2021-09-01 At the heart of the optimization domain are mathematical modeling of the problem and the solution methodologies The problems are becoming larger and with growing complexity

Such problems are becoming cumbersome when handled by traditional optimization methods. This has motivated researchers to resort to artificial intelligence AI based nature inspired solution methodologies or algorithms. The Handbook of AI based Metaheuristics provides a wide ranging reference to the theoretical and mathematical formulations of metaheuristics including bio inspired swarm based socio cultural and physics based methods or algorithms their testing and validation along with detailed illustrative solutions and applications and newly devised metaheuristic algorithms. This will be a valuable reference for researchers in industry and academia as well as for all Master s and PhD students working in the metaheuristics and applications domains. The Essentials of Instructional Design Abbie H. Brown, Timothy D.

Green, 2015-06-26. The Essentials of Instructional Design 3rd Edition introduces the essential elements of instructional design ID to students who are new to ID. The key procedures within the ID process learner analysis task analysis needs analysis developing goals and objectives organizing instruction developing instructional activities assessing learner achievement and evaluating the success of the instructional design are covered in complete chapters that describe and provide examples of how the procedure is accomplished using the best known instructional design models. Unlike most other ID books The Essentials of Instructional Design provides an overview of the principles and practice of ID without placing emphasis on any one ID model. Offering the voices of instructional designers from a number of professional settings and providing real life examples from across sectors students learn how professional organizations put the various ID processes into practice. This introductory textbook provides students with the information they need to make informed decisions as they design and develop instruction offering them a variety of possible approaches for each step in the ID process and clearly explaining the strengths and challenges associated with each approach. Exploring Psychology and Christian Faith Paul Moes, Donald J.

Tellinghuisen, 2023-07-11. Drawn from more than sixty years of classroom experience this introductory guide provides students with a coherent framework for considering psychology from a Christian perspective. Paul Moes and Donald Tellinghuisen explore biblical themes of human nature in relation to all major areas of psychology showing how a Christian understanding of humans can inform the study of psychology. The first edition has proven to be a successful textbook with over 11 000 copies sold. The second edition has been updated and revised throughout based on student and instructor feedback. Brief accessible chapters correspond to standard introductory psychology textbooks making this an excellent supplemental text. The book includes end of chapter questions. An updated test bank for professors is available through Textbook eSources. Percussive Notes, 2008. Humanizing the Remote Experience through Leadership and Coaching

Diane Lennard, Amy Mednick, 2022-08-31. This book responds to the growing need for understanding how we can foster wellness raise engagement and strengthen connections in professional contexts as human interactions become increasingly remote. Through research and case studies the authors outline a paradox the digital technology we use to connect with others can leave us feeling less connected. To understand what is missing from remote interactions the authors examine the use of space sensory cues group dynamics and challenges people encounter when the innate need for human connection is unmet They provide practical advice to improve remote experiences including ways to manage stress avoid cognitive overload and prevent burnout Ultimately the book highlights what is possible when we focus not only on the quantity and efficiency of our interactions but also on the quality and depth of our human connections The contemporary relevance of this topic makes the book essential for leaders coaches consultants and other professionals working remotely as well as students and interested individuals seeking to improve their personal and professional remote experiences How Teachers Learn Michael D. Andrew,James R. Jelmberg,2010 in this book is assembled the results of over 30 years of research and reflection documenting the positive results from designing a thoughtful and rigorous model of teacher education Richard L Schwab University of Connecticut Teaching Learning for Effective Instruction Michelle M. Buehl,Jane S. Vogler,2022-10-01 Given the complexity of learning an increasingly diverse student population and growing demands on today s teachers educational psychology has never been more relevant for informing instructional practice Notably an understanding of learning both what it is and how it occurs is essential for teachers to design and implement effective instruction that is responsive to the needs of their learners As part of the six part series Theory to Practice Educational Psychology for Teachers and Teaching this volume highlights what and how teacher educators should teach about learning so that developing teachers will be more effective in their instructional practice Preservice teachers represent a group of unique learners in that they are learning about learning in order to support others learning Similarly teacher educators represent a unique group of educators in that they are guiding others in not just content knowledge but also in how to teach content across a variety of domains As a means to highlight the ideas and constructs most essential for preservice teachers to learn this volume was crafted for teacher educators whether teaching educational psychology content incorporated into domain specific courses or in a dedicated educational psychology course Each chapter offers insight into what teachers need to know about learning as well as practical applications for how to teach the content Chapters draw from a variety of theoretical perspectives about learning and identify common misconceptions that educational psychology instructors and teacher educators need to address in their work with preservice teachers ENDORSEMENT The volume takes an expansive and inclusive view of teacher education and highlights how educational psychology can contribute to conversations about learning motivation teaching inquiry cooperation and collaboration study strategies intercultural competence assessment and student perceptions Nancy E Perry Anita Woolfolk Hoy Practical Strategies for Academic Library Managers Frances C. Wilkinson,Rebecca L. Lubas,2015-11-10 Looking for tips on how to work towards your overall vision while remaining productive on the frontlines The book gives you fresh ideas for balancing your managerial duties with day to day responsibilities in the academic library A compilation of ideas from noted leaders in academic librarianship this book explores a wealth of topics including budgeting human resources facilities collections and IT There is also helpful advice that will help you navigate emerging areas of librarianship such as blended librarianship cross institutional collaboration and marketing the library You will learn how to manage lead and address specific library areas all at once Practical Strategies for Academic Library Managers Leading with Vision through All Levels is ideal for current professionals with an expanded scope of responsibilities and those who have had administrative duties for some time but are looking for new techniques for being a better manager The book includes an introduction written by the editors who are both associate deans in university libraries Each chapter is written by a different expert in the field providing a rich array of approaches and perspectives
