Ancestral Voices, Healing Narratives Kristina S. Gibby, 2023-12-06 Ancestral Voices Healing Narratives Female Ghosts in Contemporary US and Caribbean Fiction examines four novels by Erna Brodber Zo Vald s Sandra Cisneros and Maryse Condé In this unique comparative analysis Kristina S Gibby explores the significance of female ghosts specifically maternal figures who haunt female narrators inspiring them to transcribe the dead s obfuscated histories and recover their family memory The author argues that these female ghosts subvert historiographic power structures through a matrilineal succession of knowledge via oral traditions of storytelling inevitably broadening historical consciousness and asserting the value of fiction in the face of historical rupture Gibby contends that in form and content these novels disrupt patriarchal and

Western expectations of time and epistemology They favor cyclical temporality highlighted by the spirits uncanny return which underscores relational understanding and challenges the exclusive and limiting constraints of linear time This book makes important contributions to inter American literary criticism with its narrow focus on female authors who confront the horrors of history through maternal spirits Eating Well, Reading Well Nicole Jenette Simek, 2008 While rejecting a conception of literature as moral philosophy or a device for imparting particular morals to the reader through exemplary characters and plots Maryse Conde has displayed throughout her writing career a strong valorization of literature as ethical critique This study examines her singular approach to literary commitment as a critical reworking of aesthetic models and modes of interpretation Focusing on four dominant problematics in Conde's work history and globalization in La Belle Creole and Moi Tituba sorciere noire de Salem intertextuality and reception in La migration des c urs and Celanire cou coupe trauma and subjectivity in En attendant le bonheur and Desirada community and ethics in Traversee de la mangrove and Histoire de la femme cannibale this analysis proposes to elucidate how and to what ends Conde engages and alters approaches to reading staging the problematic yet pragmatic need to read well This hermeneutic imperative foregrounds the need to engage with texts to cannibalize texts while recognizing their fundamental opacity and inexhaustibility their resistance to the reader's interpretive habits Nicole Simek is an Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Whitman College Specializing in French Caribbean literature Simek's research interests include the intersection of politics and literature in Caribbean fiction trauma theory and sociological approaches to literature

Signs of Dissent Dawn Fulton,2008 Maryse Condé is a Guadeloupean writer and critic whose work has challenged the categories of race language gender and geography that inform contemporary literary and critical debates In Signs of Dissent the first full length study in English on Condé Dawn Fulton situates this award winning author s work in the context of current theories of cultural identity in order to foreground Condé s unique contributions to these discussions Staging a dialogue between Condé s novels and the field of postcolonial studies Fulton argues that Condé enacts a strategy of critical incorporations in her fiction imitating and transforming many of the prevailing narratives of postcolonial theory so as to explore their theoretical and conceptual limits By rejecting the facile classification of her work as Caribbean African or feminist Condé has gained a reputation as an iconoclast But Fulton proposes that behind this public image of provocation lies an incisive reflection on the burdens of representation imposed on the non Western writer and that Condé s novels expose the ways in which postcolonial criticism can be complicit in constructing such burdens even as it questions them Signs of Dissent offers one of the most comprehensive assessments of Condé s literary production to date illuminating its exceptional role in shaping a dialogue between francophone studies and the English dominated field of postcolonialism
