The Algorithmic Age of Personality James Yékú, 2025-05-01 As the affordances of authorship and reading practices on social media become deeply mediated by algorithmic curation they encourage closer attention to the author's personality as fundamental to literary production The Algorithmic Age of Personality African Literature and Cancel Culture challenges any lingering utopianism in the role of digital media in African cultural productions by exploring how algorithms engender a culture of outrage conflict and personality driven and ego battles that distract from aesthetic and ethical evaluations of literary texts In Y k's careful attention to how contemporary African literary practices are significantly marked by the extractivist and affective logics of social media algorithms he articulates the current state of debating in the critical universe of African literature and connects this to the phenomenon of cancel culture Rather than a Manichean understanding of cancel culture Y k illustrates how the politics of both conservative and liberal polarization shape what can and cannot be said in online commentaries on African literary forms The outcome is a work that situates postcolonial classics by Chinua Achebe and Joseph Conrad in online debates on cancel culture and decolonization while responding to social media discussions on Western literary prizes ethnicity and sexuality involving writers like Soyinka Ng g Wainaina and Adichie Routledge Handbook of African Literature Moradewun Adejunmobi, Carli Coetzee, 2019-03-13 The turn of the twenty first century has witnessed an expansion of critical approaches to African literature The Routledge Handbook of African Literature is a one stop publication bringing together studies of African literary texts that embody an array of newer approaches applied to a wide range of works This includes frameworks derived from food studies utopian studies network theory eco criticism and examinations of the human animal interface alongside more familiar discussions of postcolonial politics Every chapter is an original research essay written by a broad spectrum of scholars with expertise in the subject providing an application of the most recent insights into analysis of particular topics or application of particular critical frameworks to one or more African literary works The handbook will be a valuable interdisciplinary resource for scholars and students of African literature African culture postcolonial literature and literary analysis Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Private Diaries of Alison Uttley Denis Judd,2011-07-12 Popular childrens author Alison Uttley Little Grey Rabbit and Sam Pig spent over 40 years writing diaries Professor Denis Judd who knew Alison and has previously written her biography reveals a different side to the writer whose husband committed suicide and whose close relationship with her son is recorded in detail But the magic of the author rings through on every page as she writes about her daily life in Berkshire the red lipped fisherwife near neighbor better known as Enid Blyton and her tempestuous relationship with her illustrators She also writes endearingly about the changing seasons reflecting much of her adult writing These beautifully written diaries have been skillfully edited by Denis Judd one of the Trustees of her Estate and a renowned biographer in his own right Wonderfully written with a truly nostalgic look at days long gone this is a must read not just for fans of Alison Uttley s work but for anyone who enjoys good writing Gendering Ethnicity in African Women's Lives Jan Bender Shetler, 2015-05-05 The elegists ancient Rome's most introspective poets filled their works with vivid first person accounts of dreams Emma Scioli examines these varied and visually striking textual dreamscapes arguing that the poets exploited dynamics of visual representation to share with readers the intensely personal experience of dreaming Democracy as Death Jason Hickel, 2015-03-07 The revolution that brought the African National Congress ANC to power in South Africa was fractured by internal conflict Migrant workers from rural Zululand rejected many of the egalitarian values and policies fundamental to the ANC's liberal democratic platform and organized themselves in an attempt to sabotage the movement This anti democracy stance which persists today as a direct critique of freedom in neoliberal South Africa hinges on an idealized vision of the rural home and a hierarchical social order crafted in part by the technologies of colonial governance over the past century In analyzing this conflict Jason Hickel contributes to broad theoretical debates about liberalism and democratization in the postcolonial world Democracy as Death interrogates the Western ideals of individual freedom and agency from the perspective of those who oppose such ideals and questions the assumptions underpinning theories of anti liberal movements The book argues that both democracy and the political science that attempts to explain resistance to it presuppose a model of personhood native to Western capitalism which may not operate cross culturally
