100 Ideas for Primary Teachers Supporting Pupils with Autism is an essential resource filled with tried and tested ideas to best support the learning and development of pupils on the autism spectrum in both mainstream and special schools. The reported incidence of autism has risen dramatically in recent decades and the agenda for inclusion has necessitated a greater understanding of autism in primary schools. However, already stretched school budgets mean that staff are often unable to access courses for further training in this area. Francine Brower uses her extensive experience and expertise to present 100 practical ideas to enhance learning and development by focusing on the needs of the individual pupil. This dip in and out book offers ways to enable teachers to better understand autism and how they can create a more supportive learning environment. There are also strategies to help children develop their communication and social skills and become more confident and independent as individuals.
