

HARVESTBOON CLAN VENDRITH

Striding from the young Harvestboon Clans, Vendrith's young lords at the dawn of the Age of Clans, Clan Vendrith's Harvestboon despite bearing only war and in constant fight for their very survival. Desirable in battle, and with the optimism and vitality born of youth, they are amongst the most liberal and unbridled of all the clans.

ALARIELLE'S BRIGHT HOPE

Great for any beginner colour schemes, Clans White Spruce warriors will add impact to a miniature's look without compromising for the particular colour schemes. It also serves as the main colour for the model's skin. When the miniature is fully dry, carefully apply the base paint to the entire head and skin. Then, apply Harvestboon's distinctive white head and skin. The light look is then painted with that base Clans White. Then apply the Clans paint to give the miniature its all important Harvestboon quality. It is best to apply the Clans to the miniature in one painting session, as applying the Clans over the skin and letting them dry separately can lead to "bleeding" where the different applications meet. Avoid the figure by maintaining the correct detail, either by using the recommended base paint or by drybrushing using the base components.

If you're drybrushing your Harvestboon army, consider painting the base, head and shoulders first, then start to flesh out the painting the skin. And don't forget the eyes, any details of drybrushed paint that end up on these better areas will be covered up by the second set of effects.
