What is anthology?

An anthology is a compilation of literary works such as poetry, short stories, essays, or other written works.

Types of Anthologies

Thematic Anthologies

Thematic anthologies are organized around a central theme or subject, such as love, war, or the human experience. These collections bring together works from various authors and time periods, offering readers a broad exploration of the chosen topic.

Author-Based Anthologies

Author-based anthologies focus on the works of a single writer or a group of writers, such as a literary movement or a particular cultural background. These collections allow readers to delve into an author's body of work or explore the connections between the writings of a specific group.

Genre-Based Anthologies

Genre-based anthologies compile works from a particular literary genre, such as poetry, short stories, or essays. These collections introduce readers to the characteristics and conventions of a genre and provide a sampling of its most notable examples.

Susie J. Tharu, Ke Lalita, 1991 These ground breaking collections offer 200 texts from eleven languages never before available in English or as a collection along with a new reading of cultural history that draws on contemporary scholarship on women and India This extraordinary body of literature and important documentary resource illuminates the lives of Indian women through 2 600 years of change and extends the historical understanding of literature feminism and the making of modern India The biographical critical and bibliographical headnotes in both volumes supported by an introduction which Anita Desai describes as intellectually rigorous challenging and analytical place the writers and their selections within the context of Indian culture and history Subhasita, Gnostic and Didactic Literature Ludwik Sternbach, 1974 Navigator

Dimensions Year 5: Teaching Guide Lockwood, 2005-05-09 The Familiar Essay, Romantic Affect and Metropolitan Culture Simon Peter Hull, 2018-06-11 Through close readings of diverse examples by Lamb De Quincey Hazlitt Irving and Poe this book argues that the familiar essay in the Romantic period embodies a quintessentially metropolitan mode of affect The generic traits of the essay astuteness of observation an ambulatory or paratactic movement of thought and an urbane tone of wry or ironic humour all predispose it to the expression of a detached non pathological state of mind This is a mind conditioned by the quickened pace assorted humanity and plenitude of spectacle which characterise urban and urbanised life In making a valuable genre based contribution to scholarship on the importance to Romantic studies of the city and metropolitan culture the traditional concept of Romantic affect is reassessed The book proposes a more complex and varied model than the simple binary one of a feeling reaction to Enlightenment reason Partly enacted within its own formal parameters and partly through its disruptive and genre transcending progeny the essayistic figure the familiar essay articulates a blithe and at times shocking and provocative discourse of an affect or a strategically and often satirical callousness Therefore the overall concept of affect in this period needs to be understood not as a unified entity opposed to Enlightenment reason but a dialogue between concurrent opposing modes played out against a dichotomized geo cultural landscape of the country and the city Essayistic un affect emerges in the end as an apolitical phenomenon a primary vehicle for the essayist's inherent scepticism sometimes enabling outright ridicule and at other times a tentative questioning or probing of both orthodox thought and emerging ideas from the rarefied liberalist sensibility of the Lake poets to the hubristic vanity of the colonial adventurer and from the allure of hedonistic Old World decadence to the proscriptive strictures of moralistic art Nelson Thornes Framework English Geoff Reilly, Wendy Wren, 2003 The aim of Nelson Thornes Framework English is to develop students confidence and achievement in writing With its unique range of rich fiction and non fiction texts and comprehensive coverage of the core skills Nelson Thornes Framework English Skills in Fiction and Non Fiction targets students doing well in years 7 10 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Social Research Methods Sigmund Grønmo, 2023-11-22 Framing research as the process of asking and answering questions this book demonstrates how to identify good research questions and how to structure and explore them successfully Whether you are just beginning your research journey or are a seasoned traveller it helps you Decide what you want to achieve with your research Know what options you have to explore your goals Navigate the nuances of different research approaches Understand the decisions of other researchers Choose what path best suits your project Through real life examples demonstrating different types of research the book introduces qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches so you can compare different methods at every stage of the research process from initial idea and design to data collection and analysis This new edition includes new chapters on collecting and analysing mixed methods data and additional content on qualitative data analysis New examples reflect the cultural and global diversity of social research and extra visual aids and summaries support understanding of key research concepts and stages The book is accompanied by an online teaching guide including videos additional case studies annotated articles and critical thinking exercises Resources in Education ,1998
