Francisco Varo's Grammar of the Mandarin Language, 1703 Francisco Varo,2000 Francisco Varo's Arte de la Lengua Mandarina completed ca 1680 is the earliest published grammar of any spoken form of Chinese and the fullest known description of the standard language of the seventeenth century It establishes beyond doubt that this Language of the Mandarins was not Pekingese or Peking based but had instead a Jiang Huai or Nankingese like phonology It also provides important information about the nature and formation of pre modern standard forms of Chinese and will lead to revisions of currently held views on Chinese koines and their relationship with regional speech forms and the received vernacular literature Finally it provides a wealth of information on stylistic speech levels honorific usage and social customs of the elite during the early Qing period The book provides a full translation of the 1703 text of the Arte an extensive introduction to the life and work of Varo an index of Chinese characters inserted into the translation and an index of linguistic terms and concepts It should be of interest to a diverse readership of Chinese historical comparative and descriptive linguists students of Qing history and literature historiographers of linguistics and specialists in early Western religious and cultural contact with China

Modern Chinese Grammar - a Clause-Pivot Approach Fuyi Xing,2016-11-10

Modern Chinese Grammar provides a comprehensive coverage of Chinese grammar through the clause pivot theory and the double triangle approach first proposed by Fuyi Xing in 1996 Translated into English for the first time the book is widely regarded by linguists as a seminal text and ground breaking in linguistics research The book contains discussion of the topics which are essential to Chinese grammar from words and phrases to complex sentences and sentence groups It addresses such controversial issues as word class identification the distinction between words and phrases and between clauses and complex sentences The book also shows through a wealth of examples how the clause pivot theory and the double triangle approach can be applied productively in grammatical studies Modern Chinese Grammar A Clause Pivot Theoretical Approach is an essential purchase for researchers and graduate students of Chinese grammar and syntax

The History of Modern Chinese Grammar Studies Peter Peverelli,2015-03-23 This book discusses the way Chinese scholars developed a national grammar Chinese didn't develop grammar until China's contact with Western grammar books in the 19th Century The first indigenous grammar was published in 1889 It included some traditional notions but mainly imitated European grammar It was followed by a number of other similar works To move away from this imitation a group of grammarians started to look into the Chinese tradition of commenting on classics This led to a variety of alternative grammars After the war Western linguistics started to gain influence in China With the establishment of the PRC in 1949 efforts began to have a standard grammar adopted nationwide The first attempt at such a grammar was published in 1956 This book spans the period 1898 1956 This book combines historiography and linguistics to distinguish different periods in the timespan covered It shows how the development of a national grammar cannot be studied separately from language policies and discussions on the national language The description of each period includes a general introduction of the relevant events in that period and a treatment of the major works of grammar

Historical Chinese Letter Writing Daniel Z. Kadar, 2011-10-27 Daniel Z. Kadar was awarded with the Academy Award for Young Outstanding Scholars by the Hungarian Academy of Sciences for this book Letter writing is a pivotal yet neglected medium of historical Chinese communication The epistolary format is key to sinological research As historical letters have a specific vocabulary and rhetorical structure it is difficult to read them without the supporting apparatus of specialised study This compendium fills the gap in Chinese studies by providing a bilingual Chinese English edition of a corpus of Chinese letters prepared for advanced students of Classical Chinese as well as academics with an interest in historical Chinese epistolary art The book has a broad and general introduction systematically constructed vocabulary sections as well as detailed grammatical and philological explanations It focuses on Qing Dynasty 1644 1911 letter writing a high point of pre 1911 epistolary activity in Chinese and will appeal to Chinese scholars and Sinologists at a broad range of academic levels
