nineteenth century fascination with non European beast fables it examines literary reworkings of these fables such as Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Books in relation to the global politics of race language and species The imperial beast fable figures variably as a key site where the nature and origins of mankind are hotly debated an emerging space of conservation in which humans enclose animals to manage and control them a cage in which an animal narrator talks to change its human jailors and a vision of animal cosmopolitanism in which a close kinship between humans and other animals is dreamt of Written at the intersection of animal studies and postcolonial studies this book proposes that the beast fable embodies the ideologies and values of the British Empire while also covertly critiquing them It therefore finds in the beast fable the possibility that the multitudinous animals it gives voice to might challenge the imperial networks which threaten their existence both in the nineteenth century and today Good Books Matter Larry Swartz, Debbie Nyman, 2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children's books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level
