Strong, 2021-04-30 American Lit Remixed identifies a new sound in literature emerging after the digital revolution It reads works by Jennifer Egan Sherman Alexie and others through the lenses of remix theory the term Eduardo Navas coined to describe the remix as a form of artistic and cultural discourse and the music industry's preoccupations with nostalgia and authenticity arguing that digital age fiction poetry and drama remix the music and technology of the past to offer new modes of connecting to self others and place Musical features such as references to popular songs structural similarities to music recordings and thematic treatment of the riffing and borrowing endemic within popular music lend a retro sound feel and structure to contemporary American texts even when they refer to life in the digital era Through engaging with the musical past literature resists nostalgia and remixes the twenty first century's dystopian disconnected ethos to find possibility and hope for the future Critics often focus on technology's negative impact on the music industry but American Lit Remixed emphasizes music as a source of creative potential in twenty first century literature including new ways of storytelling and relating When Brer Rabbit Meets Coyote Jonathan Brennan, 2003 An exploration of the literature history and culture of people of mixed African American and Native American descent When Brer Rabbit Meets Coyote is the first book to theorize an African Native American literary tradition In examining this overlooked tradition the book prompts a reconsideration of interracial relations in American history and literature Jonathan Brennan in a sweeping historical and analytical introduction to this collection of essays surveys several centuries of literature in the context of the historical and cultural exchange and development of distinct African Native American traditions Positing a new African Native American literary theory he illuminates the roles subjectivity situational identities and strategic discourse play in defining African Native American literatures Brennan provides a thorough background to the literary tradition and a valuable overview to topics discussed in the essays He examines African Native American political and historical texts travel narratives and the Mardi Gras Indian tradition suggesting that this evolving oral tradition parallels the development of numerous Black Indian literary traditions in the United States and Latin America Literature and the Renewal of the Public Sphere M. Walhout, Susan Van Zanten

Gallagher, 2000-08-08 This collection examines the ways in which religion and literature are capable of renewing what the eminent German philosopher Jürgen Habermas refers to as the public sphere The essays range from close commentaries on particular texts King Lear The Brothers Karamazov Bartleby the Scrivener to surveys of the careers of selected writers who have entered the public sphere Elizabeth Gaskell W H Auden Raymond Carver Sherman Alexie to historical and theoretical examinations of various national and international public spheres

A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature

The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven Sherman Alexie, 2013-10-15 Sherman Alexie's darkly humorous story collection weaves memory fantasy and stark reality to powerfully evoke life on the Spokane Indian Reservation The twenty four linked tales in Alexie's debut collection an instant classic paint an unforgettable portrait of life on and around the Spokane Indian Reservation a place where Survival Anger x Imagination where HUD houses and generations of privation intertwine with history passion and myth We follow Thomas Builds the Fire the longwinded storyteller no one really listens to his half hearted nemesis Victor the basketball star turned recovering alcoholic and a wide cast of other vividly drawn characters on a haunting journey filled with humor and sorrow resilience and resignation dreams and reality Alexie's unadulterated honesty and boundless compassion come together in a poetic vision of a world in which the gaps between past and present are not really gaps after all The basis for the acclaimed 1998 feature film Smoke Signals the Chicago Tribune noted The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven is for the American Indian what Richard Wright's Native Son was for the black American in 1940 The collection received a Special Citation for the PEN Hemingway Award for Best First Fiction This ebook edition features a new prologue from the author as well as an illustrated biography and rare photos from Sherman Alexie's personal collection

The Black Indian in American Literature K. Byars-Nichols, 2013-11-29 The first book length study of the figure of the black Indian in American Literature this project explores themes of nation culture and performativity Moving from the Post Independence period to the Contemporary era Byars Nichols re centers a marginalized group challenges stereotypes and conventional ways of thinking about race and culture

Blasphemy Sherman Alexie, 2012-10-02 Sixteen new stories and fifteen classics by the National Book Award winning New York Times bestselling author of War Dances Sherman Alexie's stature as a writer of stories poetry and novels has soared over the course of his twenty book twenty year career His wide ranging acclaimed fiction throughout the last two decades from The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven to his most recent PEN Faulkner Award winning War Dances have established him as a star in contemporary American literature. A bold and irreverent observer of life among Native Americans in the Pacific Northwest, the daring, versatile, funny, and outrageous Alexie showcases his many talents in Blasphemy, where he unites fifteen beloved classics with sixteen new stories in one sweeping anthology for devoted fans and first-time readers. Included here are some of his most esteemed tales, including What You Pawn I Will Redeem, in which a homeless Indian man quests to win back a family heirloom; This Is What It Means to Say Phoenix, Arizona, a road trip morality tale; The Toughest Indian in the World, about a night shared between a writer and a hitchhiker; and his most recent War Dances, about a man grappling with sudden hearing loss in the wake of his father's death. Alexie's new stories are fresh and quintessential: about donkey basketball leagues, lethal wind turbines, a twenty-four-hour Asian manicure salon, good and bad marriages, and all species of warriors in America today. An indispensable Alexie collection, Blasphemy reminds us on every thrilling page why Alexie is one of our greatest contemporary writers and a true master of the short story. Praise for Blasphemy: Alexie once again reasserts himself as one of the most compelling contemporary practitioners of the short story. In Blasphemy, the author demonstrates his talent on nearly every page. Alexie illuminates the lives of his characters in unique, surprising, and ultimately hopeful ways. Boston Globe: Alexie writes with arresting perception in praise of marriage in mockery of hypocrisy and with concern for endangered truths and imperiled nature. He is mischievously and mordantly funny, scathingly forthright, deeply and universally compassionate, and wholly magnetizing. This is a must-have collection. Donna Seaman Booklist starred review: A sterling collection of short stories by Alexie, a master of the form. The newer pieces are full of surprises. These pieces show Alexie at his best as an interpreter and observer, always funny, if sometimes angry, and someone, as a cop says of one of his characters, who doesn't fit the profile of the neighborhood. Kirkus Reviews starred review:

Teaching Reading and Literature with Classroom Talk Dawan Coombs, 2024-12-26. This book presents a framework for conceptualizing and enacting dialogic approaches to teaching literature and reading in your classroom. Dialogical approaches have often been used in secondary classrooms for teaching writing by incorporating students' lives and experiences into the English Language Arts (ELA) curriculum. But what might it look like to create reading moments that bring texts to life by allowing students to use their own identities and experiences as the foundation for their interpretation? The most current research in reading motivation, culturally responsive teaching, and even neuroscience points to the power of dialogical approaches to not only engage students in reading texts but when used consistently and repeatedly help increase students' reading growth and achievement. Dialogical approaches can be particularly helpful for struggling readers, English language learners (ELLs), and neurodivergent students. This book explores dialogical approaches to teaching reading and literature in secondary ELA classrooms with descriptions of hands-on activities, models of dialogical strategies, and real-time examples from ELA and reading classes. Each chapter includes motivating, accessible, and research-based methods and tools that help students connect content to their lives and explore a diversity of perspectives With resources such as assignment sheets and rubrics this is an essential book for middle and high school ELA teachers reading coaches and interventionists teachers working with ELLs and pre service teachers who are looking to better understand and utilize dialogical approaches to support their students in transforming their reader identities Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H.
