The Power of Awareness Neville Goddard, 2021-04-03 Becoming aware of one great emotion permeates your being You live with a perpetual feeling of reverence The knowledge that your creator is the very self of yourself and never would have made you had he not loved you must fill your heart with devotion yes with adoration Becoming Aware 10th Ed Velma Walker, 2007 Becoming Aware Velma Walker, Walker-Brokaw, 1998-08-21 There is inside you all of the potential to be whatever you want to be all of the energy to do whatever you want to do Imagine yourself as you would like to be doing what you want to do and each day take one step toward your dream And though at times it may seem too difficult to continue hold on to your dream One morning you will awake to find that you are the person you dreamed of doing what you wanted to do simply because you had the courage to believe in your potential and to hold on to your dream Awareness Alone Is Not Enough Walter Kochli, 2014-06-30 How much do you know about your awareness What benefits do you get from being aware You need to discover this for yourself You need to continuously learn from your experience If you cultivate this kind of ongoing interest in your practice you will understand more and more Awareness alone is not enough You also need to know the quality of that awareness and you need to see whether or not there is wisdom Once you have seen the difference in mental quality between not being aware and being fully aware with wisdom you will never stop practicing Ashin Tejaniya Material from Ashin Tejaniya's Q & A's with meditators were compiled and organized into sections themes ranging from wrong right attitude defilements developing momentum to effortless awareness dhamma at work and dhamma investigation The Power of Awareness Neville, Neville Lancelot Goddard, 2022-10-04 2022 Hardcover Reprint of the 1952 first edition Neville Lancelot Goddard was born in Barbados in 1905 He came to the United States to study drama at the age of seventeen and whilst touring with his dance company in England he developed an interest in metaphysics after striking up a conversation with a Scotsman who lent him a series of books on the powers of the mind On his return he gave up the entertainment industry to devote his full attention to the study of spiritual and mystical matters After traveling extensively throughout the United States Neville eventually made his home in Los Angeles where in the 1950s he gave a series of talks on television and radio and for many years lectured regularly to capacity audiences In the 1960s and early 1970s he confined most of his lectures to Los Angeles New York and San Francisco In his early lectures and books Neville dealt solely with what he called The Law the technique of creating one's physical reality through imagining It is this portion of his expression that most closely accords with the teachings of the New Thought movement In 1959 he began to experience what he called The Promise In the latter part of the 1960s and early 1970s Neville gave more emphasis to The Promise than to The Law One could use imaginal power to change one's circumstances he said but it would be temporary and will vanish like smoke He went on to explain that The Promise superseded The Law claiming Oh you can use it The Law to make a fortune to become known in the world all these things are done but your true purpose here is to fulfill Scripture After subordinating The Law to The Promise he became as eager to hear accounts by those who had experienced The Promise and sharing such accounts as he had earlier of those with The Law The Power of Awareness attempts to demonstrate how to use our mind to realize our wishes As such it is an important part of the larger New Thought Movement in which Neville holds a prominent place

Being Versus Becoming Pares M. Jivanji, Being Versus Becoming presents the timeless wisdom of the Vedanta philosophy which has its roots in the ancient teachings of Sanatan Dharma It therefore weaves and blends meticulously while explaining to the reader the importance of living in the Present in the Now Being Versus Becoming offers you the opportunity to peel through the layers taking you to the core of the Truth of who you are and your purpose in life wisdom attained through the rigorous penance and personal experience of the ancient seers They saw how human nature attempts to achieve happiness by Doing and Becoming which is The Power of Awareness Neville Goddard, 2022-04 The Power of Awareness by Neville Goddard is a transformative guide to understanding and harnessing the profound influence of awareness and consciousness in shaping one's reality In this seminal work Goddard explores the idea that our external experiences are a direct reflection of our internal state of awareness and belief Goddard introduces the concept that awareness is the foundation of all creation He argues that by altering our state of consciousness and focusing on the awareness of our desired outcomes we can directly influence and transform our external circumstances The book emphasizes that our beliefs and mental states shape our reality and by cultivating a higher state of awareness we can manifest our desires and achieve personal goals

, Wu Wei Versus Awareness Chi-Full Team, 2019-07-28 The book Wu Wei versus Awareness has been written to build a bridge for the reader between the various teachings that this world traditionally has known but also towards modern science in the form of quantum physics all of which ultimately point to one and the same direction That which we call Awareness also called Dao Chi Full Team is preferring to work from the connection with the cosmic natural from that perception all forms of personalization could be seen as distractions or authority outside the self For the sake of the development of inner awareness and growth we work and speak as much as possible from an open spatiality In this book the reader repeatedly will find relevant content wrapped in a different context and sometimes exposed in a slightly different way This has to do with a stretching of the perception and observational abilities for the reader which can then contemplate and feel for himself or and how the read resonates inwardly As the reader becomes more familiar with these subjects a form of inner understanding and naturalness can emerge from which there may gradually become an opening in consciousness that will reveal the way to Awareness as of itself Because this development is only perceptible for the individual observer and cannot actually be grasped in words Chi Full Team cannot give any guarantees on results in any form whatsoever We have done our utmost to convey the content as carefully as possible but are unfortunately limited by having to work with words In our books we speak about possibilities we do not judge condemn or interfere with that which is carried out by science or expertise in any field whatsoever We have no opinions on these because we are working from a different perspective It is up to the reader to distinguish what knowledge he or she assumes as Truth
