Global Media Governance

Seán Ó Siochrú, Bruce Girard, Amy Mahan, 2002-05-01 This book is a primer on media governance at a global level and the key influencing forces and organizations such as ITU WTO UNESCO WIPO and ICANN Governance oversees regulation and questions addressed here include Why do we regulate the various media at all What currently are the major forms of global regulation and how do they work Who participates in and who benefits from media regulatory and governance structures And what are the trends Anyone interested in the media and its progressively rising influence over so many dimensions of society will sooner or later find themselves confronted with these questions This book does not pretend to answer all the questions but it raises key ones and points in directions where more complete answers can be found Published in cooperation with UNRISD

Islamism and the West

Uriya Shavit, 2013-11-26 Offering a unique analysis of Islamist ideology Islamism and the West attempts to explain how and why mainstream Islamist leaders have for the past century developed and canonized theories which depict the West as engaged in a sophisticated conspiracy to undermine Muslim identity by cultural means while morally collapsing and yearning for the spiritual salvation brought by Muslim migrants This book demonstrates how seemingly triumphalist Islamist writings served in fact to legitimize pragmatic concessions undertaken by Islamists from cooperating with regimes allied with the West to encouraging Muslim migration to Christian lands Following the Arab Spring and with Islamism becoming a dominant force in Middle Eastern politics Islamism and the West is an essential reading for the understanding of a region in transition Providing new insights on familiar concepts including cultural imperialism liberal democracy and civilisational decline this book will be of use to students of Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies Political Science Migration Studies and Cultural Studies

International Journalism Kevin Williams, 2011-08-10 Kevin Williams has authored an account of foreign correspondence and international journalism that is the most comprehensively sourced inclusive contextualized timely and critical in its field At last we have an account that acknowledges that the largest employers of foreign correspondents for nearly two hundred years have been and continue to be the news agencies that the occupation is rooted in a history of imperialism post colonialism and commercialization whose vestiges today are all too apparent that the impacts of so called new media on the amount range and quality of international news while significant are less dramatic and less positive than commonly supposed Oliver Boyd Barrett Bowling Green State University Ohio What is the future of the foreign correspondent is there one Tracing the historical development of international reporting Kevin Williams examines the organizational structures occupational culture and information environment in which it is practiced to explore the argument that foreign correspondence is becoming extinct in the globalized world Mapping the institutional political economic cultural and historical context within which news is gathered across borders this book reveals how foreign correspondents are adapting to new global and commercial realities in how they gather adapt and disseminate news Lucid and engaging the book expertly probes three global models of reporting Anglo American European and the developing world to lay bare the forces of technology commercial constraint and globalization that are changing how journalism is practiced and understood Essential reading for students of journalism this is a timely and thought provoking book for anyone who wishes to fully grasp the core issues of journalism and reporting in a global context

Networks of Global Governance Francesco Petrini, 2014-06-02 Including several contributions from an international group of historians and experts of international relations this book analyses the relationship between the United Nations and European integration The book which covers from 1945 to the present is organised into three sections each dedicated to a different phase of the integration process during which EU UN relations had a different character The essays of the first section deal with the 1950s and 1960s and show the active part played by UN bodies in shaping the integration process In the second part covering the 1970s and 1980s it is the European Community which is shown to have had a visible impact on the life and the decision making process of several UN bodies Finally the third part of the book on the post Cold War years describes a more complex situation characterised by new geopolitical responsibilities of the European Union but also by its deep internal transformations due to several treaty revisions and the enlargement to Eastern Europe Thus dynamics similar to those described in the first section return with UN bodies shaping some of the internal rules of the EU but these coexist with strengthened European activity in the United Nations in some cases leading to real partnerships

Translation in Global News Esperanca Bielsa, Susan Bassnett, 2008-09-29 The mass media are of paramount importance in the formulation and transmission of messages about key developments of global significance such as terrorism and the war in Iraq yet the key mediating role of translation in the reception of speeches and addresses of figures like Osama Bin Laden and Saddam Hussein has remained largely invisible Incorporating the results of extensive fieldwork in key global news organizations such as Reuters Agence France Press and Inter Press Service this book addresses central issues relating to the new pressures on translation arising from globalization analyzing new texts from major news agencies as well as alternative media organizations Co written by Susan Bassnett a leading figure in the field of translation studies this book presents close readings of different English versions of key Arabic texts circulated in Western media to demonstrate the ways in which a cultural and religious Other is framed in different media

The Advertising Age Encyclopedia of Advertising John McDonough, Karen Egolf, 2015-06-18 For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the The Advertising Age Encyclopedia of Advertising website Featuring nearly 600 extensively illustrated entries The Advertising Age Encyclopedia of Advertising provides detailed historic surveys of the world's leading agencies and major advertisers as well as brand and market histories it also profiles the influential men and women in advertising overviews

advertising in the major countries of the world covers important issues affecting the field and discusses the key aspects of methodology practice strategy and theory Also includes a color insert Hybridity, OR the Cultural Logic of Globalization Kraidy,2007-09 The Early Transnational Chinese Cinema Industry Yongchun Fu,2019-03-04 Based on extensive original research including in studio archives industrial surveys official records trade journals and English and Chinese newspapers this book explores the role of the American film industry in the development of cinema in China It examines the Chinese industry s response to the American industry and the consequences of this response It also considers the attitudes of Chinese film practitioners towards Hollywood and the contribution of those figures who acted as intermediaries between the two industries Overall the book casts much new light on the early development of the film industry in China and demonstrates the huge influence Hollywood had on it Winner of the inaugural 2021 New Zealand Asia Society Book Award second prize The SAGE Handbook of Consumer Culture Olga Kravets,Pauline Maclaran,Steven Miles,Alladi Venkatesh,2018-01-01 The question of consumption emerged as a major focus of research and scholarship in the 1990s but the breadth and diversity of consumer culture has not been fully enough explored The meanings of consumption particularly in relation to lifestyle and identity are of great importance to academic areas including business studies sociology cultural and media studies psychology geography and politics The SAGE Handbook of Consumer Culture is a one stop resource for scholars and students of consumption where the key dimensions of consumer culture are critically discussed and articulated The editors have organised contributions from a global and interdisciplinary team of scholars into six key sections Part 1 Sociology of Consumption Part 2 Geographies of Consumer Culture Part 3 Consumer Culture Studies in Marketing Part 4 Consumer Culture in Media and Cultural Studies Part 5 Material Cultures of Consumption Part 6 The Politics of Consumer Culture Read the Cultural Other Shi-xu,Manfred Kienpointner,Jan Servaes,2008-08-22 Read the Cultural Other contains studies on non Western discourse It has two principal aims Firstly it argues that the study of non Western non White and Third World discourses should become a legitimate necessary and routine part of international discourse scholarship Hitherto non Western non White and Third Word discourses have been relegated and marginalized to a local particular or other place in or one might argue outside the mainstream To reclaim their place the book deconstructs the rhetoric of universalism and the continued preoccupation with Western discourse in the profession and stresses the cultural nature of discourse both ordinary and disciplinary as it outlines a culturally pluralist vision Secondly in order to take the multicultural view seriously it explores the complexity diversity and forms of otherness of non Western discourse by examining the case of China and Hong Kong s discourses of the decolonization of the latter Far too often non Western discourse has been stereotyped as externally discrete internally homogeneous and formally containable within a universal general or integrated model The present work focuses on China and Hong Kong s discourses which have been marginalized by their Western counterparts Through culturally eclectic linguistic analysis and local cultural analysis it identifies and highlights the specific ways of speaking of China and Hong Kong their concepts concerns aspirations resistance verbal strategies etc with respect to similar or different issues The culturally pluralist view and analytical practice proffered here call for a radical cultural change in international scholarship on language communication and discourse
