Dams, Power, and the Politics of Ethiopia's Renaissance Tom Lavers, 2024-10-01 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations After more than a decade of construction Ethiopia is filling the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam GERD a controversial dam with the potential to transform the hydrology and politics of the Nile Basin The GERD is the culmination of a dam building boom carried out over three decades and a key pillar of the Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front's EPRDF efforts to bring about an Ethiopian Renaissance Dams Power and the Politics of Ethiopia's Renaissance provides a detailed examination of the domestic and international political dynamics that shaped Ethiopia's dam building drawing on extensive primary research including more than a hundred interviews with politicians technocrats consultants and donors The authors reflect on the implications of Ethiopia's dam building for broader debates about the role of the state in late development the dynamics of twenty first century dam building and the political economy of renewable energy transitions A central argument of the book is that Ethiopia's dam building is symbolic of the successes and failures of the EPRDF's developmental state On the one hand this dam boom enhanced electricity generation capacity while constituting a key element of the state infrastructure investment that turned Ethiopia into one of the world's fastest growing economies In contrast a politically driven decision making process undermined electricity planning contributed to an unsustainable debt burden and ultimately failed to provide reliable electricity access to key users Following the EPRDF's collapse the subsequent Prosperity Party government has taken steps away from the state led development model of its predecessor while labouring towards the final completion of the GERD Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines

Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford

Nile River Basin Assefa M. Melesse, Wossenu Abtew, Shimelis G. Setegn, 2014-02-13 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the hydrology of the Nile River especially the ecohydrological degradation and challenges the basin is facing the impact of climate change on water availability and the transboundary water management issues The book includes analysis and approaches that will help provide different insights into the hydrology of this complex basin which covers 11 countries and is home to over 300 million people The need for water sharing agreements that reflect the current situations of riparian countries and are based on equitable water sharing principles is stressed in many chapters This book explores water resource availability and quality and their trends in the basin soil erosion and watershed degradation at different scales water and health land use and climate change impact transboundary issues and water management dams reservoirs and lakes The link between watershed and river water quantity and quality is discussed pointing out the importance of watershed protection for better water resource management water accessibility institutional set up and policy water demand and management The book also presents the water sharing sticking points in relation to historical treaties and the emerging water demands of the upstream riparian countries The need for collaboration and identification of common ground to resolve the transboundary water management issues and secure a win win is also indicated

Legalization of Human Rights in Africa Stacey M. Mitchell, Veraline Nchotu, Lem Lilian Atanga, 2025-03-26 Most countries on the African continent have ratified or acceded to several human rights treaties including the Torture Convention and the African Charter on Human and People's Rights This book assesses the progress African countries have made in institutionalizing human rights laws prohibiting torture extrajudicial killings and disappearances domestically States ratify human rights treaties for a variety of reasons Some commentators defend an honest sincerity of purpose whereas others might point to material incentives The contributors to this volume go beyond the ratification puzzle to instead reframe legalization according to Lon Fuller's conceptualization of congruence Congruence is an interactive variable that measures the continuous efforts of government and the public to shape the law and its implementation By reframing legalization as an ongoing process the model created by the authors is used to test several hypotheses about what impacts legalization in Africa more broadly and in countries such as

Mali Cameroon Botswana Zimbabwe and Tunisia more specifically The contributors to this volume demonstrate that the legalization of human rights is never a finished product but is a moving target influenced by exogenous and endogenous phenomena This volume is useful for researchers of genocide human rights and atrocity prevention as well as for those interested in legalization and democratization both within Africa and other regions of the world Britannica Book of the Year 2014 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc.,2014-03-01 The Britannica Book of the Year 2014 provides a valuable viewpoint of the people and events that shaped the year and serves as a great reference source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1988 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.
