Halal And Haram Lawful And Unlawful Things:

Handbook of Halal Food Production Mian N. Riaz, Muhammad M. Chaudry, 2018-09-03 Until now books addressing Halal issues have focused on helping Muslim consumers decide what to eat and what to avoid among products currently on the market. There was no resource that the food industry could refer to that provided the guidelines necessary to meet the Halal requirements of Muslim consumers in the United States and abroad. Handbook of Halal Food Production answers this need by summarizing the fundamentals of Halal food production, serving as a valuable reference for food scientists, food manufacturers, and other food industry professionals. This text delivers a wealth of information about Halal food guidelines for food production, domestic and international food markets, and Halal certification. Among chapters that cover production requirements for specific foods such as meat and poultry, fish and seafood, and dairy products, there are other chapters that address global Halal economy, Muslim demography, and global Halal trade and comparisons among Kosher, Halal, and vegetarian. In addition, the book presents Halal food laws and regulations, HACCP, and Halal and general guidelines for Halal food production. For persons targeting the Halal food market for the first time, this book is particularly valuable, providing understanding of how to properly select, process, and deliver foods. In light of the increasing worldwide demand for Halal food service, branded packaged food, and direct marketed items, this volume is more than an expert academic resource; it is a beneficial tool for developing new and promising revenue streams. Both editors are food scientists who have practical experience in Halal food requirements and Halal certification, and the contributors are experts in the Halal food industries.

Business Ethics in Islam Hussain Mohi-ud-Din Qadri, 2019-09-23 Islamic Business Finance is based on strong ethical regulations as suggested by Islamic Literature such as the Quran and the Traditions of the Prophet of Islam and could be considered as a subclass of the wider subject of ethical standards in business. This book highlights the basic principles of Islamic Business ethics and their implication in today's global business environment. It highlights the most important features of Islamic banking and finance in relation to the core principles of Shariah law. It is the most comprehensive book to date in terms of the number of Quranic verses and traditions of the Prophet relating to this subject, which are interspersed throughout the text. It explains how ethics are defined both in general terms and within the context of an Islamic perspective. In addition, it provides a logical interpretation of Islamic principles of business ethics while keeping in view the use of contemporary business practices. Topics such as digital currencies, money laundering, etc. are discussed at length. This book also discusses the new and emerging ethical issues faced by business and industry globally. This book will be a valuable reference guide for students, teachers, and researchers of Islamic banking and finance. Atone Akanmu G. Adebayo, Sherrill Hayes, Brandon D. Lundy, 2018-02-26 The relationship between religion and conflict has generated considerable academic and political debate Although the majority of religions and spiritual traditions are replete with wisdom that propagates a broader unity among human beings these same examples have been used to legitimize hatred and fear While some studies claim that religion facilitates peacebuilding reconciliation and healing others argue that religion exacerbates hostility instigates vengeance seeking behaviors and heightens conflict But religion does not act by itself human beings are responsible for acts of peace or conflict of division or reconciliation in the name of religion This book addresses these rather complex issues from the perspective of reconciliation or atonement to advance both the frontiers of knowledge and the global search for alternative paths to peace The contributions in the volume focus in three areas 1 Reconciling Religious Conflicts 2 Reconciling Conflict through Religion and 3 Religious Reconciliations In each of these sections scholars practitioners and religious leaders address specific examples that highlight the complex intersections of religious practices with global conflict and reconciliation efforts This informative and provocative book is relevant for students and faculty in peace and conflict studies religious studies humanities social sciences and provides insights useful to practitioners and professionals working in peacebuilding and international development seeking to promote effective resolution and reconciliation efforts

Doctrinal Instruction in Early Islam Maher Jarrar,Sebastian Günther,2020-05-06 This pioneering study casts important new light on key issues in the development of dogmatic instruction in early Islam as it examines the creed written by the Basran and Baghdadi Sunni preacher Ghul m Khal l d 275 888 It includes a critical edition of the Arabic text and an English translation of what appears to be one of the earliest statements of religious beliefs in Islam In particular this book argues convincingly that this influential text was authored by the ninth century Ghul m Khal l rather than the Hanbali preacher of Baghdad al Barbah r a claim repeatedly made by modern scholars both Western and Eastern The present publication broaches multi layered themes with the aim of specifying the parameters of this Muslim Creed in terms of the composite relationship between its content and its origin In addition it tackles the important question of what may have led modern Salafis to embrace the doctrinal positions of this particular statement of belief and practice and perhaps more importantly to pursue its institutionalization as a religious orthodoxy
