History And Public Spaces Evolution Of The Religious And:

Religiöse Individualisierung in historischer Perspektive / Religious Individualisation in Historical Perspective

Riccarda Suitner, Martin Mulsow, Jörg Rüpke, 2020-06-22 Dieser Band bietet einen Einblick in die Arbeit der Kolleg Forschungsgruppe Religion Individualisierung in historischer Perspektive erschließt bibliographisch ihre Ergebnisse und fasst sie zusammen Individualisierung ist keine Folge der Modernisierung Religion ist Motor nicht Gegenspieler von Individualisierung Religion Individualisierung ist auch außerhalb des Westens und vor verschiedenen Modernen ebenso zu finden wie in ihnen Religion and its History Jörg Rüpke, 2021-05-09 Religion and its History offers a reflection of our operative concept of religion and religions developing a set of approaches that bridge the widely assumed gulf between analysing present religion and doing history of religion Religious Studies have adapted a wide range of methodologies from sociological tool kits to insights and concepts from disciplines of social and cultural studies Their massive historical claims which typically idealize and reify communities and traditions and build normative claims thereupon lack a critical engagement on the part of the researchers This book radically rethinks and critically engages with these biases It does so by offering neither an abridged global history of religion nor a small handbook of methodology Instead this book presents concepts and methods that allow the analysis of contemporary and past religious practices ideas and institutions within a shared framework

Religion, History, and Place in the Origin of Settled Life Ian Hodder, 2018-07-02 This volume explores the role of religion and ritual in the origin of settled life in the Middle East focusing on the repetitive construction of houses or cult buildings in the same place Prominent archaeologists anthropologists and scholars of religion working at several of the region's most important sites such as Catalhöyük Göbekli Tepe Karanlık Tepe and Akrotiri contend that religious factors significantly affected the timing and stability of settled economic structures Contributors argue that the long term social relationships characteristic of delayed return agricultural systems must be based on historical ties to place and to ancestors They define different forms of history making including nondiscursive routinized practices as well as commemorative memorialization They consider the timing in the Neolithic of an emerging concern with history making in place in relation to the adoption of farming and settled life in regional sequences They explore whether such correlations indicate the causal processes in which history making ritual practices agricultural intensification population increase and social competition all played a role Religion History and Place in the Origin of Settled Life takes a major step forward in understanding the adoption of farming and a settled way of life in the Middle East by foregrounding the roles of history making and religious ritual This work is relevant to students and scholars of Near Eastern archaeology as well as those interested in the origins of agriculture and social complexity or the social role of religion in the past Contributors Kurt W Alt Mark R Anspach Marion Benz Lee Clare Anna Belfer Cohen Morris Cohen Oliver Dietrich Güneş Duru Yilmaz Ş Erdal Nigel Goring Morris Ian Hodder Rosemary A Joyce Nicola Lercari Wendy Matthews Jens Notroff Vecihi Zekarya Feridun Şahin F Leron Shults Devrim Şimşek

Christina Tsoraki Wesley Wildman Public Space Design Everett Sinclair, AI, 2025-03-04 Public Space Design explores the critical role of communal areas like parks and plazas in shaping vibrant urban environments It examines how well designed public spaces foster social interaction and contribute to overall urban quality of life The book uniquely emphasizes inclusive design arguing that these spaces should be accessible to everyone regardless of background Discover how public spaces have evolved from ancient gathering spots to modern urban parks reflecting societal changes and technological advancements The book progresses from fundamental concepts to practical strategies for creating successful and sustainable communal areas Case studies of global public spaces illustrate diverse design approaches addressing varying urban contexts By understanding the historical context principles of urban design and the importance of community engagement Public Space Design provides actionable strategies for urban planners architects and community stakeholders Ultimately the book argues that thoughtfully designed public spaces are essential infrastructure supporting social equity environmental sustainability and economic vitality It highlights how these spaces should be viewed as more than just amenities but as integral components of healthy and resilient urban communities Handbook of Historical Sociology Gerard Delanty, Engin F Isin, 2003-06-23 This Handbook consists of 26 chapters on historical sociology Part One is devoted to Foundations Part Two moves on to consider major approaches and Part Three is devoted to the major themes in historical sociology Systematic and informative it offers readers the most complete and authoritative guide to historical sociology Development and Politics from Below B. Bompani, M. Frahm-Arp, 2010-07-16 Religion is playing an increasingly central role in African political and developmental life This book offers an empirical and theoretical reflection on the relationships between religion politics and development in Africa the meanings of religion in non Western contexts and the way that is embedded in the everyday life of people in Africa Whose Public Space? Ali Madanipour, 2010-01-21 Public spaces mirror the complexities of urban societies as historic social bonds have weakened and cities have become collections of individuals public open spaces have also changed from being embedded in the social fabric of the city to being a part of more impersonal and fragmented urban environments Can making public spaces help overcome this fragmentation where accessible spaces are created through inclusive processes This book offers some answers to this question through analysing the process of urban design and development in international case studies in which the changing character level of accessibility and the tensions of making public spaces are explored The book uses a coherent theoretical outlook to investigate a series of case studies crossing the cultural divides to examine the similarities and differences of public space in different urban contexts and its critical analysis of the process of development management and use of public space with all its tensions and conflicts While each case study investigates the specificities of a particular city the book outlines some general themes in global urban processes It shows how public spaces are a key theme in urban design and development everywhere how they are appreciated and used by the people of these cities but also being contested by and under pressure from different stakeholders Roman Religion in the Danubian Provinces Csaba Szabó, 2022-04-06 The Danubian provinces represent one of the largest macro units within the Roman Empire with a large and rich heritage of Roman material evidence Although the notion itself is a modern 18th century creation this region represents a unique area where the dominant pre Roman cultures Celtic Illyrian Hellenistic Thracian are interconnected within the new administrative economic and cultural units of Roman cities provinces and extra provincial networks This book presents the material evidence of Roman religion in the Danubian provinces through a new paradigmatic methodology focusing not only on the traditional urban and provincial units of the Roman Empire but on a new space taxonomy Roman religion and its sacralized places are presented in macro meso and micro spaces of a dynamic empire which shaped Roman religion in the 1st 3rd centuries AD and created a large number of religious glocalizations and appropriations in Raetia Noricum Pannonia Superior Pannonia Inferior Moesia Superior Moesia Inferior and Dacia Combining the methodological approaches of Roman provincial archaeology and religious studies this work intends to provoke a dialogue between disciplines rarely used together in central east Europe and beyond The material evidence of Roman religion is interpreted here as a dynamic agent in religious communication shaped by macro spaces extra provincial routes commercial networks but also by the formation and constant dynamics of small group religions interconnected within this region through human and material mobilities The book will also present for the first time a comprehensive list of sacralized spaces and divinities in the Danubian provinces Transforming Urban Nightlife and the Development of Smart Public Spaces Abusaada, Hisham, Elshater, Abeer, Rodwell, Dennis, 2021-05-14 Public places are places where all citizens irrespective of their race age religion or class level social or economic cannot be excluded It serves to improve the lifestyle experience of its inhabitants as well as promote social connections All citizens are responsible for it and are interested in it and the intervention for change must be the responsibility of all without exception As such bottom up urban planning is essential for urban environments and for transforming nightlife in public places in order to create more meaningful experiences and instill a greater sense of identity and community Transforming Urban Nightlife and the Development of Smart Public Spaces analyzes the patterns of transformations of nightlife in public life The book investigates urban nightlife transformations and the challenge of enhancing the sense of belonging in sensitive areas such as local communities and historical sites The chapters present new insights to control the chaotic intervention related to the elements of traditional or digital technology whether from citizens themselves or local authorities The objective also is to document urban nightlife transformations that enhance the sense of belonging in historical sites Important topics covered include urban gamification digital urban art urban socio ecosystems and reimagining space in the urban nightlife This book is ideal for urban planners developers social scientists technologists civil engineers architects policymakers government officials practitioners researchers academicians and students who are interested in urban nightlife and nightscape and the smart technologies used for transformation Rethinking History, Science, and Religion Bernard Lightman, 2019-10-03 The historical interface between science and religion was depicted as an unbridgeable conflict in the last quarter of the nineteenth century Starting in the 1970s such a conception was too simplistic and not at all accurate when considering the totality of that relationship This volume evaluates the utility of the complexity principle in past present and future scholarship First put forward by historian John Brooke over twenty five years ago the complexity principle rejects the idea of a single thesis of conflict or harmony or integration or separation between science and religion Rethinking History Science and Religion brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars at the forefront of their fields to consider whether new approaches to the study of science and culture such as recent developments in research on science and the history of publishing the global history of science the geographical examination of space and place and science and media have cast doubt on the complexity thesis or if it remains a serviceable historiographical model Public Space Matthew Carmona, Claudio de Magalhães, Leo Hammond, 2008-06-03 This book draws on three empirical projects to examine the questions of public space management on an international stage They are set within a context of theoretical debates about public space its history and new management approaches Religion in the Public Space Rinaldo Cristofori, Silvio Ferrari, 2016-12-05 Religion in the public sphere is one of the most debated issues in the field of law and religion This volume brings together articles which address some of the more prominent recent cases relating to religion and education religion and the workplace family law and religious symbols The essays discuss the meaning of secularism today and the difficult issue of religion in the public sphere and reflect a wide variety of viewpoints This volume maps the key elements of this multifaceted problem offers essential material and provides an important starting point for an understanding of the issues in this century old debate International Conference on Economics and Management Engineering (ICEME2014), 2014-10-22 The 2014 International Conference on Economics and Management Engineering ICEME2014 is held in Hangzhou China from October 18 19 2014 The conference aims to provide an excellent international academic forum for all the researchers practitioner students and teachers in related fields to share their knowledge and results in theory methodology and application on economics management science and management engineering ICEME2014 features unique mixed topics of Economics Management Science Management Engineering and other related ones ICEME2014 proceeding tends to collect the most up to date comprehensive and worldwide state of art knowledge on economics management science and management engineering All the accepted papers have been submitted to strict peer review by 24 expert referees and selected based on originality significance and clarity for the purpose of the conference The conference program is extremely rich profound and featuring high impact presentations of selected papers and additional late breaking contributions We sincerely hope that the conference would not only show the participants a broad overview of the latest research results on related fields but also provide them with a significant platform for academic connection and exchange Public Spaces Everett Sinclair, AI, 2025-02-21 Public Spaces examines the vital role of parks plazas and pedestrian areas in shaping urban life fostering social interaction and enhancing community development It highlights how well designed public spaces contribute to social cohesion public health and economic vitality transforming our urban experiences The book argues that these spaces are essential urban infrastructure not merely aesthetic amenities and explores the historical evolution from ancient forums to modern urban parks Intriguingly access to green spaces has been linked to improved mental well being and public spaces can stimulate local economies The book takes a holistic approach integrating design principles with social and economic analysis It begins by introducing core concepts like place making and urban morphology before delving into design elements such as accessibility and safety It then explores social dynamics focusing on how public spaces promote civic engagement The book concludes by demonstrating how these principles can be applied in diverse urban contexts to create inclusive and sustainable cities drawing from case studies empirical research and expert interviews
