

This image shows a fragment of an ancient Chinese bronze inscription. The fragment is irregularly shaped with jagged edges. It contains several lines of characters in a highly stylized, archaic script, likely from the Western Zhou or Eastern Zhou period. The characters are dark and raised against a lighter, textured background of the metal. The script is a form of seal script (Zhuanshu) used for inscriptions on ritual vessels. The fragment appears to be a part of a larger object, possibly a bronze vessel or a ritual implement, as suggested by the context of the surrounding text in the document.

Primeval History: Babylonian, Biblical, and Enochic Helge Kvanvig, 2011-03-21 Most cultures have myths of origin The Babylonians were the first to combine blocks of traditions about primeval time into primeval histories where humans had a central role In the first millennium there were different versions that influenced the concepts of primeval history within Jewish religion both in the Bible and in the parallel Enochic tradition Atrahasis and the traditions of primeval dynasties had crucial impact on Genesis the traditions of the primeval apkallus as cosmic guardians were lying behind the Enochic Watcher Story The book offers a comprehensive analytic comparison between the images of primeval time in these three traditions It presents new interpretations of each of these traditions and how they relate to each other

Ulrike Steinert, 2018-06-11 The reconstruction of ancient Mesopotamian medical ritual and omen compendia and their complex history is still characterised by many difficulties debates and gaps due to fragmentary or unpublished evidence This book offers the first complete edition of the Assur Medical Catalogue an 8th or 7th century BCE list of therapeutic texts which forms a core witness for the serialisation of medical compendia in the 1st millennium BCE The volume presents detailed analyses of this and several other related catalogues of omen series and rituals constituting the corpora of divination and healing disciplines The contributions discuss links between catalogues and textual sources providing new insights into the development of compendia between serialization standardization and diversity of local traditions Though its a novel corpus based approach this volume revolutionizes the current understanding of Mesopotamian medical texts and the healing disciplines of conjurer and physician The research presented here allows one to identify core text corpora for these disciplines as well as areas of exchange and borrowings between them Artefakte des Entwerfens Lyngsø Christensen, Rikke, Drach, Ekkerhard, Gasperoni, Lidia, Hallama, Doris, Hougaard, Anna Katrine, Liptau, Ralf, 2022-04-04 Der Tagungsband versammelt Beiträge des 4. Forums Architekturwissenschaft zum architektonischen Entwerfen und seine Artefakte Die vom Netzwerk Architekturwissenschaft ausgerichtete Konferenz hat im November 2017 an der TU Berlin stattgefunden Die Beitragenden zur vorliegenden Publikation fragen nach den epistemischen Potentialen von Skizzen Renderings Modellen Fotografien und Zeichnungen beim Entwerfen von Architektur Sie folgen allesamt der These dass Medien im Entwurf nicht nur abbilden sondern ihrerseits Grundlage weiterer Wissenshandlungen sind Anhand von Fallbeispielen die vom Mittelalter bis in die Gegenwart reichen zeichnen die Texte den besonderen qualitativen Einfluss nach den das Machen eines Entwurfs am Artefakt für diesen Entwurf hat Strukturebend sowohl für die Tagung als auch diese Publikation war der Versuch theoretische Positionen und die Ergebnisse praktischen Arbeitens Artefakte zusammenzubringen Die Tagung war verbunden mit einer Ausstellung am Architekturmuseum der TU Berlin im vorliegenden Band wechseln sich Theoriebeiträge mit text bildlichen Beschreibungen der gezeigten Artefakte ab The conference proceedings are a collection of contributions from the 4th Forum Architekturwissenschaft on architectural design and its artifacts The Conference was held in November 2017 at the TU Berlin Contributors to the present publication are interested in the epistemic potential of sketches renderings models photographs and drawings in architectural design All follow the thesis that media in the draft not only depict but in turn are the basis of further acts of knowledge Using case studies ranging from the Middle Ages to the present the texts trace the particular qualitative influence that making a design has on the artifact for this design The structure for both the conference and this publication came out of the attempt to bring together theoretical positions and the results of practical work artifacts The conference was associated with an exhibition at the Museum of Architecture of the TU Berlin and in the present volume theoretical contributions alternate with textual descriptions of the shown artifacts Bloodshed by King Manasseh, Assyrians and Priestly Scribes Krzysztof Kinowski, 2024-01-22 King Manasseh of Judah is one of the most intriguing characters in the Bible 2 Kings presents him as the wickedest of monarchs In 2Kgs 24 3 4 he is accused of having provoked God to destroy Judah on account of the innocent blood he had shed in Jerusalem cf 2Kgs 21 16 In his study Krzysztof Kinowski investigates this accusation viewing it against the biblical and ancient Near East backgrounds and casts a new light upon Manasseh's role in the fall of Jerusalem The mention of bloodshed in this affair appears to be the outcome of a process of scapegoating of Manasseh ongoing in 2 Kings and reflecting both the legal and the cultic paradigms governing the biblical historiography The link between Manasseh's bloodshed and the destruction of Judah on account of the cultic land's blood defilement points towards a group of priestly scribes involved in the production of the 2Kgs 21 and 24 narratives. This assumption lies behind the scholarly discussion about the Priestly-like strata and priestly touches in the Books of Kings. Orientalistische Literaturzeitung, 1921
