Paul Auster's Writing Machine Evija Trofimova, 2014-08-28 Paul Auster is one of the most acclaimed figures in American literature Known primarily as a novelist Auster's films and various collaborations are now gaining more recognition Evija Trofimova offers a radically different approach to the author's wider body of work unpacking the fascinating web of relationships between his texts and presenting Auster's canon as a rhizomatic factio fictional network produced by a set of writing tools Exploring Auster's literal and figurative use of these tools the typewriter the cigarette the doppelgänger figure the city Evija Trofimova discovers Auster's writing machine a device that works both as a means to write and as a construct that manifests the emblematic writer figure This is a book about assembling texts and textual networks the writing machines that produce them and the ways such machines invest them with meaning Embarking on a scholarly quest that takes her from between the lines of Auster's work to between the streets of his beloved New York and finally to the man himself Paul Auster's Writing Machine becomes not just a critical investigation but a critical collaboration raising important questions about the ultimate meaning of Auster's work and about the relationship between texts their authors their readers and their critics

Beginning theory Peter Barry, 2017-08-08 Beginning theory has been helping students navigate through the thickets of literary and cultural theory for over two decades This new and expanded fourth edition continues to offer readers the best single volume introduction to the field The bewildering variety of approaches theorists and technical language is lucidly and expertly unravelled Unlike many books which assume certain positions about the critics and the theories they represent Beginning theory allows readers to develop their own ideas once first principles and concepts have been grasped The book has been updated for this edition and includes a new introduction expanded chapters and an overview of the subject Theory after Theory which maps the arrival of new isms since the second edition appeared in 2002 and the third edition in 2009

Art Schooled Larry Witham, 2012-01-01 One year in the life of the students teachers and artists at one of the nation's oldest and most prestigious art colleges

African American Literary Theory Winston Napier, 2000-07 Fifty one essays by writers such as Langston Hughes W E B Du Bois Ralph Ellison and Zora Neale Hurston as well as critics and academics such as Henry Louis Gates Jr examine the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present Contributions are organized chronologically beginning with the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Black Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism queer theory and cultural studies Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Fault Lines and Controversies in the Study of Seventeenth-century English Literature Claude J. Summers, Ted-Larry Pebworth, 2002 Written by various experts in the field this volume of thirteen original essays explores some of the most significant theoretical and practical fault lines and controversies in seventeenth century English literature The turn into the twenty first century is an appropriate time to take stock of the state of the field and as part of that stocktaking the need arises to assess both where literary study of the early modern period has been and where it might desirably go Hence many of the essays in this collection look both backward and forward They chart the changes in the field over the past half century while also looking forward to more change in the future

Imaginary Spaces of Power in Sub-Saharan Literatures and Films Alix Mazuet, 2012-04-25 This collection of essays is unlike others in the field of African studies for it is based on three very precisely delineated focal points a particular geographical region the sub Sahara specific modes of cultural production literature and cinema and a focus on works of French expression This three fold approach to exploring the relationships between power and culture in a non Western environment greatly contributes to making this book unique from a variety of perspectives African Francophone and postcolonial studies as well as cross disciplinary cultural transnational and diasporic studies Moreover the book offers deft and innovative analyses that move beyond the rhetoric of crises on the African continent we so very often hear of so as to present a critical reflection on the subject at hand that is specific to the sub Sahara and at the same time intimately linked to global culture economy and politics The authors three fold approach also presupposes that disciplinary compartmentalization increases power conflicts in academia If only in part compartmentalization is the result of antagonistic and competitive relations between specialization and multidisciplinary education This book is thus a modest attempt at presenting an alternative to excessively fixed and homogeneous academic frontiers while considering that disciplinary expertise remains a must Keeping in mind that an increasing number of scholars in Anglophone Postcolonial studies and Francophone African studies have been attempting for quite some time now to open interstices and build crossroads that can better connect them to each other keeping in mind that these scholars work at revealing mechanisms by which any antagonistic discourses can mix influence act upon or react to one another this book seeks to take a constructive step in establishing enduring grounds for multidisciplinary cross disciplinary and transnational academic research and collaboration

Scribes and Their Remains Craig A. Evans, Jeremiah J. Johnston, 2019-09-05 Scribes and Their Remains begins with an introductory essay by Stanley Porter which addresses the principal theme of the book the text as artifact The rest of the volume is then split into two major sections In the first five studies appear on the theme of Scribes Letters and Literacy In the first of these Craig A Evans offers a lengthy piece that argues that the archaeological artifactual and historical evidence suggests that New Testament autographs and first copies may well have remained in circulation for one century or more having the effect of stabilizing the text Other pieces in the section address literacy orality and paleography of early Christian papyri In the second section there are five pieces on Writing Reading and Abbreviating Christian Scripture These range across numerous topics including an examination of the stauros cross as a nomen sacrum

Cultural Marxism: The War On Consciousness Dr. Niranjana B. Poojar, 2025-01-24 In this book Dr Niranjana B Poojar critically examines the evolution of Marxist ideology into cultural domains and its impact on societal structures values and traditions The book traces historical narrative warfare against Bharat highlighting invasions colonial manipulations and the ideological subversion that infiltrated cultural institutions like family education and media It explores movements like cancel culture and wokeism analysing their role in destabilising social cohesion and eroding indigenous values Calling for a reinvigoration of Bharatiya philosophy the book emphasises the need to counter these forces and reclaim cultural resilience for a harmonious and empowered future

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2016-03-10 This popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts and the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to them Throughout the textbook readers are encouraged to raise and explore inquiry based questions in response to authentic dilemmas and issues they face in the critical literature classroom New in this edition the text shows how these approaches to fostering responses to literature also work as rich tools to address the Common Core English Language Arts Standards Each chapter is organized around specific questions that English educators often hear in working with pre service teachers Suggested pedagogical methods are modelled by inviting readers to interact with the book through critical inquiry methods for responding to texts Readers are engaged in considering authentic dilemmas and issues facing literature teachers through inquiry based responses to authentic case narratives A Companion Website <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their current or future classrooms
