of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond Tombul, Işıl, Sarı, Gülşah, 2021-05-28

Orientalism is about much more than just information gathered about the East within its general postcolonial period In this period orientalism is a Western discourse that dominated and shaped the view of the East There is otherization in the way the West has historically looked at the East and within the information presented about it These original stories of travelers in the past and previous telling about the East are facing a reconstruction through modern types of media Cinema television news newspaper magazine internet social media photography literature and more are transforming the way the East is presented and viewed Under the headings of post orientalism neo orientalism or self orientalism these new orientalist forms of work in combination with both new and traditional media are redefining orientalism in the media and beyond The

Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond shows how both new media and traditional media deal with orientalism today through the presentation of gender race religion and culture that make up orientalist theory The chapters focus on how orientalism is presented in the media cinema TV photography and more This book is ideal for communications theorists media analysts practitioners researchers academicians and students working in fields that include mass media communications film studies ethnic studies history sociology and cultural studies Krieg
