Pluralism in American Music Education Research Diana R. Dansereau, Jay Dorfman, 2018-08-07 This volume examines pluralism in light of recent music education research history and pluralistic approaches in practice. Pluralistic research holds the potential to blend frameworks, foundations, methods and analysis protocols and leads to a sophisticated understanding of music teaching and learning. This blending could take place in a range of contexts that may span an individual study to a lifelong research agenda. Additionally, pluralistic ideals would guide the addressing of questions as a community. The volume also illuminates the work of innovative music education researchers who are constructing pluralistic research studies and agendas and advocate for the music education profession to embrace such an approach in order to advance shared research goals. The ramifications of this transformation in music education research are a subject of discussion, including the implications for researcher education and the challenges inherent in conducting and disseminating such research.

Measurement of Facilities Management Performance in Ghana's Public Hospitals Daniel Amos, Cheong Peng Au-Yong, Zairul Nisham Musa, 2020-11-23 This book presents the concept of healthcare facilities management performance measurement HCFMPM using Ghana as a case study. It sets forth in depth theoretical and empirical underpinnings of performance measurement concepts for hospital facilities services with the view to demonstrate critical performance dimensions to improve FM contributions and added value to healthcare delivery. The research approach adopted is mixed method encompassing qualitative interviews in case study setting and a questionnaire survey of sampled hospitals in Ghana. The book presents a number of useful tables, graphs, as well as a pedagogic illustration of statistical analysis which are useful in understanding the concepts under reference. It develops a structural equation model for performance measurement of FM services. The book is of relevance to healthcare managers, facilities management practitioners and academics towards measuring and improving FM performance in hospitals. Although the data used in the analysis is based on the case study country Ghana, the result is by extension useful to several developing countries faced with the challenge to improve FM services delivery in public hospitals as well as other facilities management sectors.

Handbook of Research on Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Managerial and Leadership Psychology Johnson, Rick D., 2021-01-22 The subject of leadership and managerial psychology exists as a sub branch of psychology within the fields of industrial and organizational psychology.
