The Nature of Literary Response Clark McPhail,Norman Holland,2017-07-12 In a rare fusion of literary sensibility with psychological research Norman N Holland brings to light important data showing how personality in the fullest sense of character development and identity affects the way in which we read and interpret literature This book will show that readers respond to literature in terms of their own lifestyle character personality or identity By such terms psychoanalytic writers mean an individual s characteristic way of dealing with the demands of outer and inner reality Each new experience develops the style while the pre existing style shapes each new experience The sub title of this book Five Readers Reading reflects the fact that the author a distinguished literary critic worked with five student readers using a battery of psychological tests and extensive interviews to study the ways they reacted to classic short stories by Faulkner Hemingway and others Combining his own interpretation of the stories with his understanding of the readers and their reactions Holland derives four principles that inform literary response He then goes on to show how these principles apply not just to literary
