

A starting point ...

- This poem is MONOLOGUE.
- It is spoken to an envoy (someone who has been sent to negotiate a dowry before a wedding).
- The speaker shows the envoy a portrait of his last wife, and describes her.
- It is in rhyming couplets, but there is a lot of enjambement used.

Now answer the following questions. If you aren't sure of a word, ask. Remember that you may need to read lines two or three times to work out what they mean. This is a hard poem – stick with it!

Questions ...

1. Find clues about how the Duke feels about the picture of his last Duchess.
2. Find clues which tell you about the personality of the woman.
3. How did the Duke feel about her behaviour?
4. What might have happened to her?
5. What does the Duke say about how people react to the portrait?
6. Why do you think Browning used enjambement in this poem – what effect did he try to achieve?
7. What impression do we get of the character of the Duke?
8. Themes: What are the key themes here?
9. How can this poem be linked to other poems you have looked at so far? Try to think in terms of how the poem is written, as well as content, themes and tones.
