Queer Ear Gavin S.K. Lee,2023-10-17 Through provisional idiosyncratic and non normative listening practices Queer Ear Remaking Music Theory counters music theory s continuing tendencies towards rationality unity unilinearity teleology and logical certainty In this volume editor Gavin S K Lee brings together a diverse group of music theorists who issue queer challenges to both music theory and musicology and show that queerness is integral to music theoretical practice These investigations of the queer ear and queer soundings while drawing upon a broad range of approaches are united by the repurposing of hard music theoretical apparatuses as well as soft apparatuses like narratology and cultural theory for queer ends Such repurposings contribute to the search for general principles or a theory of queering that counters mainstream music theory s proclivities instead encouraging everyone to experiment with queer ways of listening Through the lenses of queer temporality queer narratology and queer music analysis the essays examine a wide variety of artists and composers including Sun Ra Cowell Czernowin Henze Schubert and Schumann theories ranging from Schenker to queer shame disability studies and posthumanism and authors such as Edward Cone and Edward Prime Stevenson Together they rethink the field's major tenets examine hidden histories and view listening practices from the perspective of non normative subjectivities Ultimately Queer Ear works to queer the field of music theory while paying heed to the ways in which music theory intersects with diverse embodied LGBTQ lives

Domestic Intersections in Contemporary Migration Fiction Lucinda Newns, 2020-01-07 Homing the Metropole presents a new approach to diasporic fiction that reorients postcolonial readings of migration away from processes of displacement and rupture towards those of placement and homemaking While notions of home have frequently been associated with essentialist understandings of nation and race an uncritical investment in tropes of homelessness can prove equally hegemonic By synthesising postcolonial and intersectional feminist theory this work establishes the migrant domestic space as a central location of resistance countering notions of the private sphere as static uncreative and apolitical Through close readings of fiction emerging from the African Caribbean and South Asian diasporas it reassesses our conception of home in light of contemporary realities of globalisation and forced migration providing a valuable critique of the celebration of unfixed subject positions that has been a central tenet of postcolonial studies
