Petrik M, NICA mengingatkan frase berulang dari banyak narasi sejarah Indonesia NICA datang ke Indonesia membonceng sekutu begitulah kira kira yang tertulis NICA sendiri adalah Nederlands Indische Civil Administration sebagai pemerintah persiapan Belanda untuk menduduki dan mengambil alih pemerintahan sipil di Indonesia Intinya NICA adalah bagian dari Belanda Antara 1945 1949 NICA Belanda Lebih banyak buku sejarah revolusi Indonesia yang beredar di Indonesia lebih banyak bercerita tentang orang orang pro republik Dan tentang pihak Belanda seolah dianggap tidak penting Inilah hebatnya Indonesia masa kini membenci tapi tak mau tahu bagaimana musuhnya yang dibencinya Pembelajaran sejarah di Indonesia sangatlah aneh karena begitu nyaman hanya dengan melihat di satu sisi saja dan tak mau melihat sisi yang lain dalam hal ini musuhnya Kumpulan tulisan ini saya maksudkan untuk memberikan gambaran sedikit tentang apa yang disebut musuh orang Indonesia pro republik di zaman kemerdekaan Karena orang Indonesia sendiri lebih asyik memandang dari sisi dirinya saja Tentu saja bukan untuk mengkampanyekan dikotomi Pahlawan dan Pengkhianat Saya pribadi tidak suka memvonis mereka sebagai pengkhianat atau semacamnya dalam tulisan ini Bagi saya hal itu sangatlah dangkal Tulisan ini adalah bagaimana Indonesianis lokal macam saya melihat pihak Belanda semasa Revolusi Kemerdekaan Indonesia dan sesudahnya Dan juga bagaimana melihat sejarah revolusi dari sisi yang berbeda dari sejarawan berlabel sejarawan nasional Indonesia lainnya Tulisan ini hanyalah proyek kecil Independen untuk melihat sejarah dengan adil Data data dalam tulisan yang menurut saya hanya kompilasi dari berbagai tulisan milik saya yang sebagian sudah ter publish dalam blog saya ini dijadikan menjadi satu dalam tulisan ini Sumber sumber penulisan sudah saya kumpulkan sejak 2005 ketika saya memulai skripsi pertama saya yang gagal meluluskan saya sebagai Sarjana Pendidikan di Sejarah UNY Lalu bahan ketika menulis buku saya Pemberontak Tak Selalu Salah 2009 Menarik sekali menulis orang orang yang secara politik berbeda dengan pandangan umum orang Indonesia Orang orang yang bekerja sama dengan Belanda lebih menarik ketimbang orang-orang yang bergabung bersama Republik. Sudah banyak buku dengan berbagai macam bentuk meski kebanyakan narsis tak mau dianggap subjektif. Tentang orang-orang yang berpihak pada Belanda itu sulit saya temukan. Menarik sekali mencari tahu alasan mereka bergabung dengan Belanda. Bisa jadi tak sekadar cari uang dan jabatan. Bisa saja suatu hari ditemukan alasan mereka ikut Belanda karena terpaksa atau sakit. Saya teringat novel Romo Mangunwijaya yang mulai saya baca sejak SMA dan baru selesai waktu kuliah. Burung Burung Manyar. Di mana Teto alias Setadewa sukarela jadi Letnan KNIL. Alasan ingin melawan produk Jepang yang bernama Republik Indonesia. Hanya karena keluarganya hancur gara-gara Jepang. Dan kepada semua hal buatan Jepang termasuk RI dan tentaranya. Teto selalu sinis. Jepang produknya Republik Indonesia harus dilawan sebagai kekuatan jahat sekaligus konyol. Tulisan ini hanya ingin melengkapi bacaan sejarah Indonesia yang ada. Mari kita lihat secara sekilas bagaimana kekuatan NICA yang melawan Republik Indonesia. Semoga bisa menyadarkan kita semua untuk menjadi lebih baik dan berusaha untuk tidak mengecewakan orang lain.

Rentjana peladjaran terurai tentang komunisme Oejeng Soewargana, Nugroho Notosusanto, 1967 Political Change, Democratic Transitions and Security in Southeast Asia Mely Caballero-Anthony, 2009-12-16 The fragility of democracy in Southeast Asia is a subject of increasing concern. While there has been significant movement in the direction of democratisation, the authoritarian tendencies of popularly elected leaders and the challenges posed by emerging security threats have given rise to a shared concern about the return of military rule in the region. This book examines the nature of political transitions in Southeast Asia and why political transitions towards political liberalisation and democracy have often failed to take off. It considers political systems in Southeast Asia that have gone through significant periods of transition but continue to face serious challenges toward democratic consolidation. Some key questions that the book focuses on are: Are emerging democracies in the region threatened by weak failed or authoritarian leadership? Are political institutions that are supposed to support political changes toward democratisation weak or strong? How can democratic systems be made more resilient? And what are the prospects of democracy becoming the defining political landscape in Southeast Asia?

Global Stability and U.S. National Security Kristen Boon, Aziz Z. Huq, 2012. Terrorism Commentary on Security Documents is a series that provides primary source documents and expert commentary on the worldwide counter terrorism effort. Among the documents collected are transcripts of Congressional testimony, reports by such federal government bodies as the Congressional Research Service (CRS) and the Government Accountability Office (GAO), and case law covering issues related to terrorism. Most volumes carry a single theme, and inside each volume the documents appear within topic-based categories. The series also includes a subject index and other indices that guide the user through this complex area of the law. Volume 123, Global Stability and U.S. National Security, includes documents that illuminate instability concerns in key regions of the world and offer insights into how the lack of stability negatively affects U.S. interests as well as the interests of other nations. The documents selected by Douglas Lovelace include primarily studies of instability concerns in the Middle East and North Africa, as well as a document providing a general assessment of global stability and reports on Southeast and Central Asia and Latin America.

Between UMNO and a Hard Place Kee Beng Ooi, 2010. Enough time has passed and enough key events have taken place for the contours of the administration of Malaysian Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib

Razak to be apparent While it has flirted openly with reforms and has used phrases otherwise used by the opposition its sincerity and its capability is still in doubt More than that it is not as yet clear how convinced the government actually is about of the need for institutional reforms especially when the institutions in need of reform include the police the anti corruption agency the judiciary and the dominant party UMNO With a new coalition opposing him in parliament Najib comes to power wedged between his own coalition s aged traditions and the restive spirit of the times Whether he can squeeze his way into a comfortable spot and stay in power is the question the coming years will answer

Islam, Politics and Youth in Malaysia Dominik Mueller, 2014-03-05 Providing an ethnographic account of the Islamic Party of Malaysia PAS and its Youth Wing Dewan Pemuda PAS this book analyses the genesis and role of Islamic movements in terms of their engagement in mainstream politics It explores the party's changing approach towards popular culture and critically investigates whether the narrative of a post Islamist turn can be applied to the PAS Youth The book shows that in contrast to the assumption that Islamic marketization and post Islamism are reinforcing each other the PAS Youth has strategically appropriated and integrated Islamic consumerism to pursue a decidedly Islamist or pop Islamist political agenda The media savvy PAS Youth elites which are at the forefront of implementing new outreach strategies for the party categorically oppose tendencies of political moderation among the senior party Instead they are most passionately calling for the establishment of a Syariah based Islamic order for state and society although these renewed calls are increasingly expressed through modern channels such as Facebook YouTube rock music celebrity advertising branded commodities and other market driven forms of social movement mobilization A timely and significant contribution to the literature on Islam and politics in Malaysia and beyond this book sheds new light on widespread assumptions or even hopes of post Islamism It is of interest to students and scholars of Political Religion and Southeast Asian Politics

Precarious Ties Meg Rithmire, 2023 Developing Asia has been the site of some of the last century's fastest growing economies as well as some of the world's most durable authoritarian regimes Many accounts of rapid growth alongside monopolies on political power have focused on crony relationships between the state and business But these relationships have not always been smooth as anti corruption campaigns financial and banking crises and dramatic bouts of liberalization and crackdown demonstrate Why do partnerships between political and business elites fall apart over time And why do some partnerships produce stable growth and others produce crisis or stagnation In Precarious Ties Meg Rithmire offers a novel account of the relationships between business and political elites in three authoritarian regimes in developing Asia Indonesia under Suharto's New Order Malaysia under the Barisan Nasional and China under the Chinese Communist Party All three regimes enjoyed periods of high growth and supposed alliances between autocrats and capitalists Over time however the relationships between capitalists and political elites changed and economic outcomes diverged While state business ties in Indonesia and China created dangerous dynamics like capital flight fraud and financial crisis Malaysia's state business ties contributed to economic stagnation To understand these developments Rithmire presents two conceptual models of state business relations that explain their genesis and why variation occurs over time She shows that mutual alignment occurs when an authoritarian regime organizes its institutions or even its informal practices to induce capitalists to invest in growth and development Mutual endangerment on the other hand obtains when economic and political elites are entangled in corrupt dealings and invested in perpetuating each other's dominance The loss of power on one side would bring about the demise of the other Rithmire contends that the main factors explaining why one pattern dominates over the other are trust between business and political elites determined during regime formation and the dynamics of financial liberalization Empirically rich and sweeping in scope Precarious Ties offers lessons for all nations in which the state and the private sector are deeply entwined Deliberative Democracy in Asia Baogang He, Michael Breen, James Fishkin, 2021-08-24 Featuring cases from India China Nepal Japan South Korea Singapore Mongolia and Malaysia the authors demonstrate and compare the differing uses of public deliberation in Asia Many countries in Asia have long traditions of public deliberation in both democratic and undemocratic settings some of which continue today Yet in the face of pressures from complex governance popular protests and democratization certain deliberative practices notably deliberative polling have been parachuted into the region without regard to historical or traditional practices of deliberation And the motivations differ Some states have made use of public deliberation in order to contain dissent while others have more emancipatory goals in mind The contributors to this book take a comparative perspective on the emergence and evolution of deliberative practices in Asia and their relationships with democracy They analyse the main motivations for introducing public deliberation in different political regimes and the effectiveness of public deliberation in Asian countries for solving problems and improving governance In doing so they evaluate whether deliberative democratic tools can apply to all societies regardless of their political and cultural differences Essential reading for students and scholars of Asian Politics this book will also be of great use to all political scientists with an interest in deliberative democracy Politics and Constitutions in Southeast Asia Marco Bünte, Björn Dressel, 2016-07-15 In recent years the constitutional landscape of Southeast Asia has changed tremendously Against a worldwide background of liberalization globalization and democratization states in the region have begun to alter their constitutions reinforcing human rights provisions and putting in place institutional safeguards such as constitutional courts and human rights commissions On closer examination however the picture is very complex with constitutional developments differing greatly between states This book explores a range of current constitutional developments in the different states of Southeast Asia through a distinct political lens Drawing on comparative and single case studies it considers various constitutional areas including constitution drafting human rights legal safeguards and the continuing role of the military sets constitutional developments in the wider political and historical context of each country and makes comparisons both with Western democracies and with other developing regions The book concludes by assessing overall how far constitutional practices and trajectories are converging towards a liberal Western model or towards a distinctly Southeast Asian model Power Sharing in a Divided Nation Johan Saravanamuttu, 2017-03-09 This book argues that Malaysia's electoral politics have historically been premised on a hybridized model of communalism and consociationalism. Beyond this, it posits a newer idea of power sharing based on the dynamic and transformative practice of mediated communalism through six decades (1952-2016) of electoral politics. The strategy of mediating communalism is critically explored throughout the book, serving to test its saliency as a distinct approach to power sharing in a social formation which is ethnically, religiously, and regionally divided yet has remained remarkably and tenuously integrated throughout Malaysia's electoral history. The book delves into this question by narrating and theorizing the complexity of communal politics leading to the emergence of new politics which have attempted to put Malaysia on the track of further democratization. It is further implied that new politics has to work in tandem with mediated communalism to transcend the most deleterious effects of an ethnically divided society.
