- Demonstrate familiarity with the structure of the Bible and the role for biblical passages
- Understand the Bible as the story of the Christian community and its relationship with God
- Name that the Christian community looks there to draw its life and hope
- Demonstrate skills for relating the community's story, as found in the Bible, to their own lives
- Name some ways that the community's story is made alive

Class Focus: Presentation of selected Bible and understanding of those Bible

Key Concepts

- Each person is created by God, in good and beautiful, and is called to grow
- Each person has unique gifts and talents to offer the world
- God calls us to work with our gifts and talents
- We develop an understanding of what we are called to do by examining our talents, our likes and our abilities. Our personal call can be found “where the desires of our heart meet the needs of the world.”
- We can learn about God by looking human beings and earthly things

Key Concepts

- We are intellectual, emotional, physical, social, and spiritual people. Each of these aspects of ourselves affects our relationships
- We are called to develop each aspect of ourselves in harmony with the development of each other: spirit, mind, body, and will with God's call
- Each aspect of ourselves is a gift from God. All are important
- We are created to be developing, as whole people

Key Concepts

- We are created for the community in which we live/originate
- To truly be part of the Christian community, we must know the story, as it is told in both the New and the Old Testament, and make it our own
- God calls us to live in communion and actively work as members of a community
- The Bible is central to the community and should be important to the community
- All are called to live with every aspect of an individual's faith, as living and growing. The fullness of faith is found only in the community of faith.
