and economic and political systems of the world's most populous country. The major focus is on geographical issues in China's contemporary development: agriculture, population, urbanization, resource and energy, and environment. The lead author of the book has taught relevant courses in China for three decades and authored and edited multiple textbooks for Chinese students. This book will appeal to undergraduate students of geography and related disciplines with a regional focus on China and to the general reader who wants to learn different geographical aspects of modern China with little academic background in geography.

X-kit FET Grade 12 MATHEMATICAL LITERACY Derek Swart, 2009 New Key Geography for GCSE John Smith, David Gardner, 2002. Part of a geography course which has been specially written for the National Curriculum and is based on the statutory requirements, this teacher's resource guide accompanies a pupil's book which aims to provide full coverage of all topics, issues, and skills for GCSE. The material is presented through thematic topics which include specific case studies and area studies and environmental issues are integrated throughout.

Report of the Committee of Council on Education (England and Wales), with Appendix Great Britain. Council on Education, 1848 Research in Geographic Education, 2004

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL ON EDUCATION, 1864 Education Outside the Classroom Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education and Skills Committee, 2005. The Committee's report examines the wide range of outdoor learning experiences from lessons held within school grounds to residential expeditions abroad and considers the place of outdoor learning in the curriculum from foundation stage to higher education. Issues discussed include the value of outdoor learning and the decline of opportunities for educational opportunities outside the classroom; the barriers that deter schools from teaching outside the classroom including perceptions of risks in school trips; the resources and curriculum time available for such trips; availability and costs involved; policy options for the Department for Education and Skills to help encourage schools improve and expand provision for outdoor learning; and funding implications. The Committee's recommendations include that the DfES should issue a Manifesto for Outdoor Learning which gives all students the right to outdoor learning and which should attract a similar funding level to the music manifesto around 30 million in order to deliver real change.
