Reading the Wife/Sister Narratives in Genesis Hwagu Kang, 2018-10-31 The book of Genesis introduces three similar wife sister narratives commonly thought to be originating from different sources because of their repetitive entries This research explores the wife sister narratives in Genesis Gen 12 10 13 1 20 1 18 and 26 1 11 and it aims to provide an understanding of the three stories as a whole by uncovering its context by textlinguistic and literary type scene analysis Textlinguistic analysis helps us to see how each wife sister narrative functions in its context while type scene analysis emphasizes how the three narratives develop and contribute to the patriarchal narratives through their similarities and variations Although the traditional type scene analysis studies recurrent fixed motives in texts this study focuses much more on literary aspects such as characterization theme and plot Through this study the three wife sister stories will elaborate that the patriarchal narratives are not results of different authors but the well developed products of a single author The three wife sister stories work together to highlight God's faithfulness to his promises Gen 12 1 3

Difficulty in Poetry Davide Castiglione, 2018-10-12 This book theoretically defines and linguistically analyses the popular notion that poetry is difficult hard to read hard to understand hard to engage with It is the first work to offer a stylistic and cognitive model that sheds new light on the mechanisms of difficulty as well as on its range of potential effects Its eight chapters are organised into two thematic parts The first traces the history of difficulty surveys its main scholarly traditions addresses related themes from elitism to obscurity from abstraction to intentionality and introduces a wide array of analytical tools from literary theory and cognitive psychology These tools are then consistently applied in the second part which includes several extended analyses of poems by canonical modernists such as Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens and Hart Crane alongside those of postmodernist innovators such as Geoffrey Hill Susan Howe and Charles Bernstein among others This innovative work will provide fresh insights and approaches for scholars of stylistics literary studies cognitive poetics and psychology

Deaf Rhetoric Manako Yabe, 2022-03-08 This book guides healthcare professionals hospital administrators and medical interpreters in the United States and internationally in ways to better communicate with Deaf and Hard of Hearing D HH patients and sign language interpreters in healthcare settings It also provides an overview of the healthcare communication issues with healthcare professionals and D HH patients and the advantages and disadvantages of using in person interpreters vs video remote interpreting VRI Due to technology development hospital administrators have popularized the use of VRI and reduced the number of in person interpreting services which have negatively affected the quality of medical interpreting services and patient provider communication The COVID 19 pandemic also has accelerated the move toward more VRI particularly in the US The book addresses an understudied aspect of access and is written by an international deaf researcher from Japan who uses American Sign Language ASL and English as non native languages In order to identify appropriate interpreting services for specific treatments the author focuses on healthcare professionals and D HH patients interpreting preferences for critical and non critical care in the US and offers a new theoretical framework an Ecology of Health Communication to contextualize and analyze these preferences The ecological matrix and its five analytical dimensions i e physical material psychological social spatial and temporal allow readers to understand how these dimensions influence healthcare professionals and D HH patients interpreting preferences as well as the treatment outcomes This book concludes by prioritizing the use of an appropriate interpreter for specific treatments and allocating funds for in person interpreters for critical care treatments Deaf Rhetoric An Ecology of Health Communication is primarily designed for healthcare professional students and professionals hospital administrators medical interpreters VRI companies and healthcare researchers Scholars interested in the communication preferences of healthcare professionals and deaf people also will find this text useful The book counters some of the power differences between healthcare providers and those who use medical services and subtly reminds others that deaf people are not solely the receivers of medical care but actually are full people The field of health care is growing and medical schools are increasingly called on to address cultural competencies this resource provides a needed intervention
