3 Week Guided Reading Planning

PRIVATE PEACEFUL

By Michael Morpurgo

Read Chapter 1 together as a class. This can involve reading around the children, identifying individual children to read, chapter reading etc. Encourage the class to be involved in getting through the chapter in a reasonable amount of time, and ensuring fluency in narrative.

As a class, on a large sheet of paper, mind map what the children have found out e.g.

    A[Chapter 1: What we know] --- B[Remembering the first day at school with his teachers, Charlie and Joe]
    A --- C[Something is happening to both boys - the night before the night he is going to see the doctor]
    A --- D[Main character is alone]
    A --- E[Set in two different time periods]
    A --- F[Main character is thinking back to times]
    A --- G[Picture of what butterflies tell us that the time changes]

Go back to the first paragraph and answer the following questions:

- How does the author engage the reader? What is he explaining to the reader?
- Why is he telling the story?
- What is the technique called where the main character wants to stay awake?
- Why do you think the main character wants to stay awake?

Once the children have completed the questions, come back together and run through the following points - using the text to support longer, detailed responses.

- What is the difference between the first and second week to support longer, detailed responses?
- What is the significance of the butterfly?
- Why are there two butterflies?
- What do you think the butterfly represents?
- When we see them, what is going to happen?

Write the answers on a large sheet of paper. Add more to the questions in the answer to the next session.

Read the next chapter.

Provide the children with three small pieces of different coloured paper. Add more to the questions in the answer to the next session.

Use the answers and discuss in preparation for the next session.

What have we found?

What do we want to know?

What do we think will happen?

Photocopiable
comprehension questions to save time

Private Peaceful, Response Sheet

Date: _____

Aim: To answer comprehension questions in full sentences. Where possible, use evidence from the text to justify our opinions.

Task:

Re-read the first paragraph of chapter 1 "Five Past Ten".

Answer the following questions:

- How does the author engage the reader? What is he explaining to the reader?
- Why is he telling the story?
- What is the technique called where the main character wants to stay awake?
- Why do you think the main character wants to stay awake?

Focused, higher order thinking questions
