Changing the Goalpost of New Testament Textual Criticism Abidan Paul Shah,2020-10-02 Before the 1960s the goal of New Testament Textual Criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the New Testament Since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the NT Some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy Other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned If this new approach in NTTC is correct then the authority of Scripture is weakened or no longer valid It will be shown in this book that such is not the case Furthermore emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of NTTC i e to retrieve the original text Without a generally definitive text the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the NT An unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text Consequently it will lead to an unsettled Christian faith and practice

Jesus as the Pierced One Bret A. Rogers,2020-06-08 How can John use Zech 12 10 to explain both Jesus first coming in humility John 19 37 and Jesus second coming in glory Rev 1 7 In this book Rogers demonstrates how God s self revelation in Jesus provides the key for understanding the fulfillment of Zech 12 10 in light of both John s high Christology and John s inaugurated and consummated eschatology In contrast to previous approaches Rogers proposes that John interprets Zech 12 10 not simply along a human messianic axiom but along a divine messianic axiom Moreover by treating Zech 12 10 John 19 37 and Rev 1 7 in a single study readers will better understand the unified narrative spanning the Testaments the nature of Jesus divine identity and mission in John s writings and how Jesus divine nature and mission compels the church to live between his two advents

God, Jesus, and Other Foolishness Jeffrey A. Kramer,2022-09-13 In our post Christian society many skeptics atheists and agnostics assume that the Christian faith involves belief in spite of a lack of evidence and that Christianity encourages its adherents to be satisfied with not understanding the world This is untrue Christianity has a legacy of thought and logic and a convincing case can be made that modern science and Western culture could only have sprung from the Judeo Christian worldview Although questions of origins purpose and meaning are not easily proved true in a scientific or empirical sense things can be true without empirical proof It does not follow that religion is untrue or that religious belief is for the credulous and the gullible Many of the presuppositions underlying any worldview cannot be proven empirically and acceptance of many of the truth claims of atheism and postmodernism requires just as much faith as acceptance of the fundamentals of Christianity This book is an attempt to demonstrate that biblical Christianity is true in the sense that it is a logical interpretation of reality and our lived experience and that the implications of Christian faith make more rational sense than a rejection of that faith
