

The background of the cover features a traditional African textile pattern. It depicts two stylized human figures, possibly dancers, in profile. The figure on the left is partially visible, wearing a dark, flowing garment. The figure on the right is more prominent, wearing a vibrant, multi-colored garment with shades of red, orange, and yellow, and a long, thin, light-colored skirt. The figures are set against a light, textured background.

Zsiga, One Tlale Boyer, Ruth Kramer, 2015-03-03 People in many African communities live within a series of concentric circles when it comes to language In a small group a speaker uses an often unwritten and endangered mother tongue that is rarely used in school A national indigenous language written widespread sometimes used in school surrounds it An international language like French or English a vestige of colonialism carries prestige is used in higher education and promises mobility and yet it will not be well known by its users The essays in Languages in Africa explore the layers of African multilingualism as they affect language policy and education Through case studies ranging across the continent the contributors consider multilingualism in the classroom as well as in domains ranging from music and film to politics and figurative language The contributors report on the widespread devaluing and even death of indigenous languages They also investigate how poor teacher training leads to language related failures in education At the same time they demonstrate that education in a mother tongue can work linguists can use their expertise to provoke changes in language policies and linguistic creativity thrives in these multilingual communities Being and Becoming African as a Permanent Work in Progress B. Nyamnjoh, U. Nwosu, 2021-06-09 This book is a timely addition to debates and explorations on the epistemological relevance of African proverbs especially with growing calls for the decolonisation of African curricula The editors and contributors have chosen to reflect on the diverse ways of being and becoming African as a permanent work in progress by drawing inspiration from Chinua Achebe's harnessing of the effectualness of oratory especially his use of proverbs in his works The book recognises and celebrates the fact that Achebe's proverbial Igbo imaginations of being and becoming African are compelling because they are instructive about the lives stories struggles and aspirations of the rainbow of people that make up Africa as a veritable global arena of productive circulations entanglements and compositeness of being The contributions foray into how claims to and practices of being and becoming African are steeped in histories of mobilities and a myriad of encounters shaped by and inspiring of the competing and complementary logics of personhood and power that Africans have sought and seek to capture in their repertoires of proverbs The task of documenting African proverbs and rendering them accessible in the form of a common hard currency with fascinating epistemological possibilities remains a challenge yearning for financial scholarly social and political attention The book is an important contribution to John Mbiti's clarion call for an active and sustained interest in African proverbs Lorenzo Dow Turner Margaret Wade-Lewis, 2022-05-11 The first biography of the acclaimed African American linguist and author of Africanisms in the Gullah Dialect In this first book length biography of the pioneering African American linguist and celebrated father of Gullah studies Margaret Wade Lewis examines the life of Lorenzo Dow Turner A scholar whose work dramatically influenced the world of academia but whose personal story until now has remained an enigma Turner 1890-1972 emerges from behind the shadow of his germinal 1949 study Africanisms in the Gullah Dialect as a man devoted to family social responsibility and intellectual contribution Beginning with Turner's upbringing in North Carolina and Washington D C Wade Lewis describes the high expectations set by his family and his distinguished career as a professor of English linguistics and African studies The story of Turner's studies in the Gullah islands his research in Brazil his fieldwork in Nigeria and his teaching and research on Sierra Leone Krio for the Peace Corps add to his stature as a cultural pioneer and icon Drawing on Turner's archived private and published papers and on extensive interviews with his widow and others Wade Lewis examines the scholar's struggle to secure funding for his research his relations with Hans Kurath and the

The Palgrave Handbook of African Oral Traditions and Folklore Akintunde Akinyemi, Toyin Falola, 2021-03-05 This handbook offers the most comprehensive analytic and multidisciplinary study of oral traditions and folklore in Africa and the African Diaspora to date. Preeminent scholars Akintunde Akinyemi and Toyin Falola assemble a team of leading and rising stars across African Studies research to retrieve and renew the scholarship of oral traditions and folklore in Africa and the Diaspora just as critical concerns about their survival are pushed to the forefront of the field. With five sections on the central themes within orality and folklore including engagement ranging from popular culture to technology methods to pedagogy, this handbook is an indispensable resource to scholars, students and practitioners of oral traditions and folklore preservation alike. This definitive reference is the first to provide detailed systematic discussion and up to date analysis of African oral traditions and folklore.

International Perspectives on Motivation E. Ushioda, 2013-04-23 Bringing together motivation related practical concerns and debates from diverse international contexts and educational settings where English is learned, this book shows how locally produced insights and issues can have wider global significance resonating with the experiences and concerns of English teachers and learners across the world.

Language, Literature and Identity Kizito Mpoche, Tenu Mbu, 2006-05-01 The twenty seven articles in this volume are specially selected and edited works presented at the 2005 Yaounde conference on Language Literature and Identity. This is therefore not just a proceedings but a selection of self contained rich and inspiring body of works that should prove of enduring value to scholars and practitioners in the field of language literature culture and education. The themes that run through the works are varied and include among others social integration language culture and identity nationalism identity and development democratisation poverty alleviation and gender sensitivity. The analyses are insightful and perspicacious bringing to the fore a complex matrix of distinctive spiritual cognitive and material features that characterise issues of language literature art and culture predicated on identity as a centralising value. We have taken the liberty to summarise and highlight the key issues in each article below but this at best can only be an imperfect imitation of the original which I invite you to savour as input to a permanent reflection geared towards an objective deconstruction of the past to value the present and envision a brighter future as a legacy to the inheritors of our dreams and aspirations.

A Companion to Folklore Regina F. Bendix, Galit Hasan-Rokem, 2014-08-25 A Companion to Folklore contains an original and comprehensive set of essays from international experts in the field of folklore studies. This state of the art collection uniquely displays the vitality of folklore research across the globe. The Companion covers four main areas: the first section engages with the practices and theoretical approaches developed to understand the phenomena of folklore; the second discusses the distinctive shapes that folklore studies have taken in different locations in time and space; the third examines the interaction of folklore with various media as well as folklore's commoditization. In the final section on practice essays offer insights into how folklorists work what they do and ways in which they have institutionalized their field. Throughout contributors investigate the interplay of folklore and folkloristics in both academic and political arenas they evaluate key issues in the folk life of communities from around the world including China post communist Russia post colonial India South America Israel and Japan. The result is a unique reflection and understanding of the profoundly different research histories and current perspectives on international research in the field.

Literacy and Linguistic Diversity in a Global Perspective Neville Alexander, Brigitta Busch, European Centre for Modern Languages, 2007-01-01. This publication reflects the outcomes of a project which brought together experts and practitioners in the field of linguistic diversity and literacy from European and African countries with a view to opening a dialogue to taking a comparative perspective and defining possible areas of mutually enriching co-operation and exchange. The question of promoting low status and non dominant languages in education is the core concern of contributions in this volume which also encompasses topics such as language awareness stimulating and encouraging a reading culture in low status languages and developing criteria for teaching and learning materials that respect linguistic diversity and promote multilingualism. Examples of good practice in valuing African languages include an awareness raising campaign in Cameroon NGO activities promoting literary production in Senegalese languages the Stories Across Africa Project StAAf as well as initiatives of North South cooperation in the fields of teacher training and materials development. This publication was conceptualised as a contribution to the African Union's Year of African Languages 2006-07.

Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan, Atoma Batoma, 2014-10-16. This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa. It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section. All sources are annotated. A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago. The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses. The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups. The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics. The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies. It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East. It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature. One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format. There are author title and subject indexes. This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers. It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies. It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students.

It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers
