

Message

I am very pleased to greet you, alumni and alumnae of the Faculty of Pharmacy of the University of Santo Tomas, Manila, who are based in the United States of America and Canada.

As you come together in Las Vegas for a homecoming, you might find it strange to “come home” on foreign soil. Nonetheless, you will rejoice in seeing and being with old friends, schoolmates and a few former professors. You will reminisce happy and unforgettable moments of the past. You will marvel at everyone’s and your own personal and professional success and achievements. You will realize how good life has been to you all. And deep within, you will acknowledge that, to a large or even a small measure, UST helped bring you to where you are now. That Thomasian heritage is what actually beats and is what you carry in your hearts, wherever you may be. So, when you gather in Las Vegas for this homecoming, I like to think that you will indeed have “come home”, because home is where the heart is.

Best wishes, and may UST always “keep us in beauty in truth and virtues impassioned embrace”, so that we remain ever her “valiant legion imbued with unending grace” (UST Hymn).

Technical Communication for Engineers Shalini Verma, 2015 Technical Communication for Engineers has been written for undergraduate students of all engineering disciplines. It provides a well researched content meticulously developed to help them become strategic assets to their organizations and have a successful career. The book covers the entire spectrum of learning required by a technical professional to effectively communicate the technicalities of his subject to other technocrats or to a non technical person at their proper levels. It is unique inasmuch as it provides some thoughtful pedagogical tools that help the students attain proficiency in all the modes of communication. Key Features: Marginalia which are spread throughout the book to clarify and highlight the key points; Tech Talk passages which throw light on the latest advancements in communication technology and their innovative use; Application based Exercise which encourages the readers to apply the concepts learnt to real life situation; Language based Exercise Grammar: feel or experience the concepts and theories learnt and thereby gain hands on experience. Artist's Market, 1993 Lauri Miller, 1992 Graphic artists and fine artists looking for new marketing opportunities will find 2 500 buyers of all types of art in this new edition. Included are articles which illuminate the skills and marketing tactics necessary to be a successful graphic or fine artist and interviews with successful professionals which offer many helpful tips. Dartmouth Alumni Magazine, 1959 We Are What We Remember Laura Mattoon D'Amore, Jeffrey Meriwether, 2013-01-16 Commemorative practices are revised and rebuilt based on the spirit of the time in which they are re created. Historians sometimes imagine that commemoration captures history but actually commemoration creates new narratives about history that allow people to interact with the past in a way that they find meaningful. As our social values change race gender religion sexuality class our commemorations do too. We Are What We Remember The American Past Through Commemoration analyzes current trends in the study of historical memory that are particularly relevant to our own present our biases our politics our contextual moment and strive to name forgotten overlooked and denied pasts in traditional histories. Race gender and sexuality for example raise questions about our most treasured myths where were the slaves at Jamestowne How do women or lesbians protect and preserve their own histories when no one else wants to write them. Our current social climate allows us to question authority and especially the authoritative definitions of nation patriotism and heroism and belonging. How do we uncommemorate things that were miscommemorated in the past How do we repair the damage done by past commemorations. The chapters in this book contributed by eighteen emerging and established scholars examine these modern questions that entirely reimagine the landscape of commemoration as it has been practiced and studied before. The Diversity Machine Frederick R. Lynch, 2017-07-05 Diversity has become the turn of the century buzzword. Republican and Democratic leaders ritually chant diversity is our strength and corporate CEOs talk about the need to create a workforce that looks like America. Most corporate mission statements now contain a clause on valuing differences and millions of employees have completed or soon will undergo some sort of diversity training Where did all this come from and why Who created diversity programs How do they differ How effective are these policies Can they do more harm than good in organizations and in the wider society During the past decade sociologist Frederick R Lynch studied the rise of a social policy movement that has successfully moved multiculturalism from universities and foundations into the courts mass media and the American workplace The new diversity policies are future oriented and market driven eclipsing old affirmative action debates about overcoming past discrimination against blacks Based on more than six years of field research and hundreds of interviews Lynch tracks the development and impact of different forms of diversity policies at dozens of consultant gatherings in the business and professional literature and through in depth case studies such as the Los Angeles Sheriff s Department and the University of Michigan Ann Arbor He profiles the major consultants who have powered the diversity machine analyzes the benefits and drawbacks of various approaches to workplace diversity and provides numerous you are there samples of workshops seminars and conferences The book is written for the general reader interested in public policy issues social scientists and others interested in the origins and consequences of workplace diversity policies Artist's Market, 1994 Jenny Pfalzgraf, 1993-09 Graphic and fine artists looking for new marketing opportunities will find 2 500 buyers of all types of art in this series Articles illuminate the skills and marketing tactics necessary to be a successful graphic or fine artist Artist's Market, 1994 Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1926 Artist's Market, 1992 Lauri Miller, 1991 Graphic artists and fine artists looking for new marketing opportunities will find 2 500 buyers of all types of art in the new edition of Artist s Market Handy geographic indexes are included to help artists tap their local markets and articles and interviews with successful professionals give artists the tips they need to succeed in the art world Bulletin - U.S. Coast Guard Academy Alumni Association United States Coast Guard Academy.
