Global Policing:

Global Policing Ben Bowling, James Sheptycki, 2012-01-24 Global Policing shows how security threats have been constructed by powerful actors to justify the creation of a new global policing architecture and how the subculture of policing shapes the world system Written by Ben Bowling and James Sheptycki two leading international experts who bring cutting edge theoretical debates to life with case studies and examples the book demonstrates how a theory of global policing is central to understanding global governance

The SAGE Handbook of Global Policing Ben Bradford, Beatrice Jauregui, Ian Loader, Jonny Steinberg, 2016-07-14 The SAGE Handbook of Global Policing examines and critically retraces the field of policing studies by posing and exploring a series of fundamental questions to do with the concept and institutions of policing and their relation to social and political life in today's globalized world The volume is structured in the following four parts Part One Lenses Part Two Social and Political Order Part Three Legacies Part Four Problems and Problematics By bringing new lines of vision and new voices to the social analysis of policing and by clearly demonstrating why policing matters the Handbook will be an essential tool for anyone in the field

Innovative Possibilities: Global Policing Research and Practice Les Johnston, Clifford Shearing, 2013-12-16 Innovative Possibilities Global Policing Research and Practice brings together observations that reflect upon the state of police and policing across the globe and associated forms of policing scholarship with inputs from Africa Australia South and Central America China Europe and the USA Following the introduction the book begins with a review of the nature of the relationship between policing research and practice with the Victoria Police in Australia and moves on to Britain where the focus is on how the National Improvement Strategy for Policing NISP is developing and how research is being used to design define monitor and develop its strategic interventions using a series of case studies In the United States the complex American terrain of the police is examined in particular this chapter examines how crime statistics are used to rationalize justify and account for their actions In Latin America a comprehensive review of research on police reform in Latin America during the last two decades is given Africa provides a complex and diverse social terrain which needs to be understood in relation to its plural policing landscape Police scholarship in China looks at the historical development and current status of police scholarship in China together with the emerging issues arising from it The overarching concern of all these reflections is with bridging the deep seated tensions that exist between scholarship and practice within policing across the globe and the call for a new relationship of mutual respect that is committed to exploring better ways of governing security This book was published as a special issue of Police Practice and Research

UN Peace Operations and International Policing Charles T. Hunt, 2014-09-15 This book addresses the important question of how the United Nations UN should monitor and evaluate the impact of police in its peace operations UN peace operations are a vital component of international conflict management Since the end of the Cold War one of the foremost developments has been the rise of UN policing UNPOL Instances of UNPOL action have increased dramatically in number and have evolved from passive observation to participation in frontline law enforcement activities Attempts to ascertain the impact of UNPOL activities have proven inadequate This book seeks to redress this lacuna by investigating the ways in which the effects of peace operations and UNPOL in particular are monitored and evaluated Furthermore it aims to develop a framework tested through field research in Liberia for Monitoring and Evaluation M E that enables more effective impact assessment By enhancing the relationship between field level M E and organisational learning this research aims to make an important contribution to the pursuit of more professional and effective UN peace operations This book will be of much interest to students of peace operations conflict management policing security studies and IR in general Global Policing

Ben Bowling,James Sheptycki,2011-12-16 In the transitional networked society police power is no longer constrained by the borders of the nation state It has globalised Global Policing shows how security threats have been constructed by powerful actors to justify the creation of a new global policing architecture and how the subculture of policing shapes the world system Demonstrating how a theory of global policing is central to understanding global governance the text explores the new security agenda focused on serious organised crime and terrorism and how this is transforming policing the creation of global organisations such as Interpol regional entities such as Europol and national policing agencies with a transnational reach the subculture of the global cops blurring boundaries between police private security military and secret intelligence agencies the reality of transnational policing on the ground its effectiveness legitimacy accountability and future development Written by two leading international experts who bring cutting edge theoretical debates to life with case studies and examples Global Policing will prove captivating reading for students and scholars in criminology criminal justice international relations law and sociology Forging New Conventional Wisdom Beyond International Policing Bryn

Hughes,Charles T. Hunt,Jodie Curth-Bibb,2013-01-08 Forging New Conventional Wisdom Beyond International Policing Learning from Complex Political Realities provides an innovative perspective in the field by conceptualizing international policing as part of a much broader system of peace and capacity development initiatives After establishing the global context and historical evolution of police in peace operations authors Bryn Hughes Charles T Hunt and Jodie Curth Bibb proceed to recast key ontological and epistemological aspects Examinations of the Rule of Law and Monitoring and Evaluation in peace and capacity building establish a solid foundation upon which the authors offer a convincing argument for a new post Weberian approach In Forging New Conventional Wisdom Beyond International Policing Learning from Complex Political Realities researchers practitioners and policy makers will find a critical addition to the current discourse on international policing Technical Problems of International Policing Council on Foreign Relations,1944 Global Policing Benjamin examples the book demonstrates how a theory of global policing is central to understanding global governance Crafting Transnational Policing Andrew Goldsmith, James Sheptycki, 2007-11-16 The book examines the phenomenon of crafting transnational policing By this term is meant the different forms of engagement in policing reform by international donors national governments foreign police and law enforcement agencies in the domestic policing agencies and programs of recipient countries It includes inter alia peace keeping in post conflict situations reconstruction and capacity building as part of nation or state building exercises and the provision of technical assistance in relation to certain aspects of law enforcement In each instance there is a cross border provision of resources with a view to shaping the kind of policing provided in recipient nations Why do some countries engage in these activities Why has policing become a preferred form of foreign policy engagement in some countries What forms of policing development are provided How are they delivered And how are they received How should these kinds of assistance and or interventions be conducted in future In this regard is there a non negotiable core of good policing that needs to be developed and nurtured as an integral part of all defensible transnational policing engagements These are some of the questions raised by the contributions to this book The book arises primarily from papers presented at a workshop held in Onati Spain in July 2004 on the emergence of a global constabulary ethic The book has also been supplemented by two solicited chapters Political Science ,2011 Innovative
