Rows And Rows Of Fences Ritwik Ghatak On Cinema:

The Montage Principle ,2016-08-29 This book of essays is quite unique in that it intervenes in a still contested area within many universities that of the relevance of film to literature critical theory politics sociology and anthropology The essays were commissioned by Jean Antoine Dunne whose research has explored the impact of Eisenstein s aesthetics on different areas of modernist literature and drama The essays in this collection use Eisenstein as a point of departure into divergent fields of analysis and are concerned with the principle of montage as a transforming idea They gather within the pages of one work contributions from Geoffrey Nowell Smith Richard Taylor Paul Willemen and emerging scholars entering and altering the field of interdisciplinary scholarship film and literature These hitherto unpublished essays not only extend and elaborate on previous treatments of Eisenstein and montage in areas such as semiotics film theory and feminist film practice but also introduce his work to areas which have not yet been considered in relation to Eisenstein and montage such as Beckett scholarship Caribbean aesthetics Third Cinema and debates around digital imagery No other collection of essays has explored the idea of montage as a structuring cultural and critical principle and the elasticity of Eisenstein s legacy in quite this way Global Art Cinema Rosalind Galt,Karl Schoonover,2010-04-14 Art cinema has for over fifty years defined how audiences and critics imagine film outside Hollywood but surprisingly little scholarly attention has been paid to the concept since the 1970s And yet in the last thirty years art cinema has flourished worldwide The emergence of East Asian and Latin American new waves the reinvigoration of European film the success of Iranian directors and the rise of the film festival have transformed the landscape of world cinema This book brings into focus art cinema s core internationalism demonstrating its centrality to understanding film as a global phenomenon The book reassesses the field of art cinema in light of recent scholarship on world film cultures In addition to analysis of key regions and films the essays cover topics including theories of the film image industrial aesthetic and political histories and art film s intersections with debates on genre sexuality new media forms and postcolonial cultures Global Art Cinema brings together a diverse group of scholars in a timely conversation that reaffirms the category of art cinema as relevant provocative and in fact fundamental to contemporary film studies Rows and Rows of Fences Ritwik Ghatak,2000 Filming the Line of Control Meenakshi Bharat,Nirmal Kumar,2012-04-27 Filming the Line of Control charts out the history of the relationship between India and Pakistan as represented in cinema especially in light of the improved political atmosphere between the two countries It is geared towards arriving at a better understanding of one of the most crucial political and historical relationships in the continent a relationship that has a key role to play in world politics and in the shaping of world history Part of this exciting study is the documentation of popular responses to Indian films from both within the two countries and among the Pakistani and Indian diaspora The motive of this has been to locate and discuss aspects that link the two sensibilities either in divergence or in their coming together This book brings together scholars from across the globe as also filmmakers and viewers on to a common platform to capture the dynamics of popular imagination Reverberating with a unique inter disciplinary alertness to cinematic historical cultural and sociological understanding this study will interest readers throughout the world who have their eye on the burgeoning importance of the sub continental players in the world arena It is a penetrating study of films that carries the thematic brunt of attempting to construct a history of Indo Pakistan relations as reflected in cinema This book directs our holistic attention to the unique confluence between history and film studies

The Fluid Frame in Cinema Pradipta Mukherjee, 2021-08-13 This book is a passionate rendezvous with cinema the most collaborative of art forms The essays here explore the possibilities offered by a close reading of cinema that keeps cultural contexts and their socio historical roots firmly in sight This collection does not consider the frame that oft referenced basic unit of vision in films as a limiting structure Rather it brings into purview what is left out Divided into three sections the essays look firstly at Indian cinema both Bollywood and regional films tracing the journey of Indian cinema from the periphery to the center The second section focuses on Adaptation Studies and takes an unorthodox look at classic adaptations of literature The final section is a reappraisal of directors like Alfred Hitchcock and Stanley Kubrick The essays propose that even though the film as an artwork does not change fundamentally over time it still strikes a contemporary critical gaze differently

The Indian Partition in Literature and Films Rini Bhattacharya Mehta, Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2014-12-17 This book presents an examination of fictional representations in books and films of the 1947 Partition that led to the creation of the sovereign nation states of India and Pakistan While the process of representing the Partition experience through words and images began in the late 1940s it is only in the last few decades that literary critics and film scholars have begun to analyse the work The emerging critical scholarship on the Partition and its aftermath has deepened our understanding of the relationship between historical trauma collective memory and cultural processes and this book provides critical readings of literary and cinematic texts on the impact of the Partition both in the Punjab and in Bengal The collection assembles studies on Anglophone writings with those on the largely unexplored vernacular works and those which have rarely found a place in discussions on the Partition It looks at representations of women s experiences of gendered violence in the Partition riots and how literary texts have filled in the lack of the human dimension in Partition histories The book goes on to highlight how the memory of the Partition is preserved and how the creative arts relation to public memory and its place within the public sphere has changed through time Collectively the essays present a nuanced understanding of how the experience of violence displacement and trauma shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in the Indian subcontinent Mapping the diverse topographies of Partition related uncertainties and covering both well known and lesser known texts on the Partition this book will be a useful contribution to studies of South Asian History Asian Literature and Asian Film

The Cloud-Capped Star (Meghe Dhaka Tara) Manishita Dass, 2020-10-01 Ritwik Ghatak s The Cloud Capped Star Meghe Dhaka Tara 1960 has been hailed as one of the great classics of world cinema Adrian Martin and one of the five or six greatest melodramas in cinema history Serge Daney A striking blend of modernist aesthetics and melodramatic force it is arguably the best known film by Ghatak widely considered to be one of the most original politically committed and formally innovative film makers from India The film s focus on a family uprooted by the Partition of India and its powerful exploration of displacement and historical trauma gives it a renewed relevance in the midst of a global refugee crisis Manishita Dass situates the film in its historical and cultural contexts and within Ghatak s film making career and connects it to his theatrical work and his writings on film and theatre Her close reading of the film locates its emotional and intellectual power in what she describes as its cinematic theatricality and brings into focus Ghatak s modernist experiments with melodramatic devices his deliberate departures from cinematic realism and distinctive use of sound and music The book draws on extensive archival research excavates new layers of meaning and offers fresh insights into the cosmopolitan cinematic sensibility of a director described as one of the most neglected major film makers in the world Jonathan Rosenbaum The Maker of Filmmakers Radha Chadha, 2025-09-15 When Jagat Murari a young film student in post war America finds himself at the feet of one of cinema s true giants Orson Welles during the making of Macbeth in 1947 the lessons he absorbs on that set will shape not only his future but also the future of Indian cinema Returning to a newly independent India Jagat goes on to build the Film and Television Institute of India FTII from the ground up In The Maker of Filmmakers Radha Chadha offers an intimate and meticulously researched portrait of her father a celebrated documentary filmmaker and the iconic film school he built With uncanny consistency FTII turned out top talent the likes of Shabana Azmi and Jaya Bachchan Adoor Gopalakrishnan and Subhash Ghai and other cinema legends His alumni became the leading actors directors cinematographers sound designers and editors of Bollywood and beyond They spearheaded the Indian New Wave kickstarted regional language cinema and helped usher television into the country How did Jagat go about making such extraordinary filmmakers What was his secret formula With unprecedented access to Jagat s diaries letters personal papers and over 100 interviews with alumni and colleagues Radha Chadha leads us behind the scenes and into the mind of a visionary who reshaped Indian cinema even as he grappled with its many challenges A gripping tale of ambition adversity and artistic brilliance richly illustrated with rare photographs The Maker of Filmmakers paints a vivid picture of one man s unwavering belief in the transformative power of cinema and how his determination helped turn Indian cinema into the global powerhouse it is today Set against the backdrop of some of the landmark events and characters of the last century this is biography and cinematic history at its best Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures Rochona Majumdar, 2021-10-12 Co Winner 2023 Chidananda Dasgupta Award for the Best Writing on Cinema Chidananda Dasgupta Memorial Trust Shortlisted 2022 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association Longlisted 2022 Moving Image Book Award Kraszna Krausz Foundation The project of Indian art cinema began in the years following independence in 1947 at once evoking the global reach of the term art film and speaking to the aspirations of the new nation state In this pioneering book

Rochona Majumdar examines key works of Indian art cinema to demonstrate how film emerged as a mode of doing history and that in so doing it anticipated some of the most influential insights of postcolonial thought Majumdar details how filmmakers as well as a host of film societies and publications sought to foster a new cinematic culture for the new nation fueled by enthusiasm for a future of progress and development Good films would help make good citizens art cinema would not only earn global prestige but also shape discerning individuals capable of exercising aesthetic and political judgment During the 1960s however Satyajit Ray Mrinal Sen and Ritwik Ghatak the leading figures of Indian art cinema became disillusioned with the belief that film was integral to national development Instead Majumdar contends their works captured the unresolvable contradictions of the postcolonial present which pointed toward possible yet unrealized futures Analyzing the films of Ray Sen and Ghatak and working through previously unexplored archives of film society publications Majumdar offers a radical reinterpretation of Indian film history Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures offers sweeping new insights into film's relationship with the postcolonial condition and its role in decolonial imaginations of the future Cinemas Dark and Slow in Digital India Lalitha Gopalan, 2021-02-12

This book provides a sustained engagement with contemporary Indian feature films from outside the mainstream including Aaranaya Kaandam I D Kaul Chauthi Koot Cosmic Sex and Gaali Beeja to undercut the dominance of Bollywood focused film studies Gopalan assembles films from Bangalore Chennai Delhi Kolkata and Trivandrum in addition to independent productions in Bombay cinema as a way of privileging understudied works that deserve critical attention The book uses close readings of films and a deep investigation of film style to draw attention to the advent of digital technologies while remaining fully cognizant of the digital as a cryptic formulation for considering the sea change in the global circulation of film and finance This dual focus on both the techno material conditions of Indian cinema and the film narrative offers a fulsome picture of changing narratives and shifting genres and styles Partitioned Lives Anjali Gera Roy, Nandi Bhatia, 2008 Contributed articles chiefly with reference to India

Goodbye Cinema, Hello Cinephilia Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2010-10-15 1 Position Papers 2 Actors Actors Writers Directors Filmmakers 3 Films 4 Criticism The Revolution of Indian Parallel Cinema in the Global South (1968-1995) Omar Ahmed, 2025-01-23 Drawing from over a decade of research and writings this book takes you on an epic journey through the history of Indian Parallel Cinema 1968-1995 India the late 1960s Something was in the air A film manifesto penned by passionate cinephiles called for a new cinema An exciting generation of iconoclastic filmmakers were on the march the first to graduate from the newly incarnated Film and Television Institute of India seizing the moment to forge one of the first major post colonial film movements What emerged was an unprecedented level of creativity merging international influences with experimental indigenous styles and creating an aesthetic and thematic rupture and that ultimately led to new ways of making films But it is a story that has rarely been told inextricably absent from the parochial Euro centric and linear histories of film This is the story of Indian Parallel Cinema From auteurs like Mani Kaul and John Abraham to Smita Patil and Om Puri

The Revolution of Indian Parallel Cinema in the Global South explores the origins evolution demise and legacy of a film movement that produced a pantheon of innovative filmmakers in excess of two hundred films and a distinctly regional identity in which film societies state funding and political insurgency were catalysts for a defiant radical dialogue much of it anti establishment that broke all the rules Most importantly this publication considers the ways in which Parallel Cinema narrated a new history from below using a range of case studies that includes Uski Roti Mirch Masala and Amma Ariyan

South Asian Cinemas Sara Dickey,Rajinder Dudrah,2018-10-24 This path breaking collection explores the breadth and depth of South Asia s many vibrant cinemas It extends well beyond Bollywood to Nepali Sri Lankan Pakistani Panjabi Bhojpuri Bengali Kannada and early Tamil cinemas while unpacking the category of Bollywood itself The coverage of cinematic features is equally far ranging exploring music dance audiences filmmakers industries and the mutual influences among South Asia s cinemas With a mix of ethnographic historical auteur and textual approaches this exciting collection presents the first wide reaching analysis of South Asian cinemas The nine chapters include a new theoretical and historical engagement by the co editors about the burgeoning area of South Asian cinemas in the academy as well as original research by young and established scholars From historical to contemporary considerations to close analyses and empirical material from fieldwork to a rich and revealing photographic essay this collection will be novel reading for a new generation of work into an important global cinematic region This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asian Popular Culture

Insurgent Metaphors Pothik Ghosh,2022-10-04 Marxism s cultural turn which has been prominent in its operation over at least the past four decades continues to belie the hope it had initially held out The idea that such a move would eventually pull Marxism out of its ontological crisis is on the verge of a miscarriage That is certainly the case in sub continental South Asia Unsurprisingly therefore culturally turned Marxism survives as the sign of the very crisis it was meant to surpass Its canonisation within the academia and beyond as a mere analytic of culture has led to the blurring of politico ideological lines The quietist impulse that this theory of the science of revolution has as a consequence come to share with so called poststructuralism implies its complete detachment from all notions and conceptions of class and class action The 13 essays that comprise this book are envisaged as a small attempt from South Asia where communitarian postcolonialism and Marxist culturalism constitute the most respectable trend in radical theory to remedy the situation

The Performance of Nationalism Jisha Menon,2013 Jisha Menon s book explores the mimetic relationships between history and political performance and between India and Pakistan

The Refugee Woman Paulomi Chakraborty,2018-07-27 The Refugee Woman examines the Partition of 1947 by engaging with the cultural imagination of the refugee woman in West Bengal particularly in three significant texts of the Partition of Bengal Ritwik Ghatak's film Meghe Dhaka Tara and two novels Jyotirmoyee Devi's Epar Ganga Opar Ganga and Sabitri Roy's Swaralipi It shows that the figure of the refugee woman animated by the history of the political left and refugee movements and shaped by powerful cultural narratives can contest and reconstitute the very political imagination of woman that emerged through the long history of dominant cultural nationalisms The reading it offers elucidates some of the complexities of nationalist communal and communist gender politics of a key period in post independence Bengal

Art and Visibility in Migratory Culture
Mieke Bal, Miguel Á. Hernández-Navarro, 2011-01-15 This book explores the idea that art can enact small scale resistances against the status quo in the social domain These acts which we call little resistances determine the limited yet potentially powerful political impact of art From different angles seventeen authors consider the spaces where art events occur as political spaces and explore how such spaces host events of disagreements in migratory culture The newly coined word migratory refers to the sensible traces of the movements of migration that characterize contemporary culture In other words movement is not an exceptional occurrence in an otherwise stable world but a normal generalized process in a world that cannot be grasped in terms of any given notion of stability Thus the book offers fresh reflections on art's power to move people in the double sense of that verb and shows how it helps to illuminate migratory culture's contributions to this process

Bollywood's India Priya Joshi, 2015-03-03 Bollywood is India's most popular entertainment and one of its most powerful social forces Its blockbusters contest ideas about state formation capture the nation's dispersed anxieties and fabricate public fantasies of what constitutes India Written by an award winning scholar of popular culture and postcolonial modernity Bollywood's India analyzes the role of the cinema's most popular blockbusters in making unmaking and remaking modern India With dazzling interpretive virtuosity Priya Joshi provides an interdisciplinary account of popular cinema as a space that filters politics and modernity for its viewers Themes such as crime and punishment family and individuality vigilante and community capture the diffuse aspirations of an evolving nation Summoning India's tumultuous 1970s as an interpretive lens Joshi reveals the cinema's social work across decades that saw the decline of studios the rise of the multi starrer genre and the arrival of corporate capital and new media platforms In elegantly crafted studies of iconic and less familiar films including Awara 1951 Ab Dilli Dur Nahin 1957 Deewaar 1975 Sholay 1975 Dil Se 1998 A Wednesday 2008 and 3 Idiots 2009 Joshi powerfully conveys the pleasures and politics of Bollywood blockbusters
