The SAGE Handbook of Management Learning, Education and Development Steven J Armstrong, Cynthia V Fukami, 2009-05-07 The scholarship of management teaching and learning has established itself as a field in its own right and this benchmark handbook is the first to provide an account of the discipline. Original chapters from leading international academics identify the key issues and map out where the discipline is going. Each chapter provides a comprehensive and critical overview of the given topic area, highlights current debates and reviews the emerging research agenda. Chapters embrace the study of organizations as a whole, the concepts of individual and collective learning, the delivery of formal management education and the facilitation of management development. Through consideration of these themes, the Handbook analyzes, promotes and critiques the contribution of management learning, education and development to management understanding. It will be an invaluable point of reference for all students and researchers interested in broadening their understanding of this exciting and dynamic new field.

National Assessment of Educational Progress 1969-1983 Theodore B. Pratt, 1984 During its first 14 years of existence, the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) was located at the Education Commission of the States (ECS). This annotated bibliography of 575 references lists all major publications by or about NAEP published between 1969 and 1983. References are in a classified arrangement by specific or special assessment. Documents not dealing with a specific assessment are grouped by Methodological Publications, Special Analyses, and General and Miscellaneous Materials. By NAEP are separated from materials about NAEP done by external organizations. Subject, Personal Author, and Preparing Institution indexes are provided. The compilation is based on materials, documents, and journal articles archived in the database of the Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) and therefore most documents cited can be obtained through the ERIC Document Reproduction Service (EDRS).
