Inference 1

Reading Strategies Worksheet

Sometimes when you are reading, you must "read between the lines," or infer what the meaning of an unfamiliar word is. This process is called making an inference.

Directions: Read the following paragraph and try to infer the meaning of the highlighted words as you read.

Sometimes in life, things can get hard and complicated, and it's normal for us to feel a little bit sad. But it's in those moments that our spirits get tested, so it's super important to have a good strategy in place. People who are good at dealing with tough situations with grace often receive respect and admiration. On the other hand, there are some people who are cynical, who don't believe in positive outcomes. They might think any success is just a matter of being over confident, without acknowledging the effort and dedication put into it. In our complex world, life doesn't always follow a straight path, and sometimes the rewards, which can lead to even better things, then we handle these situations when sometimes adversity are successful or fail.

Circle the word closest in meaning to how it was used in the paragraph above.
