

Passage I

Question 1. The best answer is C because it appropriately uses the relative pronoun who to introduce the clause that modifies students—"who join our senior class." Besides introducing that clause, the pronoun who also functions as the subject of the clause.

The best answer is NOT:

A because it creates a comma splice (two or more complete sentences separated only by a comma). The phrase "those teenagers" is the subject of the second complete sentence.

B because it, too, produces a comma splice. In addition, it creates grammatical disagreement between the plural students and the singular he or she.

D because it creates a run-on, or fused, sentence. There is no punctuation or conjunction (connecting word) between the two statements.

Question 2. The best answer is G because it provides the predicate was, which produces a complete sentence. Remember that a statement that has no predicate verb is a sentence fragment (an incomplete sentence).

The best answer is NOT:

F because it uses the verb form being, which is a participle. Because it is a verb form, a participle is often mistaken for the main verb in a sentence. This statement has no predicate, so it is a sentence fragment.

H because it has no predicate verb. Without a predicate, the statement is a sentence fragment and does not express a complete thought.

J because it lacks a verb and therefore creates another sentence fragment.

Question 3. The best answer is A because it correctly uses the pronoun who to introduce the clause that describes Ligia Antolinez. In this sentence, who is required because it refers to a person. The pronoun who is also appropriate because it functions as the subject of the clause.

The best answer is NOT:

B because it uses the object pronoun whom instead of the subject pronoun who.

C because it uses the pronoun which when the personal pronoun who is required. In general, who refers to people and which refers to objects, events, or animals.

D because it inserts an unnecessary pronoun, she. Because who is the subject of the descriptive clause, the pronoun she has no function in this sentence.
